Gen. Crook, whose name appears to a "Johncopperson" call for a meeting of the soldiers and sailors of the late war, at Cleveland announces that his name was attached thereto without his knowledge or consent. So also does Gen. Rob't. McAllister. of New Jersey.

It would be an interesting item of news, for some one behind the Johnson-Democratic screen to let the people know who is responsible for such forgery -The crime lays at their political door, as well as the mutilation of the dispatches of Phil Sheridan. Do the Dem John-Copperson party think they can command success by forgery and fraud ! Is that their estimate of the intelligence of the freemen of the North? If it is they will be seriously disappointed.

Judge Hughes of Indiana, who started in with Johnson has got choked on copper and is out earnestly and strongly for the Union party. His advice is for loyal men to stand firm and confirm by their ballots what they fought for on the field -Zanesville Courier.

We happen to know Gen. Crook ourselves, and though "Crook" by name he is very far from being "crooked" in polities, and there's no use in the "Johncopperson"party trying to ride into powby forging and falsely using the names of such soldiers as Parkhurst, Crook. McAllister and others. They are not RIBBONS, lacking in courage, and will therefore expose such rascality for the benefit of the public .- Shelbyville (Tenn.) Repub. NEW YORK-

The nomination of HOPPMAN for Governor, by the Democrats, over General Dix, was the rejection of the p an whereprices are already stiffening in the Eastern market, Don't forget the place, at the on WEED and his compatriots expected to carry the State. It is known that the General was deemed by WEED & Co. the only card with which they could win, His military character, it was April 18, '66-tf. urged, would supply the needed element of success-without it there would be no prospect. We concluded that since HOFFMAN'S nomination the Fenton stock must have advanced to a high figure.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION AT INDIAN APOLIS.-The President's party stopped at Indianapolis on Tuesday. 11th inst., where he met with the following reception :

Fellow Crizens :- (Cries of Grant.) It is not my intention-(Cries of Step, Go on)-to make a long speech. If you Go on)—to make a long speech. If you give me your attention for five minutes, (Cries of Go on, Stop, No, no; we want nothing to do with traitors. Grant, Grant. Johnson and groans.) I would hear from you. Johnson! Grant! Johnson ! Grant )

The President paused a lew moments, and then retired from the balcony,

There are indications that the conservatives have abandoned all hope of electing Clymer, and are concentrating their energies on the close Congressional districts, with a view to defeating, if nees. This change will not avail them. The same ground-swell that wrought astonishing results in Maine, extends throughout Pennsylvania.

Gen. Jno. C. Firemont doesn't train in the Custer-Steedman crowd that met at Cleveland-not exactly. The publiof that movement is not more imprudent than some of their other appropriations, (Gen. McAllister, for instance), but is a CANE MILLS AND COOK'S EVAPORATOR. little more amusing. If Gen. Fremont's business would allow him to attend either Convention, we need not say that he would respond to his name at Pitts.

Wirms the past week the New York Herald has abandoned the cause of the President as hopeless, and the Daily News has pronounced his course destruct tive of his prospects. There is not to exceed five papers in the entire North line samples to be determined by the Conventhat give an unqualified support to the President, all perceive the utter hopelessness of his cause.

"Swinging round the circle" is becoming a favorite exercise. Maine has done it-in fact.it looks as though it had done it several times. Vermont did it n short time before; and Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, &c., are going to do it. Let the President wait, and see it they don't.

At Erre, in his speech, the President

"I tell you all the powers in Hell can not turn me from my purpose !"

Doubtless they don't want to. The attempt on the part of the Cleve-lacd Convention to pull Wool over the eyes of the people will evidently proven
