Each number contains 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it contains in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a free press of pure literature.—Truxian's Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.
