WAYNESBURG: WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1867.

PUBLIC SALE.—Mr. Thomas Hill wishes to make known the fact that he will sell at his residence on Thursday, 11th inst. Horses, Cows, Sheep, and Farming Implements, &c., &c. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, a. m. 2 w.

T. Braden & Co.'s is the place to get Wooden ware of all kinds.

FULL assortment of New Goods at the Grocery Store of N. H. McClelland's which he is determined to sell at shorter profits than ever.

Question: Who sells the cheapest Drugs in Waynesburg?

Answer: Dr. Braden, because he buys in New York of importers and manufacturers, and sells at Pittsburgh wholesale prices.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—This ever welcome periodical, for April, is before us with an array of sterling articles from the pens of distinguished authors, making it decidedly the most readable magazine published.

T. Braden & Co. keeps Saddlery Hardware, HOSIERY, LUGGERS, No. 538, held its election on Thursday evening, March 28, 1867, and elected the following named persons to fill the chairs for the summer term: N. G. Alex. Wallace; V. G. Daniel Pratt; Treasurer, T. I. Porter; Secretary, D. R. P. Hiss.

G. W. ROBERTS & CO. DRUG STORE. IS THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS, OILS, PAINTS, DYE STUFFS, PATENT MEDICINES, PERFUMERIES, TOILET SOAP, &c. &c. BRUSHES OF ALL KINDS, CARBON OIL LAMPS, THERMOS, SHOULDER BRACES, &c. &c. We have been sought for each, and will be sold at prices to suit the times.

At a regular meeting on Tuesday March 26, 1867, Waynesburg Lodge, 469 I. O. O. F. held their election for officers for the ensuing summer term which resulted in the choice of Wm. T. Webb, N. G.; Robert Summerville, V. G.; Daniel Owens, Treasurer; Eli Aten, Secretary.

Allen's Lung Balsam, in any quantity, at Braden's Drug Store. Call and get a circular.

BEAUTIFUL DAY.—Sunday was without question the loveliest day of the season, and was duly appreciated by the Waynesburgians. Its holy influence did not restrain our long pent up citizens from the blessed influence of walking and basking in the warm sunlight, and the drinking in of pure, healthful summer breezes.

Dr. Braden can beat his mail on low prices.

This Presbyterian announces that Prof. Elmer Cox, a graduate of Waynesburg College, has been employed to take charge of the Academy at Beverly, Ohio. Mr. Cox is a fine scholar, an experienced teacher, and in every respect a worthy young man. He will begin his labors in the Academy on the 2nd Monday in April.

Is our wanderings last week we dropped in to see our friend "Bob," Dougherty, at his Coach, Carriage and Wagon-making establishment, on Greene Street. We found him cutting, sawing, shaving a way—industriously. He stopped work to show us his finishing room which was filled with carriages, spring-wagons, etc., of excellent manufacture and superior finish, only awaiting the return of fair weather and good roads to go off his hands.

"Bob" is an inveterate wag, genial fellow, good "dimmyer" and withal, is deserving of the confidence and patronage of the public.

T. Braden & Co.'s is the place to get your Iron, Steel and Nail.

"SWINGING ROUND."—On last Wednesday a runaway team of three horses and a lumber wagon dashed up our street, amid the cries of men, screaming of women, yelling of boys, howling of dogs, squalling of cats, and general panic; turned down a by-street, and brought up in an alley half way back where they started from. Strange to say the damage was of no consequence having missed all obstructions and rounded corners "beautiful." All occasioned by one of the horses rubbing his bridle off.

WAYNESBURG COLLEGE.—The next term of this institution will open on the fourth Monday of the present month. Students desiring it, will have opportunity of a thorough course of instruction in Penmanship and Book-keeping, and also in Phonetics and Education, so that young gentlemen and young ladies may here prepare themselves for teaching, while pursuing their college studies. For information in regard to boarding, &c., &c., address the President.

STATEMENT REQUIRED.—By reference to an act of the Legislature, approved April 25th, 1866, relating to the County Tax, Township Auditors will see that the provisions are somewhat stringent, and that a refusal to comply with it may prove rather expensive to them. Large bounty funds were raised in most of the districts of our county, but as yet no published statement of the disbursement has been furnished by any of them. The people who submitted to heavy taxation to raise this money, have a right to know how it was expended, and can easily compare their officials in regard to boarding, &c., &c., address the President.

At a meeting of the Waynesburg Temperance Society held on the 31st, inst. The following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of this Society are due and are hereby tendered to E. M. Sayers, Esq., and Wm. E. Gaper, Esq., for the able manner in which they represented this Society before the Court upon the License Question, also to the Judges of the Court, and the Committee that circulated the remonstrance.

JAS. SLOAN, Pres. J. S. O'FLINNEN, Sec.

Dir the Atlantic dry with a teaspoon, twist your heel into the toe of your boot; make postmasters perform their promises, and subscribers pay the printer; send up fishing-hooks with balloons and fish for stars, when the rain comes down like the extract of Niagara, remember where you lost your umbrella, choke a mosquito with a brickbat; in short, prove all things, hit them if possible, but never get any place but to Grimm's for Dry Goods.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.—The newly elected Justices of the Peace, where they mean to accept the office to which they have been elected, are required by the Prothonotary of the County within twenty days after the election, otherwise their commissions will not be issued.

MORNING DAY.—The First was such a blustering day that few persons changed their habits. Notwithstanding, there has been considerable shifting since and before. Moving day is a great institution, but it is generally also a nuisance. Many grieve over the necessity which compels them to "get up and dust." The following changes have been made in the business department: Halsted's Boot & Shoe Store to Sayers' corner; Sayers & Hoskinson to Allison's building, room formerly occupied by Hedge & Son; Cotterell & Taylor, sold to Rev. Wm. Wallace, to room occupied by Day's Book Store; Day's Book Store to Cotterell & Taylor's old room; Sayers & Gaper, Attys. at Law, to room occupied by Sayers & Rinehart's Marble Works; Ingraham, sold to Prof. W. Scott, remains at the old stand; Thompson & Butzell to west end of Braden's building; Wyle & Buchanan, Attys. at Law, to Hamilton House; Cleaver's Saddler shop to Amity, Wash. Co.; Wm. A. Porter to his old room in Greene House; A. Wilson, Jr., sold to Sutton & Shirk, of Ruff's Creek, at old stand; Balley's Jewelry Store to Ledwith Building opposite the court-house.

Go to T. Braden & Co.'s and get your tools for farming and mechanical purposes.

Rev. Kenner, Episcopal Bishop of Pittsburgh, preached in the Court House, on Wednesday evening last. A large and attentive audience were in attendance, and the discourse of the eminent divine was listened to with marked attention. Episcopal service will be held in this place semi-monthly from May next.

MORE ROOM WANTED.—The fact that all who now occupy houses not their own are paying exorbitant rents suggest the propriety of building more houses. An effort will be made the coming summer to supply this deficiency. The idea is a plausible one which we hope to see carried out. In fact, we know of no want, just now, more pressing than the want of houses. Fifty more if erected would find occupants at reasonable rates.

LAMPS UP.—We have at last had the pleasure of seeing our streets lighted by lamps. Last Sunday they were fixed upon the posts and in the evening lighted for the first time. It must be confessed that we were not favorably impressed with the improvement, no doubt, because our expectations were higher than reason would dictate. In so far as the work is done it is well, but the lamps are too few and far between.

As Old Says.—The Washington Co. Fair, Sept. 21st, at Mr. A. P. Dougherty's place, near the Washington Co. Fair, Sept. 21st, is written very closely, on a large, heavy, unruled sheet of paper, and is correctly punctuated. A small portion of the deed has been destroyed, apparently by fire. Many of the letters are so different in shape from those of now-a-days it would require a great deal of time to decipher all the words, although many of them can be read quite easily. The ink does not appear to have faded much, if any. The word "ye" is used where we now use the adjective "thou," as "all ye right-titled interest," &c. The interesting relic of the past was picked up at New Kent Court House, Va., by Mr. John Donaghy, during McClelland's campaign on the peninsula.

JEFFERSON'S LAST WORDS ON SLAVERY.—The world is already familiar with Jefferson's repeatedly expressed opinions in favor of the ultimate abolition of Slavery in our country. The following letter to Mr. Jas. Heaton, of Middletown, Butler Co., Ohio, was his last words on the subject:

Dear Sir: The antiques of your letter of April 20, is one on which I do not permit myself to express an opinion, but when time, place and occasion may give it some favorable effect. A good cause is often injured more by ill timed efforts of its friends than by the arguments of its enemies. Persuasion, perseverance and patience are the best advocates on questions depending on the will of others. The Revolution in public opinion which this cause requires is not to be expected in a day or perhaps in an age; but time, which outlives all things will outlive this evil also. My sentiments have been forty years before the public, and had I repeated them forty times, they would only become the more stale and threadbare. Although I shall not live to see them consummated, they will die with me, but living or dying, they will ever be in my most fervent prayers.

T. JEFFERSON.

Is it not profanation of his name and memory to link them with the so called Democratic party of to-day. A party which labored its utmost to cherish and extend in institution which the great founder of Democracy styled "an evil." All things are transitory, but that revolution which brings odium upon the name of one of America's noblest statesmen is most offensive.

INCOME TAX PAYERS GUIDE.—For the benefit of our readers, subject to the payment of the income tax for 1866, we give the following synopsis of the new law, by which they will see at a glance the character of the articles to be returned upon, and deductions to be made.

RETURNS.—1. From the profits in any trade, business or profession from which income is derived, or any interest therein wherever earned. 2. From the payment of debts in a former year considered lost, and which have not paid a previous income tax. 3. From rents. 4. From taxable operations—amount of investors' stock amount of agricultural products sold. 5. From profits realized by sales of real estate purchased since December 31, 1861. 6. From interest on bonds or other evidence of indebtedness of any railroad, canal, navigation, or stock-water company; or interest or dividends on stock, capital or deposits in any bank, trust company, savings institution, insurance, railroad, canal, turnpike, canal navigation or stock-water company. 7. From dividends of any incorporated company other than those above mentioned. 8. From gains and profits of any incorporated company not divided. 9. From interest on notes, bonds or other securities of the United States. 10. From interest on notes, bonds, mortgages or securities, other than those enumerated above.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE.—It is a great pleasure to announce that our friend Capt. J. B. DONLEY, was admitted to practice Law in the several courts of this county at the last term. He is a gentleman of fine ability and will doubtless prove a valuable addition to the legal corps.

Wm. A. PORTER.—At home at his Old Stand in the Greene House, where he expects to remain for a time, will be pleased to have all of his old and new friends call and see him. He will do the very best he can, in the way of cheap goods and seeds of all kinds, without humbugging, cheating or lying.

REPAIRED.—The bridge crossing Ten Mile creek, known as the Slater bridge has been repaired so as to save the county the very great expense of building a new one in its stead. A few years since this bridge was let out for repair, the undertaker failing to execute the reparation it was handed over to the Commissioners again. Some time last month Mr. S. Groves took the contract and has now finished it, thus saving the county heavy expense.
