DUPLEX ELLIPTIC

(OR DOUBLE SPRING) SKIRT.

The Wonderful Flexibility and great com fort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Du-plex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced partic-ularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, carriages, railroad cars, church tows, arm chairs for promenade and house dress, as the skir for promenade and house dress, as the sairt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress, an invaluable quality in crinoline, not found in any Single Spring Skirt.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with plex Elliptic Steel Sering Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Californ, Missea and Young Ladles they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The knops are covered with double and twisted the rad and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing out when drag-double strings, but twice or double string, preventing them from wearing out when drag-ging down strops, stair, &c.

The Deplex Elliptic is a great favorite with affindles and is universally recommended by the Fashlou Magazin's as the standard skirt or the fushrounder world.

To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in Crimoline, viz.; superior quality, per-fect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, cumbitive confert and economy, enquire for J. W. BRADLEY'S Duplex Elliptic, or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the acnoine article.

CAUTION.—To guard against imposition be particular to NOTICE that skirts offered as "DUPLEX" have the red ink stamo, viz.: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also Notice that every Hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus reveal-ing the two (or double) springs braided to

SHOCKING a "SPINSTER."-The boarders in a fashionable house were assembled in the public parlor one evening, a rather antiquated maiden lady, who never seemed to have any employment but admiring her jewelry and dresses, lisped out the remark : "I love a rainy day, and always avail myself of it to arrange my drawers." "So do I," growled an old sea cap tain, "I overhaul my drawers, and shirts, too, sometimes, and sew on a button or a string where it is needed !"

Mademoiselle did not faint, but there was an angry rustle of silks, as she swept out of the room, leaving all to exchange a suppressed titter for a good hearty laugh.

IMPORTANT TO SOLDIERS. -All soldiers who have one hundred dollars bounty due them should remember that since the beginning of August, when the bill giving them one bundred additional bounty was passed by Congress, some time, half of which has expired. Those who have not yet applied should do so immediately.

[We give the above a place in our columns but we have no grounds for 'elieving the act of Congress granting the additional bounty limited .- Ep ]

A good stony is told of a rustic youth and a buxom country girl, who sat fac ing each other at a husking party. The youth smitten with the charms of the beautiful maiden, only ventured a sly look, and now and then touching Patty's foot under the table. The girl determined to make the youth express what he appeared so warmly to feel, bore with these advances a little while in silence, when she cried out: "Look here, if you love me, why don't you say so; but don't dirty my stockings !"
