VOLUME III, NO. 114.

TOWANDA, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LOCALS.

Personal.

Hon. GEO. MOSCRIP, of Burlington, was in town yesterday.

Editor STRONG and wife came down from Dushore to hear Josh Billings.

Principal MCCOLLOM, of the Troy Graded School, was in town yesterday.

Miss WINNIE DAMES, of Elmira College, is home for the Christmas vacation.

Miss LILLIE MERCUR came down from Sayre last evening, to attend JOSH BILLINGS' lecture.

Rev. E. P. HAMMOND, the evangelist, is about to commence revival and evangelistic work in Nashville, Tenn.

Miss EUGENIA MACFARLENE has gone to Williamsport to spend the holidays with her friend, Miss BLANCHE LINN.

CHARLEY HILL is so far recovered from his late illness that he has resumed his position in the Erie office, Waverly.

Dr. JOHN D. MERCUR of Philadelphia is in town and will eat his Christmas goose and plum pudding with his parents, Judge and Mrs. MERCUR.

The mite received at the Episcopal Social at the Ward House, last Monday evening, amounted to $51 80—the largest taken any one evening this season—and Mrs. CROSS naturally feels quite proud.

The Reverend E. A. ENOS, the newly elected Rector of Christ Church, has telegraphed the Warden, Col. MEANS, that he will arrive here on Saturday and conduct Christmas services in the Church, which is being elegantly trimmed, on Sunday, Christmas day.

L-Raysville sent a large delegation down to hear Josh Billings last evening. Among those present from that wide-awake village were L. P. BLACKMAN, SAM DAVIS, W. B. PAYSON, Mr. FITCHER, M. B. BOSWORTH, C. C. WESTBROOK, O. E. PAYSON, and JAS. BAILEY.

Mr. BARRON, who has for the past three years been with a large western hardware house as traveling salesman, in Kansas, is making his daughter, Mrs. Capt. MANVILLE, a brief visit. He is looking well, from which we conclude the western atmosphere agrees with him.

On the first of January the firm of PATCH & TRACY will be dissolved, Mr. PATCH retiring to engage in the general mercantile business at Sayre. We understand Mr. TRACY is to continue the business of the late firm. Mr. HARLON PATCH has been one of our most enterprising, honorable merchants, and his numerous friends and customers hereabouts will regret to have him leave. He will certainly prove a valuable acquisition to the thriving embryo city of Sayre and we hope he may be as thoroughly appreciated by the good people there as he is here.

The Towanda Library will not be open Saturday Dec. 24th nor Saturday Dec. 31st.

A severe accident lately to a star performer had a far happier termination than was expected. The wife of H. Stowe, Esq., manager of Dan Rice's Great Show, was terribly injured by being thrown from her horse while performing at Cadiz, Ohio. St. Jacobs Oil alone was used and cured her in four days.

Patrons and friends of the Graded school, should encourage the faithful teachers and scholars by attending the Roll of Honor exercises to-morrow afternoon. The school has never been in a more flourishing condition, and the monthly Friday afternoon exercises are very interesting.

Mrs. MARY ANN JONES, wife of JOSEPH JONES, died yesterday afternoon. The deceased had been in poor health for several years and had been gradually sinking for a month past. She was about 60 years of age. Rev. GEO. D. STROUD will conduct the burial services which will be held at the house, near the upper depot, at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

An unfortunate case of dementia attracted an unusual amount of attention at the Erie depot last evening. The afflicted lady's sufferings were aggravated by the presence of so many people. Such scenes are of too serious a nature to be made the subject of jests. The lady was being taken by friends to Troy, Pa., for treatment.—Binghamton Republican.

EMMERSON VOUGHT, of Ghent, Sheshequin township, died Tuesday afternoon, after a brief illness. He was engaged in teaching at Morres' Hill and having contracted a severe cold, went home last Wednesday, and was only confined to the house six days. The deceased was in his 22d year, and an unusually promising young man. A brother, who was a student at the Institute in this place, died quite suddenly, a year and a half ago. Funeral at Ghent M. E. church this morning at 10 o'clock.

H. W. SHAW, (Josh Billings), was greeted by a literally full house last evening, notwithstanding the rain. Mercur Hall has seldom been so well filled—every seat was occupied and many were compelled to stand. "Josh" was introduced by Col. SMITH in some facetious remarks, which were well received by the audience. While Mr. SHAW's effort was highly entertaining it could hardly be called a lecture; it was simply a rehearsal of some of his pleasantest and brightest "Josh Billings'" sayings, which were listened to with added interest as they fell from the lips of the witty and talented author. The audience gave indubitable evidence of their entire satisfaction with the entertainment.
