OUR CANDIDATES. Our readers have the satisfaction of seeing our combined State, District and County Ticket, at length displayed full and defiantly at the head of our columns.

It is with a great degree of satisfaction we are able to call it a SOLDIERS' TICKET, SOLDIERS' in the broadest and truest acceptation of the term. True, we have two citizens upon our roll but they deserve the appellation of CITIZEN SOLDIERS inasmuch as they defended the rear while the others pressed the enemy in front.

Were it in our power to add to the encomiums already passed upon the candidates for Governor and for Congress we would glory in doing so. But, all are acquainted with their past history, their brilliant public services, and untainted record. If we may judge the future by the past there is certainly a cheering prospect before them, a reward for their labors in field and forum, the suffrages of a loyal and grateful people.

Our County Ticket is of the right stamp, men whose past conduct speaks volumes for their character. Men who though officers were private soldiers and rose to the rank they attained by their own indomitable bravery and heroic action, bearing upon their bodies sufficient certificates of personal valor in their ragged wounds. There capability none can doubt as they rank among the ablest business men of our county. It is certainly a ticket beside which the opposition dwindles into mere insignificance. Theirs is composed of men

"That never set a squadron in the field, Nor the division of a battle knows More than a splinter."

The Union Ticket are representatives of scores of battle-fields, hardy war-worn veterans, familiar with the sulphurous smoke of the conflict. Then let all this be remembered, and when you come to the polls in the Fall, give those who stood between your country and ruin the past six years, your honest, hearty support.

UNION SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.

We have this week the pleasure of chronicling one of the most glorious victories for this County since the surrender of Lee's myriads at Appantox Court House. The parties who called the meeting were met on their own issue, declined to set in Convention and content the case fairly, manfully and impartially, but departed for a more congenial atmosphere, leaving us an undivided House. We would that it had not been so, but as the odds were so overwhelmingly against them it is presumed they thought otherwise. In another column the proceedings are given in full. We hope all our exchanges and readers will give it the widest circulation throughout County and State. It is a victory to be proud of for the sole reason that it was achieved in GREENE COUNTY. Let there be no misunderstanding, it is plain, and speaks for itself. What subterfuge will be resorted to counteract and contradict the plain teachings of this last Convention, remains to be developed, but we defy any one to do it honestly. Let no man be influenced by prejudice but read calmly and be convinced. We have scores of soldiers names approving the action of the convention, names, too, which by humbuggery and false pretense they obtained, and attached to the list calling for the anti-Geary meeting— Would it not be honorable, now that we have opened their eyes, that the leaders of that call would withdraw those names without a personal invitation?— We would publish our list, but think it unnecessary, filling as it would treat a space in our sheet. If demanded, however, we will promptly bring them forth as they were given us for that purpose. We understand that after leaving the Convention the dissatisfied members went down into a small office on the first floor of the Court House and held their convalesce. One of our friends makes the suggestive remark that "no doubt there was ample room for all."

None but SOLDIERS took part in the proceedings we publish, what the composition of the other was the Lord only knows, as none but the initiated were admitted—they barricading the door!

LOOK AT THE RECORD

Mr CLYMER never, by word or deed, placed any obstacle in the way of a speedy and successful prosecution of the war. In his entire career we defy any one to point his finger to a solitary expression of our candidate which can be construed into any act of disloyalty, while hundreds of instances can be cited to prove his love of country. —Copperhead Organs.

The Legislative Record of 1864, page 23, states that on the following resolution: Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania urge upon the Congress of the United States the propriety of increasing the pay of officers and privates of the army and navy; the officers twenty-five and the privates one hundred per cent.

Hiestler Clymer voted in the negative. The vote stood 16 to 16—and the resolution was lost. This is to be accounted for on the hypothesis that Mr. Clymer considered our soldiers as "Line-In Hirelings," and therefore didn't want their pay raised.

On the 6th of January, 1864, the following resolution was before the Senate, and Hiestler Clymer voted in the negative: Resolved by the Senate, That the thanks of the loyal people of Pennsylvania are due and are hereby tendered to Gen. U. S. Grant and the officers and soldiers serving under him, for the series of gallant services and glorious victories resulting in the liberation of the faithful Union people of East Tennessee from a military despotism more galling than ever was that of Great Britain.

The vote stood again 16 to 16, and the resolution was lost.

We think that a very disloyal construction can be placed on these expressions. Will the Copperhead organs of the State now give a few "hundreds of instances" wherein Mr. Clymer "proved his love of country"?—Ed.

GEN. GRANT'S plan of reconstruction is novel, and, if applied, would no doubt prove effective, at least to a certain extent. Here it is as related by himself to a distinguished citizen of Maine:

"In my judgment," said Grant, "the tone of certain men and certain papers at the North is such as to do incalculable mischief in making the late rebels believe that they are just as much entitled to rule as ever, and that if they will only stand by what they are pleased to call their rights, they will have help from the North. This significantly added Grant, "is only playing over again the incipient stages of the rebellion." He was confident that the large majority of the Southern people would smother their resentments and become good citizens if these mischief-makers at the North (the Copperheads) would only let them alone.

For himself, if he had the power, the first thing he would do would be to seize the New York News and kindred sheets, which are giving the South so dangerous an idea of their own position and rights."

HURRAH! HURRAH!

GLORIOUS SOLDIERS' CONVENTION!!

THE 'BOYS IN BLUE' OF GREENE COUNTY AGAIN—SPEAK THE WAY THEY SHOT!!

THEY MEAN WHAT THEY SAY!!

And wish to Be Understood!

President Johnson Heartily Endorsed!

Case Being Altered, Alters the Case!

'THE BEST LAID SCHEMES OF WIVES AND MEN GANG AFT A GLEY!'

REJOICE! REJOICE!! YE PEOPLE!!!

LET IT BE SOUNDED FAR AND WIDE!

In accordance with a call made through the columns of the Messenger and by handbills posted throughout the County, the Soldiers met in Convention in the Court House on Saturday last— Mr. R. A. Sayers called the meeting to order and having stated that he understood it to be a Convention of Soldiers, moved that Mr. Thos. H. Meighan be called to the chair. Here Mr. Sam'l. Montgomery and others rose to point of order, doubting whether it was a Soldier's Convention but only men favorable to the "reconstruction policy" of President Johnson. It was, after some little parley, decided that it was a Union Soldiers Convention, irrespective of "policies" and political differences. The Yeas and Nays being called on the question of Chairman, the voice of the House was unanimously in favor of the affirmative, no response being made when the Nays were called. Mr. Meighan then took his seat in the chair, the House applauding loud and long. Whereupon things took the appearance of a second Baltimore imbroglio, the Southern members to the number of a dozen or fifteen holding in hot haste, amid the unkind jeers and hisses of some who were too enthusiastic to contain themselves during the excitement of the moment, otherwise they had uncovered their heads in silent reverence, for the doleful countenances of the few who betook themselves to the door reminded one forcibly of those seen in funeral corteges, who had lost their dearest friends. After three rousing cheers for their discomfited House proceeded to business.

Capt. J. M. Kent was appointed Vice President, R. A. Sayers, Sec. The object and design of coming together being fully understood, on motion, the Chairman was requested to select the Committee on Resolutions when the following named gentlemen were appointed: Capt. Jno. Burns, Lt. Jno. Rogers, Lt. L. K. Evans, Thos. Crago.

The Committee retired for business and whilst out Capt. J. H. Bristol of W. Va. was introduced and made a pleasing and patriotic address to the assembly. He told them in burning language of the treason that still runs rampant in our midst, how men who had been found in the ranks of the Union army either from wanton carelessness or willful ignorance were being subterged by the odious element, whirled down to a degradation par with Copperheadism itself and losing that honor won for themselves at the cannon's mouth. He reverted to the recent election in W. Va. with pride, and assured Greene Co. that he was pleased to find so many as were then present, true to themselves and their constituents. The Capt. acquitted himself ably and nobly, and retired amid the loud plaudits of the audience.

Lieut. F. H. Crago was then called to the speakers stand and delivered a few excellent remarks. He said he was there to vindicate himself as one of the delegates to the Pittsburg Convention. That he had understood from different sources that the delegation from Greene Co. chosen by a few (!) had misrepresented the majority of the soldiers in the County. He was proud to see that such insinuations were false and for a second time the proceedings of that Convention would be ratified, as the stern faces of those who sat before him indicated. The Committee on Resolutions having returned the Lieut. retired loudly applauded. Lieut. L. K. Evans, Chairman of the Committee then offered the following Resolutions—

Whereas, This is a Convention of Soldiers called together to endorse our President, Andrew Johnson and the action of a few (!) Soldiers of this County who sent delegates, that misrepresented it in a disingenuous Convention at Pittsburg, on the 6th of June last, therefore

Resolved, That we most heartily approve of the late Amendments to our Constitution submitted by joint resolutions of both houses of Congress to the several states for their approval, so that it is the language of our President— "while society is in this disordered state and we are seeking security, let us fix the foundations of the Government on the principles of eternal justice which will endure for all time."

Resolved, That in the language of our President— "only loyal men shall rule the Republic, and traitors shall take a back seat. We want not those who brought all this misery upon us to control our destinies, that all the glorious victories won by our noble armies go for naught, and the battlefields sown with dead bodies made memorable in vain."

Resolved, That in the language of our President— "a traitor has ceased to be a citizen and in joining the rebellion has become a public enemy. He forfeited his right to vote with loyal men when he renounced his citizenship and sought to destroy our Government. Before these repeating rebels can be trusted they should bring forth the fruits of repentance."

Resolved, That we are truly sorry for a soldier who can be led into the support of Hester Clymer, the chief of Copperheads, in preference to Gen'l Jno W. Geary, the "Hero of Wauhatchie," and that we "vote as we shot!"

Resolved, That we endorse the proceedings of the Soldiers' Convention held in Waynesburg, on the 2nd of June, 1866, and that we ratify the resolutions passed at the Union State Convention held by the "National Union of the Boys in Blue," at Pittsburg on the 5th inst.

Resolved, That we have no respect for a soldier whose conscience will not permit him to sit in convention with citizen soldiers irrespective of party.

On motion, the above resolutions were unanimously adopted, the "boys" clinching their acquiescence with deafening cheers. On motion the following resolution was offered and carried by a full voice:

Resolved, That as this is a Union Soldiers' Convention irrespective of parties and "policies," and representing as it does the majority of the "Boys in Blue" in this County the full proceedings of the meetings be given to both County papers with a request for their publication.

Every soldier then present and approving of the action taken by the Convention gave in his name in full with Co. and Regt. On motion the meeting adjourned with "three times three" for the genuine Soldiers' Convention!

THE CABINET ORGAN,

AND WHAT IT IS. THE grand old Organ that has for centuries filled Church, Palace and Cathedral with its melodious harmonies, becoming daily more valued and appreciated by religious assemblies, and its almost universal introduction into the churches of our country has been prevented only by its great cost.

THE Cabinet Organ, perfected and patented by Mason & Hamilton, of Boston, has now been before the public but two years, and yet such are its unequalled qualities that it has found its way into churches, school and family in all parts of our country. The Art Critic of the New York Tribune says of it in his department: "It has been blown by the wind of genuine success from Boston to San Francisco."

"That M. & H. have succeeded in making a little bamboo like thing, which, though portable and not larger than a piano, can make themselves felt in a church—is the universal opinion of the musical profession. They agree that no such musical works of the kind can be found in equal proportion in Europe. The tone is pure and full, and with an immense body for so small a provocative mechanical force. They stand rough traveling, bad usage, and will live in climates which kill American instruments."

The Rev. Dr. PRIME, the well-known editor of the New York Observer, in his editorial correspondence, speaking of the insufficiency of the McClellan to take the place of the Pipe Organ, says: "But the want is fully met by the Cabinet Organ; with your eyes shut you cannot distinguish its sound from that of the Pipe Organ itself. It is admirably adapted to the performance of sacred music, psalm tunes, anthems, chants, &c., and it is a grand accomplishment when the organ is used in all churches where the people all wish to have the privilege of bearing a part in the praise."

200 ORGANISTS AND PLANISTS. The most eminent of their profession in the country, have given written testimony to the superiority of this instrument over all others of their class. The Cabinet Organ is, in brief, commanding itself to music lovers, its purity and sweetness of tone, and its ease of expression, added to its durability and complete command, cannot fail to make it a universal favorite. Such is the degree of perfection to which these instruments have been brought, that it is alike suited to the purposes of churches, halls, schools and private parlors, and is admirably adapted to both sacred and secular music, and it is believed that it will bear no unimportant part in educating and establishing a popular music wherever it goes.

The subscribers are the exclusive wholesale Agents for the Mason & Hamilton Cabinet Organ, for West or Pennsylvania, and furnish them at exactly the same price as charged at the Factory.

The subscribers are anxious to send to every person; whether intending to purchase as an instrument or not, a copy of the Cabinet Organ Circular, which contains a great amount of very interesting information. Sent post-paid to the subscribers on request.
