

Local Matters.

WAYNESBURG.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1887.

NOT TO BE SOLD.—The property of McFarlin and Hoffman advertised by the Sheriff last week, and published by oversight in this issue, will not be sold.

Pontz Cattle Powder by the gross, dozen or paper, at G. W. Roberts & Co.'s.

INCORPORATED.—The Old Fellows Association of Waynesburg has been incorporated by the Legislature. It is proposed, we believe, to make it a Bank of Deposit and Exchange. "Three banks ought to be enough to accommodate Waynesburg and vicinity."

Cremora Cream and Hair Glass can be had at G. W. Roberts & Co.'s Drug Store.

UP.—The lamp-posts. We beg leave to call the attention of those concerned to the fact, that the public would be inconvenienced by having a lamp at either the centre of the court-house pavement or its east end, also, one on Washington St. near the steam mill.

Cash paid for EGGS by Wm. A. Porter.

The State Normal School at Elm-boro, Erie county, Pa., is the place for young men and women to attend school. The State assists those intending to become teachers.

A splendid assortment of Lamp chimneys at G. W. Roberts & Co.'s.

A SOLID WARRIOR.—The Duchess de Persigny, one of the leaders of the fashion in Paris, has got into a lawsuit with her milliner, whose bills she refuses to pay, on the ground that the charges are excessive. Such troubles can always be avoided by trading with GEMER.

Trusses! Trusses! Largest stock of Trusses in town, at G. W. Roberts & Co.'s.

OLD FELLOWS' THANKSGIVING DAY.

The Old Fellows of the United States have set apart the 27th day of April, 1887, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer for the wonderful preservation of the Order during the civil war which so sadly devastated the land and divided the people.

GAY'S W. Roberts & Co.'s Drug Store and get a bottle of Lindley's Blood Purifier.

BAD ROADS.—The frost out of the ground leaves our roads in wretched condition. The only remedy would seem to be a change of the system of working and keeping in repair. The Legislature is now in session and it would be advisable for our people to petition for some such law as regulates road building in Washington County. By all means let some measures be taken the coming summer to improve the common roads. We pointed out six months ago the inconvenience that would be occasioned by not working them and now we have it in the detention of our mails, a high per cent. on freight and worst of all the absolute impossibility of traveling with comfort.

A fine assortment of Perfumery, Soap and Pomade at G. W. Roberts & Co.'s Drug Store.

THE 22ND OF FEBRUARY.—Although this was the Anniversary of the birth of Washington, nothing occurred during the day calculated to awaken those sacred memories that enshrine his name. Yet the good that men do live after them and as each year and drops through the glass of years, the 22nd of February will be cherished by patriotic hearts for its hallowed associations. Washington was a "statesman, yet tried to truth, of soul sincere—in action faithful, and in honor clear! Who broke no promise, served no private end!" and as such his memory will ever be revered by his countrymen.

In the evening, however, Mr. Thos. Bradley entertained a company of his friends, at the "Sherman House." A sumptuous repast was served to the guests, one which in every way did credit to the host. After which the sound of violin and guitar gave the signal of "hands across and down the middle." The company dispersed at an early hour well pleased inwardly and outwardly.

The following is a curious sentence, something after the style of an anagram. By a simple transposition of letters it means Dry Goods—of course, it doesn't spell it—

REHIND, REHIND, TIGHER, GEMER.

MUSIC!—Our local band favored the town on one or two evenings with "melting airs of martial, brisk and grave." As amateur performers they deserve all praise for rapid advancement, and although they may not please the dainty ears of some we love to hear them discourse those sweet strains that "make figures tame, and huge levathians forsake unsounded deeps to dance on sands." It is, perhaps, true "that as the mind is pitched the ear is pleased," hence none but inveterate grumblers will object. The Band makes our town appear lively and we hope to hear them play on the square—well, as often as they like.

TRIED.—Fogler, of Washington Co., has been tried for the murder of Robt. Dinmore, and found guilty. Montgomery's trial is progressing. There are many strange surprises as to the result.

PROF. BARTO, the English magician performed a series of evenings last week, in the Court House, to "crowded houses." The Prof. comes among us without ostentation, advertising what he will do and does it much to the astonishment and wonder of those who witness his performances.

Paints of all kinds, dry and in oil, at G. W. Roberts & Co.'s Drug Store.

THE PRIMARY ELECTIONS.—As the time approaches the interest brightens considerably among the ruling majority. The work of canvassing already engages the aspiring candidates. The pestiferous system of button-holing is practiced as of yore and it is difficult to tell who will prove the shrewdest! Anti-clique proposes the irrepressible Silvers for Sheriff. But, hands off! This is something we don't care to peer into.

Brushes of all kinds at G. W. Roberts & Co.'s Drug Store.

OUR DEAD.—The exhuming corps has re-interred many of the Federal dead at Antietam and the surrounding battlefields. Head-boards of iron or stone with suitable inscriptions will be placed at an early day on each grave. Two thousand bodies yet remain to be exhumed. Among the names of Pennsylvania's sons buried there we find that of Z. Jewell, Co., "G," 18th Pa. Cav., one of Greene county's honored dead.

A RECIPE worth one thousand dollars. Says the Ohio Cultivator:—Take one pound of sal soda and a half pound of unsalted lime, put them in a gallon of water and boil twenty minutes; let it stand till cool, then draw off and put in a stone jug or jar. Soak your clothes over night, or until they are wet through, then wring them out and rub on plenty of soap, and to one boiler of clothes, well covered over with water, add one teaspoonful of the fluid. Boil half an hour briskly, then wash well through one suit, and rinse through water; and your clothes will look better than the old way of washing twice before boiling. This is an invaluable recipe, and I do want every poor tired woman to try it. I think with a patent wash tub to do the little rubbing, the washer woman might take the old Bible and compose herself on the lounge and let the washing do itself.

SUPPORT YOUR OWN.—Support home institutions, is a good motto in any community. It applies as well to merchants as it does to local newspapers. The merchant and the mechanic who can depend on the custom of his country, town and neighborhood, is encouraged, and can afford to keep a better stock than those dealers who go from home to get their money. The advertising columns of the local papers generally show who are the most liberal and enterprising dealers, and as a matter of course, where the best bargains are likely to be had.

GODY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Among the different works of Art and Literature received at this office, Gody ranks among the best. The March number is a beautiful specimen, containing its usual quantity of choice reading matter, diagrams, fashion plates and steel engravings. Price of subscription $3.00. Address L. A. Gody, Philadelphia.

BROUGHT OVER.—John Lennox who is charged with the killing of Robert L. Morrow in October, 1884, and whose case was transferred to Beaver county by an Act of the Legislature, was brought over and lodged in our own jail last week, the Act changing the venue having been repealed.—Reporter.

The daily pay of Prussian infantry soldiers has been raised to seven cents a day. Wonder what our boys in blue would have said to fighting for two dollars and ten cents a month. Cheap food for powder at that rate.

MARRIED.

On the 10th, inst., at the residence of the bride father, Thomas Adamson, Esq., by the Rev. A. J. Collins, Mr. BENJAMIN T. BALL and Miss MARY E. ADAMSON, all of Greene County, Pa.

DIED.

On Sunday, February 24th, 1887, of apoplexy, THOMAS GEMER, son of Mary Ann Louden and L. W. Gemer, deceased, aged 3 years, of Franklin township, Greene County, Pa.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft rosy complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from the skin, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price 25c, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order, by W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists.
