THE DEMOCRATIC VICTORY?

Democracy is on stilts. They evolve and whirligig, but not with that ease and grace that they might did they come down from their perch and acknowledge the littleness of their success. Once in thirteen years Connecticut is to be governed by Democrats and at what a price? Read the article from the N. Y. Tribune on our outside. See the sacrifice of honor and means resorted to by Democratic candidates, men selected with an aggregate wealth of $2,500,000 to buy up the floating vote. The little harm that will result, out side the State, will be at the South. It will, in some measure, retard the growth of healthy political sentiment, and the progress of reconstruction under the existing law. The boast that it is but the beginning of political revolution North, is an idle one. Rhode Island is a complete Republican sweep with large gains. Ohio and Michigan the same. The friends of Freedom in Connecticut by relaxation of duty failed to hold the supremacy. However small the consequence let it prove a warning.

"YOU ARE HEREBY REMOVED."

Such is the brief, curt, and imperious language of Gen. Sheridan in removing the Mayor of New Orleans, and Attorney General of Louisiana—officials chosen by the people of that region. This is the first lesson in military despotism, and it is but proper that it should be given by the same man who laid waste with fire and torch the valley of the Shenandoah. The same military officer that burned houses over the heads of helpless women and starving children. The same leader who made bonfires of barns, in a country where thousands were starving, and ruthlessly drove from one of the fairest spots on earth, swarms of "subjugated" women, "conquered" children and "subdued" old men, to the mountains to freeze and perish, rootless and homeless. It is fit that the first lesson in military despotism should be given by this man. "You are hereby removed!" sounds like the death knell of republicanism, and it could not emanate from a fitter source than Gen. Sheridan. Still the people sleep; no person is assassinated; no rebellion is proclaimed; not even indignant public assemblies indicate that the people have still enough of the blood of '76 to resist!

The Review & Examiner of last week, thus relieves of an unusual burden of hate because, forsooth, he to whom the liberties and lives of the people of Louisiana are committed, by swift and righteous exercise of authority swept from power the men upon whose souls is the blighting stain of the murders of July 1866, in New Orleans. No remarks of ours are needed to point out in all its indecent deformity the undercurrent of despair, and falsity, and revenge, and cowardice which the language above betrays. Despair for the loss of their cause; falsity in the blasphemous libeling of one of the North's best and bravest defenders; revenge in the desire that another uprising should lay waste the land with fire and sword; cowardice in that they counsel the assassination of our leaders.

How long will it be ere such attempt to cloak their sayings by drawing about them the mantle of falsehood?

THE STATE LOAN.

The Philadelphia Press remarks truly that it is gratifying to note the alacrity and unanimity with which our capitalists have responded to the appeal of the State of Pennsylvania for means to fund her past due indebtedness, and thus, by setting herself financially right, be enabled to discharge the claims of her creditors. By an act passed at the present session of the Legislature the Governor was empowered to advertise for proposals for a loan of twenty-three million dollars, at par, for the funding of the past due bonds of the Commonwealth. On Monday the bids were opened, when it was found that more than had been offered was required. Thirty-one million dollars were proffered, at six per cent. interest, ranging from par to one-half per cent. premium. One million dollars was bid for at par, five per cent. interest. Messrs. DICKER & CO., E. W. CLARK & CO., and JAY COOK & CO., well-known banking firms of this city, have obtained a majority of the bids, all at a premium, and the remainder, about seven millions, has been taken in other parts of the State. This exhibit shows that our State has regained all her financial reputation, and that she is now stronger than ever, under the able administration of Governor KEARNEY and the labors of Treasurer KENDRICK and Auditor General HARTMAN.

NEW COUNTY.—Is not of the West Virginia Legislature, a new county (Lincoln) has been formed from parts of Cabell, Kanawha, Putnam, and Boone. Hamlin is the county seat.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION

HARTFORD, April 6.—The returns are nearly all in, and the result will be as follows:

The Democratic-State ticket is elected by 800 majority.

The net Democratic majority on the Congressional vote is 1,800, and the average Democratic on the whole ticket 1,200.

Hotchkiss (Dem.) is elected to Congress, in the Second district, by 2,500 majority.

Hubbard (Dem.) is elected in the First district, by 500 majority.

Wm. H. Barnum (Dem.) is elected in the Fourth district, by 500 majority.

The Republicans elected Starkweather, in the Third district, by 1,700 majority.

The Legislature will be Republican in the Senate by 1, in the House by 17 majority.

"MORE CORRUPTION."

The Copperheads of Washington Co. it seems, are indignant at the passage through the State Senate, of the bill extending the franchises and power of the Pennsylvania Railroad over the Governor's veto, and the Review, their organ, launches a terrific philippic against those who voted for it. It says, "to realize the extent of the corrupt disregard of the public interest that prevails at Harrisburg, the reader should read Gov. Geary's veto message. That a bill so monstrous in its provisions should not only pass, but receive a two-third vote in the Senate after the Governor's exposure of its iniquitous features, should alarm the people, if there remains sufficient political virtue in the masses to protest against the bold betrayal by their representatives."

It adds that the bill gave the railroad company power to override all other interests and set at defiance the State itself; and if this climax of corrupt legislation is permitted to pass, it will appear the people are as corrupt as their representatives. The repetition of these alarming acts of legislation, thus far only familiarizes the people to these hideous deeds without arousing them. The representatives and Press, that serve this huge monopoly are paid and fattened in the service, and the trick is yearly repeated, and the road buys a dictatorship. In every county are to be found the smooth, cautious, and cunning politicians, who induce the people to overlook their real interests and vote for their betrayers, and so the people throw off the chains of party tyranny. The burden of these outrages will some day gall the people into resistance, is certain.

All this is well said, and indicates a healthy state of feeling in Washington. But will it produce an immemorial action? Will the Democracy of Fayette respond? Are they so firmly chained to party, that they will tamely cower under the power of the monopoly?

We think they will. They have elected a Senator, whose antecedents had long since taught them to put no trust in him. They have made it their party interest to justify their own acts, and thus sustain the party.

We add the vote in the Senate, on the passage of the bill over the Governor's veto:

On the question shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor thereto, the yeas and nays being called, were as follows:

Yeas.—Barnett, Connell, Donovan, Fisher, Glatz, Haines, Jackson, James, Lander, McCandless, McConaghy, Randall, Ridgeway, Roger, Schall, SEARIGHT, Stutzman, Taylor, Walls, and Worthington—20.

MONONGAHELA VALLEY RAILROAD.

This bill incorporates the Monongahela Valley Railroad Company, and names as Commissioners to open books and take stock, Messrs. Jesse Lenzler, J. C. Flemiken, P. L. Kramer, G. H. Bowman, Samuel Vanhott, W. E. Frazer, Jr., Robert G. Mullen, H. S. Van Voorhis, and others. The capital stock is not to exceed $20,000 per mile of road, divided into shares of fifty dollars each, but the company may borrow money, issue bonds, etc., to an amount not exceeding the amount of capital actually paid in. The company is authorized to build and equip a single or double track railroad, from a point at or near the city of Pittsburgh, along the Monongahela river, to a point at or near Rice's Landing, in Greene county; thence to Waynesburg in said county, with the right to construct any branch or lateral railroad not exceeding ten miles in length, in the coal fields of Allegheny, Washington, Westmoreland, Fayette and Greene counties.

Such is the synopsis of the bill given by the Pittsburg Dispatch, as it passed the Legislature. It is well enough to keep the thing alive and make believe to something, but, gentlemen, if you really desire us to have a railroad give us the Free Bill, pure, unadulterated. We look upon this revival as in no way calculated to improve our prospects, merely a "pincher," to be filed or bought off.

"Whenever you hear a radical speaking about loyalty, you must not think he means loyalty to the government of the United States."—Cap.

But, observes the Shelbyville Tenn. Republican, whenever you hear a non-reservative (Democrat) cursing radicals, you must not understand him as meaning rebels who involved the country in civil war and filled the land with widows and orphans. No, he means those who stopped their career.

J. E. HAYES, editor of the Savannah Republican, is still kept in prison in Savannah, Ga., for a so called libel, in defiance of sense and justice.—Ex.

The North Case about which the Copperhead journals are so loudmouthed was a clear case of plotting treason against the Government. The above is one of a fearless journalist that dared to uphold the Union of the States among traitors, a victim of Andrew Johnson's policy. Are the Democrats or their Press exercised for his welfare?

An atrocious attempt at wholesale murder was made on Sunday last by placing obstructions on the Penn. Central R. R. near Turtle Creek Allegheny Co. The Cincinnati Express was thrown from the track, and most completely demolished. Although filled with passengers, but four persons, and they employees, were injured, one fatally. Suspected parties have been arrested.

Riotous.—The Italian tragedienne performed two nights in Pittsburgh, this week. The peanut merchants of the city were employed by the reporters of the press to act as interpreters.

Monday's papers report a formidable riot in Luzerne county, Pa. Civil authority was resisted and the military brought in requisition. It is stated that the rioters are strikers.

Uproa a hotel sign, in Richmond, the following words appear in painted, solemn earnest:

PRESIDENT'S POLICY,
Whisky, Porter, Ale and Cigars.

A TOAST.—Andrew Johnson—First in War, last in Peace and least in the hearts of his countrymen.

BAPTIST COLLEGE.
The Monongahela Baptist Association at its annual meeting in September last, appointed a committee of ten persons with the Rev. I. M. Partridge as chairman, to enquire into the educational interest of the churches in Western Pennsylvania, and to confer with a similar committee from the Ten Mile Association.

And the Ten Mile Association at its meeting in September last, appointed a committee of ten persons A. A. Purman Esq., chairman, to confer with committee of the Monongahela Association on the educational interest of the churches and the erection of a College within the bounds of one or the other of the Associations.

At the call of the chairman of the committee a meeting was held at Smithfield Fayette County Pa. on the 7th of Feb. last, and after a full interchange of opinions, it was resolved to erect a college within the bounds of the associations, and elected A. A. Purman Esq., Rev. I. M. Partridge and Prof. C. A. Gilbert to select a site and prepare a plan of endowment and report to the meeting of the joint committee to meet at Brownsville Pa. in June next.

The plausibility of this enterprise is apparent when we refer to the fact, that these associations embrace in their communion more than eight thousand persons in the counties of Greene, Washington, Fayette and parts of Westmoreland and Allegheny, and including Monongalia, Marion, Tyler, Marshall, Ohio and Brook counties, of Western Virginia, the number would exceed ten thousand. And to these may be added more than five thousand disciples within the boundaries, who may be considered as earnestly the friends of the College as the Baptists themselves.

The College can and will be built! For the want of proper facilities for the education of the youth of Baptist parents, other organizations are over-reaching your numbers. Yet your Church was the first Protestant in the valley of the Monongahela. It was the Rev. John Corby who first proclaimed the gospel of our divine Master to the few pioneers who sought homes in this then desert wild. Baptists in South Western Pennsylvania waken up to your interests! Build the College on an eligible site.

We would suggest the capital of Greene County as the proper place.

1st. Because Waynesburg is near the center of the Baptist organizations of South Western Pennsylvania and North West Virginia.

2nd. Because it is one of the most healthy locations in the land, and of easy access by its turnpike to the river—its connection with Cameron on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and with Washington Pa. by line of coaches.

3rd. Because of the moral tone of its inhabitants out of a population of seven hundred adults, about four hundred profess to be followers of our divine Master.

4th. Because Messrs. E. M. Sayers & Wm. E. Gape Esqrs., will give one thousand dollars worth of land well located, on the southern side of town, on which to erect the College edifice. While the citizens of Waynesburg propose to give several thousand dollars—and the Baptists of Greene County proverbial for their charity would freely give to adorn their county seat with this valuable institution.

A FRIEND TO THE COLLEGE.

WHY I AM A REPUBLICAN.

No. 4.

6th. The Republican party advocates the principles of morality and religion.

It has done so from the beginning. It was organized under John Quincy Adams to exterminate Slavery; it is now fighting against intemperance, polygamy, Sabbath-desecration and every species of vice and immorality, the relics of the by-gone rule of Democracy. Facts prove that, notwithstanding the war, we have made greater progress in putting down these crying sins within the last six years, than in any score of years before. Never have we made such rapid strides towards the reign of peace foretold by prophecy, as since the old giant emissary of corruption and sin was destroyed in Oct., 1860. I do not claim that the party has been the sole power in this great work, but I do assert that it has worked in harmony with the reformers, and that its principles accord with the principles of the Reformation.

Again, the religious papers of the North are almost a unit in favor of the party. And they are even more radical than the secular press. I think it safe to say that four fifths of the ministry are Republicans, and four fifths of the church members. Some sects are composed wholly of persons who vote the Union ticket. During the war, Presbyteries, Synods, Assemblies, Conferences and other bodies raised their voices to sustain the government and denounce treason. And it was nothing but the Republican party that gave to our armies the Sanitary Commission, that noble society that ever shone forth with its deeds of mercy and love amid the wild, fierce, wreck of battle. And now, morality and religion, everything true, beautiful and good, cry out to bless this great party of reform.

7th. It is the friend of science and progress.

No better illustration of this can be found than at home. Look at the old log cabin of our County, with its fifteen hundred copperhead majority, and then look at the Western States, radical to the core. How far are they ahead of us? About seventy years. What a wretched condition the people of the South are in, where Democracy so long revelled in triumph. Contrast Massachusetts and Georgia. The one a live, working, moral State; the other a dead, worthless community of criminals.—What are the men of science and learning in our country? Republicans. Where do we find our celebrated colleges, universities, and better than all, our common schools? In the abolition states. Thirteen democratic states without a free school! What a commentary. The patron of ignorance and the friend of crime! Who that lives for the benefit of his race, could belong to such an organization as the copperhead party.

J.

POPULAR ERRORS.—That editors keep public reading rooms. That they have plenty of time to talk with every body who wishes to spend an hour in discussion on such particular questions as the state of the weather, the immorality of the times, the condition of the country, public men and their deeds, etc., ad infinitum. That they are delighted to get anything to fill up the paper with. In short, that they are not human beings and should be visited with all the ills that brutes are heir to.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.—The movement to test the constitutionality of the Reconstruction act, says a Washington dispatch of the 5th, was carried out with exactness of detail in the Supreme Court to-day. The case will come up for full argument on Friday next, and will last for several days.

From the Tribune we learn that the Ohio Legislature, which not long ago refused manhood suffrage, has reversed that action, and both branches have passed a bill establishing it in the State.—The House amended the bill to disfranchise Rebels and deserters, and has sent it to the Senate for action.

The Virginia Legislature has passed a law prohibiting the selling or giving away of liquor at any locality near a place where polls are held, and its provisions are very stringent.—Ex.

And very sensible.

Senator Lowry, of Erie, has been caned by John Burns, the "hero of Gettysburg." The cane bears the following inscription: "The root of this stick was baptized by the blood of Gen. Reynolds, cut by the hands of John Burns, who presented it to Senator Lowry."

THE REPORT.—Of Secretary McCullough for the year ending April 7 1867, shows the reduction of the public debt to be $209,000,000. This is cheering.

NEW YORK DRY GOODS MARKET.

N. Y. April 6.—The dry goods trade is generally rather quiet, though a fair business is doing in new and novel designs in chaste and desirable colorings at steady rates, but other descriptions hang fire, and prices are low and weak, under the decline in cotton and gold. In prices of dry goods there is no essential change except in Merino D brand prints, which are down to 10c. Oriental prints are selling at 15c under the name of Glasgow ticket.
