How they have stood and satis fied him, is expressed in the following quotation from a recent letter of his:-"In a period of eleven hundred concerts I have never broken a string, although my Pianos, from constant change of locality, are exposed to all the wear of transportation, and often the inclemency of the weather. The mechanism of the Chickering Pianos is so simple, as to seenre them against any deraugement of the action . Mr. Gottschalk also says
