

SEVEN IN ON TOWER ALLEY.—At Antietam our boys (One hundred and seventy New York Volunteers) supported Colburn's battery. The rebels advanced in solid mass. One of our boys, a sporting character from Elmira, climbed a high rock where he could view the whole scene. He occupied his place amid the bullets whizzing like bees around him. The rebels came on until we could see their faces, and then Colburn poured the canister into them. The advancing column was literally torn to pieces by the fire. Our friend on the rock grew frantic in his demonstrations of delight, and as one of the battery sent a shell schrapnel which mowed down a long line of Johnnies, he swung his cap and, shouting so the flying rebels could have heard him, sang out: "Bul-bul! Sit on us! Catcher alley!"

I HAVE ORDERS NOT TO GO—I have orders, positive orders, not to go there; orders that I dare not disobey; said a youth who was being tempted to a smoking and gambling saloon. Come don't be a womanish! come along like a man! shouted the youths. No! I can't break orders, said John. What special orders have you got? Come, show them to us, if you can. Show us your orders. John took a neat little book from his pocket, and read aloud: "Enter not into the paths of the wicked; a do good in the way of evil men. Avoid it! pass not near it; turn from it and pass away!" "Now," said John, "you see my orders forbid my going with you. They are God's orders, and by his help I mean to keep them."

IMPORTANCE OF PUNCTUATION. Wanted—A young man to take charge of a pair of horses of a religious turn of mind.

A newspaper says: "A child was run over by a wagon three years old and cross-eyed with pincushions on which never spoke afterwards."

Straps—Articles worn under the boots of gentlemen made of cat skin.

An exchange, describing a celebration, says: "The procession was very fine and nearly two miles in length as was the prayer of Dr. Perry the chaplain."

Parasol—A protection against the sun, used by ladies made of cotton and whalebone.

ERR, Pa., November 13.—The day express west on the Buffalo and Erie Railroad was thrown off the track near Wesleyville, four miles east of here, at four o'clock this afternoon. Some fifty passengers were injured and five killed. The dead and wounded were brought to Erie. Every comfort was afforded to the wounded. The dead will be forwarded to their friends by the railway company. The accident was occasioned by negligence of workmen engaged in repairing the track.

PRETTY GOOD—A wag entered a store in London some two years ago, which had for a sign "The Two Baboons," and addressing himself to the proprietor, said: "I wish to see your partner!" "I have no partner, sir." "I beg your pardon, sir, and hope you will excuse the mistake." "O, there's no harm done; but what made you think there were two of us?" "Your sign—The Two Baboons!"

A lot of rowdies undertook to break up a religious meeting on South Fork, Ritchie county, West Virginia, a few days ago. Some of the brethren pitched in and cleaned them out, on the principle, as one of them expressed it, "That it was as honorable to fight for the Methodist Church as it was to pray for it."

The Baltimore Gazette, a secession sheet, complains that during the contest in reference to the Police Commissioners which preceded the late election General Grant took occasion to say that he thought Governor Swann had acted unwisely in the course he had pursued, and that General Canby refused to furnish troops upon the requisition of Governor Swann when the new Police Commissioners were arrested and imprisoned.

DIDN'T REM WELL.—It appears that Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, who was a candidate for Congress in the eighth district, New York, did not run well.—Out of twenty-two thousand votes cast she received eight.

A gallant New England Knight of a quill, describing a country dance, says—"The gorgeous strings of glass and will now glisten on the heaving bosoms of the village belles, like polished rubies resting on the delicate surface of warm apple dumplings."

A Connecticut peddler asked an old lady to whom he was trying to sell some articles, if she could tell him of any road no peddler had ever traveled. "I know of but one and that is the road to heaven," was the reply.

"What is colonizing me?" inquired a hopeful miss of seventeen. "Colonizing, dear," replied the mother, "is having a home and raising a family." "Oh, ma! how I would like to colonize!" exclaimed the expectant daughter.

A GENTLEMAN who took a young lady to Niagara was obliged to bring her home immediately, because she was jealous of Niagara's waterfall.

J. W. Bradley's Celebrated Patent DUPLIX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING) SKIRT.

The Wonderful Flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, opera, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress, an invaluable quality in ermine, not found in any Single Spring Skirt. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others. They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape, while three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing on when dragging down stoves, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazine as the standard skirt of the fashionable world. To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in Crinolines, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, equip for J. W. BRADLEY'S Duplex Elliptic or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article. CAUTION—To guard against imposition be particular to NOTICE that skirts styled as "DUPLIX" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Skirt," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also Notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together, which is the mark of their flexibility and strength and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

For sale in all stores where first class skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the Sole Owners of the Patent, WESTS, BRADLEY & CARY, 27 Chambers & 79 & 81 Beade Sts., N. Y. Oct. 10, '66-2m
