Books by eminent authors and Poets, in the finest bindings suitable for holiday presents, at WHITCOMB'S.

Judging from the amount of handsome furniture we have seen going away from FROST'S Sons establishment the past few days, we judge Santa Claus knows where to buy such goods.

"By reason of a severely sprained ankle, one of my horses began to go very lame," writes Mr. R. Arnold, 219 Metting street, Charleston, S. C. "A thorough application of St. Jacobs Oil entirely cured the horse. I heartily endorse it as an excellent remedy for stock." Every one should use it.

Arrangements have been made with Messrs. LESTER & HEYWOOD, of Myersdale, Pa., to start a creamery at this place, as soon as 1000 cows are pledged. Such men as A. H. THOMAS, STEPHEN BRACE and ALONZO MORSE are taking hold of the matter, and no doubt the requisite number of cows will be secured.—Troy Reatster.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE, published by JAMES VICK, of Rochester, N.Y., for 1882 is one of the handsomest pamphlets we have ever seen. Every rare and beautiful flower known to the field, the garden or the hothouse is therein described and set forth in all its beauties, with full instructions to those desiring to cultivate. Those desirous of securing this beautiful work, which contains 136 pages and over 1,000 illustrations of shrubs, plants and flowers, can obtain it by sending his or her address, with ten cents, to JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y. It will well repay, as it gives the names common and botanical, with a beautiful likeness of the flower or shrub in its most perfect form.

HOW TO ROAST A TURKEY.—The secret in having a good roast turkey is to stuff it palatably, to baste it often and to cook it long enough. A small turkey of seven or eight pounds should be roasted or baked three hours at least. A very large turkey should be cooked an hour longer. After the turkey is dressed, season it well, sprinkle pepper and salt on the inside, stuff it and tie it well in shape; either lard the top or lay slices of bacon over it; wet the skin, and sprinkle it well with pepper, salt and flour. It is well to allow a turkey to remain some time stuffed before cooking. Pour a little boiling water into the bottom of the dripping pan. Just before taking it out of the oven put on more melted butter, and sprinkle over more flour; this will make the skin more crisp and brown. While the turkey is cooking boil the giblets well; chop them fine, and mash the liver. When the turkey is done put it on a hot platter. But the baking pan on the fire, dredge in a little flour, and when cooked stir in a little boiling water; strain it, skim off every article of fat, add the giblets; season with salt and pepper. If chestnut stuffing is used, add some boiled chestnuts to this gravy. It is excellent.
