While the Portuguese Church of St. John the Baptist in Boston was undergoing repairs last September, the workmen found a spring of pure water beneath the building. A well was dug, above it a shrine was erected, and the water was consecrated. The pastor of the church assured his people that there was no miraculous power or even medical virtue in the water, and that if any cures had been effected they were simply the result of faith in God. But the people would not accept the explanation, and the stories of the remarkable virtues of the water spread rapidly. Soon there was a perfect rush of people to the church and it was found necessary to establish restrictions in regard to supplying the coveted fluid. Applicants are now required to repeat prayers for the souls in purgatory and drop a cent into the contribution-box, and are supplied with the water in bottles.

The Tribune: The fact published in The Tribune the other day about the frauds in the last Mississippi election are not disputed by anybody. The Democratic editors unanimously ignore them, which is a more discreet and honest course than their former one of denouncing all such revelations as "Radical lies." The Memphis Avalanche, an Independent Democratic paper, which keeps a close eye on Mississippi politics, says: "There never was a more fraudulent election than the Mississippi election, and the State is filled and ruled by office-stealers, and everybody knows it. Such a thing as a fair election is unknown in that State." This is a notorious fact. Yet Senator Lamar expects to be reelected to the Senate by these "office-stealers," and will steal for him. We should like extremely well to see him give a high-toned explanation of his motives in profiting by this infamous theft.

In a truly rural district of Arkansas an old man was accused of stealing a pig. It was a clear case, but to the astonishment of everybody the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty, in exact opposition to the evidence and the Judge's charge. When the court adjourned the Judge approached the counsel for the defence and remarked: "Look here, my friend, I never heard of such a verdict. I cannot, as an impartial disseminator of justice, allow so flagrant an outrage to be perpetrated on this community. That man is as guilty as Judas, but if you will tell me the secret of the acquittal I'll allow the verdict to pass." "You see, Judge, some of the jurymen was rather young and some rather older." "Yes, but what does that signify?" "It signifies that I run in the old man's twelve sons on the jury."

Congressman Charles N. Brumm of Schuylkill county, introduced a bill Friday of last week, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to audit the claim of the county of Schuylkill. This claim is against the National Government and is for nearly $40,000. During the war, when that county was crowded with soldiers the county furnished allotments to the amount of something like $200,000. Over $160,000 of this money was refunded. The remainder it is stated remains unpaid.

The will of Col. Forney instructs his executors to endeavor to secure repayment from the Government of $49,000, paid by Forney while Secretary of the Senate on account of the defalcation of a subordinate.

DR. A. E. BURR'S HOMEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
