WAYNESBURG: WEDNESDAY, MAY 23, 1867.

Mishler's Herb Bitters, a certain cure for Dyspepsia, at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

DEMONSTRATED.—That the late style of short dresses display large feet to a great disadvantage.

The heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday night filled the banks of Ten Mile to overflowing. Much of the bottom land was inundated and some damage done.

REGISTER IN BANKRUPTCY.—We notice the name of Capt. J. B. Donley, of Mt. Morris for the 24th Dist., among the list of nominations for Western Pennsylvania, and recommended by chief Justice Chase for appointment to Hon. Wilson McCandless. It is an excellent appointment.

Go to G. W. Roberts, and buy your pants, dry and in oil.

A GOOD HOUSE.—Our readers will refer with pleasure to the advertisement of A. & B. F. Campbell Jr., in another column. The name of the old firm has been done away with but the establishment still maintains its reputation for honest dealing, good stock and cheap rates. You haven't seen Waynesburg until you visit Campbell's Store.

All the popular Patent Medicines of the day, sold at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

'A MAN OR A MONKEY?'—Rev. Alex. Clark of Pittsburg, proposes to deliver a lecture to our citizens, with the foregoing for a subject, on Tuesday evening the 4th of June, in the College Chapel.—This really brilliant and able minister combines in his discourses the elegant and instructive. He abounds in rich coloring, dazzling imaginative, and practical wisdom. Let all who would not miss a treat attend.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—All persons indebted to Wm. A. Porter will at once make payment to him, and if he is indebted to any person let them present their accounts and get their pay.—W. T. E. Webb is no longer my associate. Wm. A. PORTER.

Perfumery, Hair Oil, Toilet Soaps and a great variety of Notions, at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

CORN.—The season is about over and most of this grain is planted. Farmers tell us that corn planted three weeks since has not yet come up, owing to wet, unseasonable weather. In all probability re-planting will have to be done in this section. The wheat and fruit prospect is cheering.

HARD AT IT.—The workmen are fast re-roofing the Hamilton House. This is in perfect accord with General spirit of improvement. He buys the biggest houses, keeps the biggest stock of Dry Goods and sells them the cheapest of any man in the County.

Uphams Freckle, Tan and Pimple Banisher, for sale at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

THE EXHIBITION.—On last Thursday evening the exhibition given by the Juvenile Mite Society of the C. P. Church, in the College Chapel, passed off in good style and with the eclat deserved by the performers. Much might be said concerning the manner, matter and character of all that was said and done, without disparagement to the youthful actors. There were those in the audience who listened with unfeigned pleasure to the reading of their productions. As none but linguists can appreciate the exquisite music they have on such occasions, we cannot proffer our opinion on that score. The tableaux were considered good, the best part of the programme. A large audience attested the fact that it just requires our youth and beauty to bring the citizens out. We have nothing to chronicle concerning order, unless it may be the boisterous habit of stamping, which, to the credit of the boys, was but little indulged in this time. A good deal of superior sole leather is usually worn out at public exhibitions, by stamping and shuffling to manifest the approbation of their wearers, of the performances, or attract attention. We notice that generally who stamp the heaviest are least able to furnish boots for themselves. Stamping is an indication that the persons are in the habit of attending cheap shows of a low order, where the custom is popular, and the habit accompanies them into halls where respectable exhibitions are held. Enthusiasm which manifests itself by stamping is not to be desired. Cattle in fly time are justified in indulging in this privilege; but were they to visit College Chapel and stamp half as much as animals capable of counting two, how long would their presence be endured?

GOING DOWN.—A. T. Stewart offers his stock of Dry Goods at auction in view of the decline. Guzman, the A. T. Stewart of Greene County, will not sell at auction but he is offering his stock at such low rates that competition will hardly be thought of.

OVER WITH.—The Democratic Primary election on last Saturday was marked with more than ordinary interest. The contest for Sheriff was most animating. The friends of the different candidates voted early and often. Men were voted from West Virginia. In the evening the returns gave sure indications of an overwhelming majority for Silvers for Sheriff. His majority over both candidates being something less than 2,500.

WANTED.—10,000 lbs Broke Wool—well washed; 1000 lbs new leathers; 1000 bushels corn; 1000 lbs Bacon. The highest price will be paid for the above articles. Wm. A. PORTER, Waynesburg, May 22d, 1867. 4t.

Lindsey's Blood Searcher for sale at Dr. D. W. Braden's Drug Store.

CITY STYLES, latest and best, at Frank M'Gurgan's.

DULL.—Just now the farmers are busy washing and shearing their sheep, making it dull. We may look, however, for fresh times soon, as the wool clip in this county is estimated by an old dealer to be worth $600,000, and it will not be long until it is in the market.

COSMOPOLITANS say that Frank M'Gurgan has the finest and most fashionable goods in the place.

BAZAAR AND FESTIVAL.—The entertainment in the Court House on to-morrow evening promises to be a recherche affair. The Hier's Baptist Mite Society have long had it in preparation. It will be wanting in no particulars. Those who attend may have the assurance of being feasted on the early delicacies of the season, can be furnished with divers fancy articles from a chemise band to an elegant bonnet for the "dear one," besides contributing to the advancement of a worthy cause. Take our word for it and go.

One Dollar will buy one bottle Lindsey's Blood Searcher, at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

PERSONAL.—We were not allowed last week owing to the crowded state of our columns, to notice the return of our friend Mr. ROBERT ADAMS from Washington, D. C. "Bob," has served the Government nobly and faithfully for the last six years in the capacity of defender and official, and now voluntarily returns among us to escape the excitement of the city. He is ever welcome in Waynesburg.

FRANK M'GURGAN astonishes the people of the county by his low prices.

THE WASHINGTON ROBBERY.—The account of which we publish on our outside, has assumed another shape since the article referred to is in type. We learn that the young Ellsworth was a detective from Cincinnati and in the guise of a "fast young man" sold the guilty parties and proved the means of their arrest. The document is said to have created considerable surprise in town and country. That locality is becoming celebrated, criminally, so much so, that heretofore instead of consigning an offender to the realms of Pluto we tell him to go to—Washington county!

Pure Drugs and plenty of them, at D. W. Braden's Drug Store.

TRIMMINGS, a large and fancy assortment at Frank M'Gurgan's.

TRUE AS PREACHING.—In every branch of business, the benefits of advertising are immense. There is a risk but it is small, and the probabilities are largely in favor of success when you let it be known that you have something for sale, thereby going steadily to work to turn up something rather than sit still, waiting for something to turn up. Guhier understands this and improves every opportunity, of letting people know that he has a large and fine assortment of Dry Goods which are sold at the lowest possible rates.

Laird's Bloom of youth for the complexion and skin, at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

ENLARGED.—On last Monday the Pittsburg Gazette actually came to us with a broad grin on its face, this may seem strange, too, when we tell that it is longer than it ever was. The Gazette is the largest and cheapest journal in Western Pennsylvania, complete in all its departments and what is better, radically right in politics. It has completed its first year under the management of the present proprietors, Pennington, Reed & Co., and if it continues in success as heretofore must outstrip all competitors in the journalistic race. It now contains 32 columns of good reading and costs considerably less than any daily or weekly in the city. Every one of our farmers should send for the Gazette. [N. B.—The Gazette would be more popular here if we could get the last edition on the day of issue.]

WM. A. PORTER will sell Sheep Shears and Wool Twine cheaper than the cheapest. He cannot be beaten in the price of any article—he has a full line of goods, the place to get bargains. 1t.

TOLL payers indebted to Waynesburg Pike Co., at gate kept by James Burk, will be expected to pay arrears to the Company THIS MORNING.

Halls Hair Renewer, the best preparation for the hair in use, at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

OUTLANDISH.—Some persons devoid of shame, without respect for themselves or the community at large, have indulged in their cowardly propensities of late in the committing of sundry outrages. On last Saturday night the house of Mrs. Susan Pettit was stoned and several windows and the eash broken. On Sunday night the same persons, we presume, amused themselves by throwing large stones and a barrel into the well of Mrs. Allison. What cause these ruffians have for injuring the property of these ladies we cannot surmise. Indeed, could there be a cause? We call the attention of our borough authorities to this matter with the expectation that means will be taken to quell such riotous proceedings in future, and we warn such as engage in it that unless the causing is desisted from they will be apprehended and summarily punished.

We would be much obliged to ministers if they will furnish us promptly with notices of the marriages at which they officiate. Also, to any person who may furnish us with notices of deaths occurring in our community. Marriages, deaths and other incidents have occurred recently which we should have noted, but they came to us too late. By heeding this you will confer a favor on us and our readers.

Allen's Lung Balsam and Perry Davis' Pain Killer, in any quantity at Braden's Drug Store.

LECTURE.—Our readers will bear in mind the temperance lecture of Rev. J. A. Davidson, in the church on the hill this evening. After the exercises he will organize a Lodge of Good Templars. Mr. Davidson comes to us after having spent eleven years in the lecture field, in England, British America, and in the United States, especially in California and Michigan, and is strongly recommended from different parts of our state, having recently organized forty-one lodges in the Eastern part of it.

ANOTHER large arrival at Frank M'Gurgan's Clothing and Dry Goods Store.

ATTENTION RESERVES!—Thursday next is the day for the first annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Reserve Association, to be held in Harrisburg. Gen. Wm. McCandless has been selected as the orator for the occasion. All members of the above distinguished organization during the war, are earnestly requested to attend. The 30th of May, 1864, the Reserves fought their last battle as a body. Gen. S. M. Baily, formerly Colonel of the 8th P. H. V. C., extends an earnest invitation through the Uniontown papers, to the members of the Reserve organization.

All of Ayer's and Jayna's Medicines sold at Braden's cheap Drug Store.

TRIAL OF LENNOX.—The trial of John Lennox, charged with the murder of Robert Morrow, in the borough of Washington, on the 21st of October, 1864, was commenced in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Washington Co., on Tuesday. District Attorney Boyd Crumrine, and N. P. Fetterman, Esq., of Pitts. appeared for the Commonwealth and Messrs. Montgomery, Gibson, Hart and Brady for the defense. The prisoner, when arraigned, plead "not guilty," and the trial was proceeded with.

The jury, after an absence of some hours, agreed upon a verdict of "murder in the second degree," and recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the Court. Lennox was brought into Court and sentenced by Judge Acheson to eight years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

THE SPOUT MURDER.—The Grand Jury of Washington Co. found a true bill against John Bird and Thomas Whittaker, the alleged Spout murderers, evidence have been adduced to warrant their being held for trial. The case is made strong enough to insure the belief that they may be convicted. A true bill has also been found against Bob Mathews, the alleged robber of the Canonsburg Bank. The trials of all these prisoners will not take place before the next term of Court.

WHERE'S THE DISGRACE?—We understand that certain parties in our neighborhood have perpetrated matrimony, but in order to gratify a fashionable folly now "down up." Now if the "blissful state" is not so blissful why not "acknowledge the corn?" Cares and wrinkles come no sooner for a frank avowal, and it is very evident that it leaves no room for scandal. Take a friend's advice and if you are in the harness don't try to kick out so soon!

MARRIED.—YOUNKER-RICKEY.—On the 18th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, B. F. Rickey, by Rev. Kendall, Mr. J. Younker and Miss M. A. Rickey, all of Greene County Pa.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any Lady's toilet. By its use any Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order, by W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3 West Fayette St., Syracuse, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same.
