The wood of the immense catafalque in which the remains of the late President were laid in state at Cleveland has been carefully preserved and is being made up into various ornamental and useful little articles as souvenirs of the Garfield funeral services. Under the auspices of a "Garfield Relic Bureau" the souvenirs are sold at special agencies in several Western cities and at Washington and the money arising from the sales goes to the monument fund. A single firm is engaged in the manufacture and is under heavy bonds to use none but the genuine material of the catafalque and every article is marked with a copyright stamp to preclude the chance of counterfeiting. The demand for the mementos is large and a handsome amount will be realized in aid of the monument.

"When (political) rogues fall out," etc. The "Continental Congress" has had another session, this time at the Girard House. Had the "machine" men held such a conclave, they would have been denounced as conspirators, even had they decided to recommend the same political programme as the "Continental Congress." Why not call a joint meeting of the contending factions for counsel, and thus present an unbroken front to the enemy when the campaign opens next season.

The Republican organization means to the masses something more than an angry, selfish struggle for office, and if the leaders, under any pretext whatever, seek to subvert it to such an end they ought to be displaced whether they are termed "bosses" or independents.

The people of the state would be abundantly satisfied with either Beaver or Grow for Governor—either would make a better executive than we have had lately, and the fact that they are championed by Cameron and Quay or Stewart, Davies and Lee should make no difference.

Chalmers has introduced a bill in the House providing for the issue of $360,000,000 treasury notes, having the legal tender qualities now given national bank notes. The bill also provides that any bank, national, State or private, shall be relieved from the tax on deposits and the stamp act on checks, if it will make monthly exchanges with the Treasurer of national bank notes for treasury notes.

The Legislative salary case is likely to have an early hearing, if the efforts of counsel on both sides can secure one. J. McDowell Sharp, of counsel for the legislators, was in Harrisburg this week and with the Attorney-General joins in a request to the Supreme Court that the case be given a hearing at Philadelphia as soon as possible.

The Tunkhannock Standard (dem.) says as between Grow and Davies, the latter is its choice for Governor.

A dispatch from Vienna states that the telegrams about the Jeannette evoke the greatest sympathy throughout Germany.

Postmaster-General Howe, who is now at home in Wisconsin, is not expected to enter upon his new duties until after the first of January.

A dispatch from Brownsville, Texas, states that three noted bandits, captured near Renosa, Mexico, were on Wednesday hanged by some Mexican vigilants.

Secretary Folger disclaims any intention of anticipating the January interest. He considered such a step uncalled for under the present satisfactory condition of the finances.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The World's Evangelical Alliance has appointed the first week in January as the week of prayer, the following is the program which is sent forth to all the churches of the world:

MONDAY, January 2.—Thanksgiving for the blessings, temporal and spiritual, for the past year, and prayer for their continuance.

D. A. E. BURR'S

HOMEOPATHIC

LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
