DISTRICT AND COUNTY TICKET. CONGRESS. HON. GEO. V. LAWRENCE, OF Washington County.

SENATE. CAPT. JNO. W. DEFORD, OF Fayette Co.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE. ELIAS STONE, Esq., OF Monongahela Tp.

PROTHONOTARY. LIEUT. THOS. LUCAS, OF Jefferson Tp.

REGISTER AND RECORDER. CORP'L THOS. F. REPPERT, OF Monongahela Tp.

COMMISSIONER. CAPT. JOHN A. BURNS, OF Richhill Tp.

AUDITOR. LIEUT. GEO. W. SHOUGH, OF Gilmore Tp.

POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR. COL. JOS. COOKE, OF Marion Tp.

STAR IN THE EAST!

"OH! HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS FROM MAIN?"

THUNDER FROM THE NORTH!

Yes, they are beaten as never before—not merely beaten, but routed! It is a regular Appomattox! The Governor, by nearly 30,000 majority—all five Representatives in Congress by majorities of 2,500 and upward—all thirty Senators—seven-eighths of the House and a moral certainty that Hannibal Hamlin will be returned to the United States Senate for six years from the 4th of March next—such are the trophies of a victory rarely exceeded in completeness or in importance. The vote is heavier than that cast for President in 1864, and the majority at least Ten Thousand larger than Lincoln's over McClellan. What more could be asked?

BE ON YOUR GUARD.

Various methods are being employed to divert the attention of the masses from the exact issues involved in the October elections. It behooves all under these circumstances to be on their guard. That there is but little concern on the part of Conservatives about the election of our Governor, is natural enough, for they are well aware of the hopelessness of their cause, in this respect. That they have great concern about the election of our representatives demonstrates their knowledge. A majority in the Fortieth Congress is their great aim. This is the hinge upon which they expect their fortunes to turn, and for which they will sacrifice all else. We hear that many are offering to barter their votes for Clymer, to secure the election of Montgomery in the 24th District. This confirms the above assertion, and we would caution all against being so deceived. Confident that Mr. Lawrence will be re-elected it is their desire to thus decrease his majority and assert a large gain in the district. Avoid then the side issues. Vote the whole ticket and let us increase the district and county vote.

THAT COUNTY QUESTION.

The Copperjoints Conservative party by poster by blatant orator, by advertising and other means have been circulating a millions in asserting that Congress voted $300 dollars to the black soldier, which the Paymaster General is now paying whilst they gave but $100 to the white soldier, which the Paymaster General refuses to pay. Their object is to mislead those not acquainted with the facts.

Let us look at them as involved in this case. Every white volunteer, who enlisted between July 1st, 1861, and June 25th, 1863, also April 1st, 1864, and July 18th, 1864, for the term of three or five years, received a bounty of $100. Those who re-enlisted as veterans prior to April 1st, 1864, received an additional bounty of $400, while those white soldiers who did not re-enlist and served three years only received $100. Congress passed an act giving them an extra bounty of $100, while the black volunteer only received under the act of Congress $100 bounty at the time the white soldier received $300. Congress passed an act to give the black volunteer the same bounty that any other soldier received and no more. So it will be seen that the black volunteer does not get an extra bounty any more than the white soldier, but merely gets the same amount.

This from the record shows that no distinction was made by Congress in awarding bounty to those ready and willing to serve their country, only, to the white volunteers who re-enlisted—they receiving an extra $100. The negroes, who were not admitted into the army at the beginning of the war, at the time of their enlistment received in fact $100 less than the white troops. From the manner in which copperheads, treated, toasted and hugged their colored friends about the time conscription officers were enrolling for a draft they were doubtless sorry that the appropriation was not $1000 instead of $300. Soldiers when copperheads talk to you now about the love of Congress for the negro, just refer them to their deep affection for him in '63 and '64. We have the first one to see who has 'the cheek' to declare he didn't love the negro then. Certain it is that no soldier in the Union army objected to their stopping rebel bullets for him, whether it was at Fort Wagner or Deep Bottom, and it $300 dollars was any compensation, who does not say, "in God's name let them have it!"

BEECHER'S LETTER.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher in a recent letter to the signers of the Cleveland Convention so far committed himself to the sustaining of President Johnson that it called down upon him the bitter reproaches and complaints of many leading journals and most of his near friends. Compelled by the great pressure, by letters from friends and by the public press, he has written another letter in answer to one from a friend, vindicating himself and removing at once all doubt as to the consistency of tone which characterized his first. He says in the first place that "I regret the misapprehension which has been caused, and yet, any sorrow which may have needlessly imposed upon dear friends. As I look back upon my course, I see no deviation from that right line which I have made without wavering for near thirty years of public life in favor of justice, liberty and the elevation of the poor and ignorant. The attempt to class me with men whose course I have opposed all my life long will utterly fail. Neither an I a Johnson man in any received meaning of the term. I have never thought that it would be wise to bring back all the States in a body at once, any more than it would be to keep them all out together. On my own, in due succession, under a practical judgment, rather than by a wholesale theoretic rule, I would have them readmitted. I still think a middle course best. I still think the President and that Congress would be wiser than either. But with this I agree with the President and the President's ends. I have long regretted his ignorance of Northern ideas and sentiments, and have been at a loss and pained at his increasing indiscrimination. Unwisdom of the President is the chief obstacle to the re-admission of the Southern States. I am, and from the first have been, fully of the opinion that the amendment of the Constitution proposed by Congress equalizing representation in Northern and Southern States was intrinsically just and reasonable, and that should be sought by a whole and persistent moral agitation. I have not left out and do not propose to leave or to be put out of the Republican party. I am in sympathy with its aims, its great principles, and its army of noble men.

This is clear enough and as strong language as could be wished. The Conservative press have already caught like drowning men to the straws thrown out by Beecher and must feel a greater chill when he thus consigns them anew to the waters of their dark political gulf. His endorsement of the Cleveland Convention it will be observed by the following, has the broadest possible significance: "I heartily wish it, and all other conventions, of what party soever, success, whose object is the restoration of all the States late in rebellion to their federal relations."

This is also, in perfect accordance with the sentiment of every true American citizen. He don't pretend that that Convention is other than ostensibly to restore harmony and so far as it tends to that end he is with them. So are all but we cannot believe the element and doctrines espoused will hasten the desired restoration, but that it will rather widen the gap.

The language quoted above is sufficient to show all sensible men where Mr. Beecher stands upon the questions before the people.

Summer Term of College closed on Thursday last. The exercises were interesting and largely attended. Six graduates were sent out.

The Nineteenth Annual Exhibition of the Washington County Agricultural Society, is to be held at Washington, Pa., Thursday and Friday, Sept. 20 & 21, 1866.

The 15th of September!

A DAY LONG TO BE REMEMBERED!

Freemen of Greene Aroused!

THEY ASSEMBLE IN THEIR MIGHT!

PROCESSION, SPEECHES, INCIDENTS, &c.

When the signal gun of treason boomed its hoarse notes of defiance across the harbor of Charleston and awakened the people of the North from the fearful lethargy into which they had fallen, we remember well the quick gathering to arms, and hurrying tread of thousands as they swept in resistless number to the protection of the Capitol. Such recollections are too vivid to be eradicated entirely, and when we witness such another scene as that which transpired in Waynesburg on Saturday last, the panorama of those days seem to pass before the eye of imagination in more than living colors. Unmistakably grand was the answer of loyal hearts in response to the call summoning them again to denounce treason and traitors, and to speak from the lips of their orators the same sentiment which blazed from the mouths of their muskets on many a field of carnage.

THE DAY. Was one of autumn's fairest. The recent rains had given the atmosphere a cool and exhilarating freshness which seemed to impart a glow of enthusiasm to every breast. Save here and there a gloomy, moody copperhead, with long drawn visage—the same that Union victories brought on his ugly figure-head—every countenance wore a smile. All night long almost, fair fingers had been wreathing the sweet scented evergreen and hastily stiching together in tri-colored our national ensign. When about nine o'clock all arrangements were completed.

THE TOWN. Presented a splendid appearance, indeed. Every thing wore its gala garb. On every street evergreen stretchers from house top to house top, across the way, were pendant with such patriotic mottoes and devices as "Honor to the Victors!" "Welcome to the brave 'Boys in Blue!'" "Traitors detected in the field shall not rule by ballot!" "Gen. Geary and Lawrence!" &c. &c. Portraits of Lincoln, draped with mourning, were displayed from many dwellings, some with appropriate inscriptions, others speaking the grief of the nation by emblem alone. Wreaths, flags and banners in profusion, added greatly to the decoration of the village. The streets assumed a lively appearance as the populace from the surrounding country began to pour into them. Soon the sidewalks were black with eager expectants waiting the entrance of the procession. The delegations were in waiting on the different roads, and under orders from the Chief Marshal they were escorted by the Gerry Club of Waynesburg, headed by the Morgantown Brass Band, through the town, and connected with the main column which had already been formed on the eastern end of the pike. This having been accomplished, by a salvo from the artillery, the whole was put in motion and filed through our principal streets in the following

ORDER OF PROCESSION,

First came the Chief Marshal, Jno. C. Flensiken, Esq., and his aids, Col. Jno. H. Wells, Geo. F. Minor, Esq., Lawson Adams, Esq., Thos. Hill, Esq., and S. H. Porter, attended by a detachment of soldiers from the Monongahela delegation, as an escort in honor of command that first tried patriot Corp'l Thos. F. Reppert. Each of these wore the "blue" with a sash over the left shoulder. Then the Morgantown Brass Band, seated in a fine Band Wagon and discoursing soul-stirring music. After these the Waynesburg Gerry Club commanded by our well known townsman and soldier W. T. H. Mixson. These were designated by a blue badge, with a device and motto "Boys in Blue!" "Waynesburg Gerry Club," worn on the left breast. They carried the splendid flag of the club with one or two appropriate banners. Following these were the "Boys in Blue" of Monongahela township, headed by Lieut. J. M. Crawford, with band of music, banners and a piece of artillery drawn by two mules. Then Cumberland, Morgan, Jefferson, Dunkard, Whitley and Franklin townships, composed mostly of "Boys in Blue," wearing their faded uniforms and the honored corps badge, one of their unique devices was a broken bottle with the words "My Policy gone up!" Then the Rices Landing Gerry Club, carrying the banner "We ever vote as we shot!" Next came a six pounder drawn by six horses, with limber chest and cannons, mounted and uniformed a la artillery, under command of B. L. Adams of our town. These carried the banner "Boys remember Andersonville and vote as you shot!" Then the delegates from the upper end of the county; Center, Morris, Richhill, Jackson and Alleppo, all under the immediate direction of Capt. Jno. Morris and Lieut. Jno.

Rozasa. These bore many interesting and pointed mottoes. Among them was a white star on a blue field—Geary's division badge—announced by the words "In hoc signo vincimus!"—by this emblem we conquer. A greater part of these wore the "blue" and corp-badges of their old organizations.

As the head of this grand cavalcade entered, the town seemed to be ablaze with enthusiasm. The people appeared to think it—and justly too—an ovation to the returned victors of the country rather than a political demonstration. From window, from door step and sidewalk, men shouted and ladies waved their handkerchiefs. Banner and pennon gaily floated on the breeze. Now and then the patriotism of the "boys" would boil over and they would ring out those loud and long hurrahs which have pealed so often in the headlong charge upon Southern steel. Filing to the left on the hill the procession struck Greene St. and traversing it to the lower end of town, again came up Main to the public square where it dispersed.

All then turned their attention to the wants of man and beast. There was certainly not adequate accommodation for the whole but our citizens generously provided for the greater part. Soon the cravings of appetite were satiated and a lively piece from the Band brought the people to the public square, where the stand had been erected at the eastern corner of the Court House. The platform—thanks to our energetic ladies—had been trimmed with evergreen and handsomely festooned with the national colors. In a few moments the meeting was called to order by E. M. SAYERS Esq. Chairman of Co. Com. On motion the following named gentlemen were appointed as permanent officers of

THE MEETING.

Pres.—Jno. BUCHANAN—Waynesburg. Vice-Presidents.—Samuel Scott, Simon Rinehart, Marion Tp.; Dr. Sam'l Dodd; Franklin Tp.; Bowen Ross, Dunkard Tp.; Lt. John M. Crawford, Monongahela Tp.; Jonah Woods, Carmichaels Borough; Thomas Crago, Cumberland Tp.; Joseph H. Morris, Greene Tp.; Capt. Bender Jefferson Tp.; Jacob Rush, Morgan Tp.; Silas Sharp, Washington Tp.; Thomas Patterson Morris Tp.; Harvey Braddock Richhill Tp.; John Rodgers Centre Tp.; Vincent Smith Jackson Tp.; Geo. Hinnerman Alleppo Tp.; Peter Moore Springhill Tp.; Dr. Jacob Shriver Gilmore Tp.; Elijah Strossider Wayne Tp.; Samuel Hudson Whitley Tp.; James L. Donley Perry Tp.

W. T. H. Minor, J. E. Sayers Sec'ys. Just here, the crowd being so great, it was found necessary to erect another stand for the accommodation of those who were enabled to hear from the one. Accordingly this was done and whilst the meeting progressed, Mr. Thos. Bigman, from Pittsburgh, addressed a portion of the multitude from a stand on Campbell's corner. His speech we were unable to hear but from the plaudits of his audience we presume they were amply entertained.

Mr. BUCHANAN before entering upon the duties of his office delivered one of his short but pointed addresses, returned his thanks for the honor bestowed upon him, and introduced to his hearers Hon. W. W. KETCHUM of Luzerne Co., who was received with great enthusiasm. After the excitement had subsided Mr. Ketchum delivered a speech near two hours in length. Elaborately and clearly he solved the great problems of the day. Reviewing the course of the President and Congress, he presented in its true light the dangers of the policy being pursued by the former, and the wise and stable plan of restoration proposed by the latter. At the close of his address and during its recital Mr. Ketchum was vociferously applauded by his audience.

The President then introduced Col. BLACKMAN, of Ohio, as the next speaker. The Colonel's appearance was the signal for loud and prolonged cheering. He said "Boys I have heard that yet before, but it was under different circumstances." He contrasted the present feeling of copperheads for soldiers, to that shown by them during the war and exhorted them not to be beguiled by their treacherous smiles now. Altogether it was a masterly expose, and from the hearty assent shouted by his blue coated hearers we do not miss judge when we say that they accepted his good advice.

Hon. Geo. V. LAWRENCE was next loudly called for, and coming forward Mr. Lawrence administered the most scathing rebuke to his enemies and maligners that we have ever yet heard him make. He proved explicitly and conclusively the falsity of the reports concerning him, and concluded by showing up the braggadocio indulged in by the opposite party in this county, telling them that "unless they defeated him here by 2,500 majority he would be their representative!" At the conclusion of Mr. Lawrence's remarks the meeting adjourned with a terrific "three times three" for Congress and the Union.

In the evening the Court Room was crowded by enthusiastic Republicans, who listened long and attentively to able addresses delivered by KRAMER Mixon Esq., of Uniontown; HON. W.

W. KETCHUM, HON. GEO. V. LAWRENCE and others. The Morgantown Band discoursed splendid music during the intervals. The proceedings, and the conduct of the crowd during the day was marked by the utmost decorum and good nature. The boys by a flag on the house top signalled to the gunners on the hill and every time a cheer would burst from the crowd in the street they clinched it with a cannon shot.

The scenes, the speeches, in short, everything connected with the meeting, is deeply impressed upon the minds of the people. It was a glorious day never to be forgotten. Hundreds of lovely ladies were present, and by their beauty and smiles contributed in a great degree to the interest of the occasion. Too much honor cannot be awarded to the earnest friends throughout the county who so ably worked and gave one day in the farmers' busiest season to attend. Though weak in number heretofore, the minority of "Little Green" can see a visible swelling of their ranks. Take courage brave hearts! On the 9th of October the boastful majority shall see such a sequel to our grand meeting as will make them stand aghast with fear and wonder.

ATTENTION "BOYS IN BLUE!"—Those of you who possible can, are requested to meet the Gerry Club at this place early Monday morning previous to their departure for the "Soldiers and Sailors Convention" at Pittsburgh Sept. 25th '66. All come, the grandest time yet is come off at the Iron city.

We are indebted to A. B. Brown for a basket of the best apples we have tasted this year.
