"THE BEST NEWSPAPER EVER PUBLISHED IN PENNSYLVANIA." This is one of the many complimentary things said about the Philadelphia Press, by its cotemporaries. It is indeed an enterprising and thoroughly readable newspaper, whose pages are never soiled by the unclean things which make so many journals of the day dangerous visitors in the family circle. If you are not a reader of The Press already, send for a specimen copy.

The Grand Army boys put in good time on Thursday afternoon last in cutting wood for an invalid brother. S. W. BUCK gave the wood as well as his services in helping to cut it. This magnanimity among the comrades to assist each other in cases of necessity, is certainly very commendable. The soldier boys never forget to render assistance when the occasion demands it. Mr. S. B. CANFIELD in whose interest the wood was cut, has been for some time afflicted with sore eyes, and for the generous act he extends his thanks.—Le Raysville Advertiser.
