WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1867.

BONDS! BONDS!! BONDS!!! · Not National State, or County bonds but bonds of your own good futh in the REPUBLICAN. We appeal directly to Those who have never settled with the paper since it passed from L. K Evans' hands. We must have some assurance before the first of April next that such accounts will be adjusted No bills unless in a few particular instances, will be sent to delinquents. Let all who sus pect they owe us anything either for pay will receive the paper. We have to meet our obligations and shall use as rightfuly due us.

or take the consequences !

The bill referred to failed in the Sens

ate on the 15th inst, by four votes. Whether or not we consider this as showing the probable fite of a g neral railroad law, we must adout in this case that the monopoly proved strongest .-The prospects are not good for its passage. We have noted with interest yields the ground so stubbornly held that meetings were held in adjoining during the last campaign. The N. FORGERIES.

A paragraph is going the round of the Democratic papers, which they repreent to be an extract from a speech of Daniel Webster, delivered "more than hirty years ago," They have been hallenged time and and again by the Radical press to substanti to the asserion by producing the speech of the great tatesman from which they make this xtract It is needless to say they have ailed. Any one acquainted with his writings know it to be an untruth.

So, too, "Brick" Pomeroy's libel case with Gen'l. Butler. The shameless originator had it well bolstered with falsehoods, and it was widely circulated Reaching the General's ear he comes out in a card in the N. Y.
