of the Government? Why not arrest him for inciting insurrection? It could be done with the same propriety that these clamoring revolutionists urge the arrest of Wilson.

PLEADING EXTRAORDINARY. Copperhead journals have just at present a case for special pleading. They come out with leaded leaders, top headed "Starvation!" "Famine in our own land!" etc.

THE HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH tells us that by far the most influential of the Democratic journals, such, for instance, as the New York Day Book, insist that Jeff. Davis will not be the Democratic candidate in 1868, for President.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE informs us that Serratt cannot be convicted of murder, and consequently his counsel have abandoned the case.

Communicated.

EACH THINKS FOR HIMSELF. Due attention given to all who communicate for the column.

FOR THE REPUBLICAN. A PLEA FOR SUFFRAGE. "Beat the false opinion down. Give the man the civic crown."

It has been the doctrine of Democracy from its birth, that only a certain class should have any privileges in our land. Foremost among those it excluded is the negro; and for no other reason than because his skin is black instead of white.

BREEDING PESTILENCE.

The cause of justice must always be opposed by that of wrong. Copperhead journals again cry out against free speech and universal knowledge.

A BRILLIANT AND PATRIOTIC SCHEME. The project lately started by a number of prominent and patriotic gentlemen to erect on the battlefield of Gettysburg a permanent home for invalid or crippled Union soldiers of the Rebellion.

IT BECOMING known that certain parties in New York had, during the Rebellion, purchased a large number of diamonds and precious stones, measures were taken to secure them, and certain parties advanced the money for their purchase.

THE MANAGEMENT of the great enterprise has been confided to able and experienced hands, and there is not the slightest doubt that the entire scheme will be consummated to the perfect satisfaction of everybody interested.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE asserts that the rumor of late water that the President offered Horace Greeley the position of Postmaster General proves true. The latter has been seen in Washington within a few days and will probably be made public shortly.

GEN. GRANT AND THE PRESIDENCY.

According to the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, Judge Carter, of Washington, recently had an interview with Gen. Grant, on the subject of the Presidency—not to bring him out as a candidate, but to have him declare in favor of Senator Wade, or if he would not do that, strike a bargain whereby that Senator would have the advantage of Grant's favor for the Vice Presidency.

LADY'S BOOK.—The June issue of this periodical is on our table, and we notice that it is the last number of the seventy-fourth volume, and the end of the thirty-seventh year.

RENAN, author of the 'Life of Christ,' Hon. E. C. A New Volume begins with the next number, $3 a year; single numbers 30 cents. Address J. R. Wells, 399 Broadway, N. Y.

THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL concedes with Petroleum Nasby: Nasby thinks he has not made the most of his opportunities. The Postoffice at the Cross Roads is a nice berth, but if he had plunged into the war, as a Major General, in the Confederate army, and distinguished himself for cruelty to Federal prisoners, he might, at the close of the fratricidal struggle, have been received and embraced as a long-lost brother, by the Northern people 'letting him kill fatted calves for me, and ov course bein the object of sympathy as a martyr by the Southern people.'

THE CHAMPION BOAT RACE.

PITTSBURGH, May 22.—The single scull race between James Hamill, of Pittsburg, and Walter Brown, of Portland, for $1000 and the championship of the United States, distance five miles, came off on the Monongahela river yesterday afternoon, at 4:53 o'clock.

AT A QUARTER TO FOUR o'clock the contestants took their places, Hamill having the choice of positions. At the signal for starting both left the judge's boat in elegant style. Brown's long sweep went ahead, and he maintained the lead to buoy boat, two miles and a half distant, and turned it neatly; but on the return stretch Brown is alleged to have fouled Hamill, the latter's judge claiming that Brown crossed Hamill's course three times during the race.

ON SATURDAY last Hamill forwarded a challenge to Brown to row him a five mile race for two thousand dollars a side, the contest to come off either on the Charles river, at Boston, the Hudson, at New York or the Schuylkill, at Philadelphia, each party to bear their own expenses. Mr. Hamill desires to meet his competitor on neutral waters, and all he asks, in case the challenge is accepted, is a clear course and fair play.

THERE IS NO mistaking the glee of Copperhead organs over the release of Jeff. Davis and their purpose to turn the transaction to the ridicule not only of the living but the dead supporters of the Union. By one of these organs, the Harrisburg Telegraph informs us, it is brutally declared that Underwood fixed Davis' bail so as to make it average ten cents for every life sacrificed during the war for the Union.

A WESTERN contemporary, speaking of Horace Greeley, says truthfully of the philosopher: There are some who are always glad to read what he has to say, but if he thinks that he is the autocrat of the editorial fraternity, or the prophet of the age, before whom all other prophets pale their ineffectual fires, he is nursing a delusion that gives him more pain than pleasure.
