

THE PILOT.

GREENCASTLE: Tuesday Morning, March 10, 1863.

READ! READ!!

We would again inform those of our Subscribers...

CREDIT SYSTEM.

If no other beneficial effect resulting from the civil war can be found, that of death to the credit system...

It is well for everybody that credit is being driven out by cash.

Now while a great and good change is being made in the circles of business...

THE PROTEST AGAINST MEDIATION.

The following are the proposed joint resolutions reported by Senator Sumner...

Whereas, it appears from the diplomatic correspondence submitted to Congress...

A British Fleet Gathering in Hampton Roads--Insults of the Anglo-Rebels.

Fortress Monroe, March 3, 1863. A British fleet is gradually gathering in Hampton Roads.

so much depends, any proposition from a foreign Power...

Resolved, That the Rebellion from its beginning, and far back even in the conspiracy...

Resolved, That the President be requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions...

A British Fleet Gathering in Hampton Roads--Insults of the Anglo-Rebels.

Fortress Monroe, March 3, 1863. A British fleet is gradually gathering in Hampton Roads.

Such actions, however, speak volumes for the honor and chivalry of a Ruler Britannia.

American hospitality. While within the Union lines, they spy out all they can of our movements...

The Late Fight Near Strasburg.

Winchester, Va., Feb. 27, 1863. Yesterday two battalions of the Thirteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry were sent out by orders of General Milroy...

Seven picket men having been captured the night before by a number of the Rebel cavalry...

The main camp of the Rebels being in close proximity, information was communicated to it without any delay.

The entire force of the enemy were soon on the march from Woodstock, where they had been stationed.

Capt. Dewees had been successful in recapturing the seven picket men, and was off with his return with them a number of prisoners...

The enemy were under the command of Gen. Jones, who led the two battalions of the Thirteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry...

Depredations on the High Seas.

Halifax, March 2. The steamer Delta, from St. Thomas, Bermuda, on the 25th, arrived at this port to-day.

She reports that on the 12th of February, in lat. 24, long. 65, the pirate Florida captured and burned the ship Jacob Bell...

The passengers and crew were transferred to a Danish vessel which arrived at St. Thomas on the 19th of February.

The cargo of the Jacob Bell was chiefly for English account, and valued at $600,000.

Our Government is a heavy loser, as the duties would have amounted to $175,000.

Rebel Steamer Nashville Destroyed.

The Richmond Examiner, of March 2d, contains the following despatch:

Savannah, Feb. 28. The steamer Nashville, in coming up the Ogeechee river, last night, grounded on the sand bar before Fort McAllister...

The fort fired upon the iron-clad and hit her twice. The other gun-boats of the fleet fired at the fort, but did no damage.

The War in Tennessee.

Cincinnati, March 3. A special dispatch from Murfreesboro' received here, states that on Sunday an expedition of Union troops...

Stoke's Tennessee Cavalry flanked the rebels on the right and in force, driving the rebels from their position.

The rebels fled in dismay, leaving nine of their officers and eighty privates as prisoners in our hands.

It was ascertained from the papers captured that the rebel Morgan had his headquarters at McMinnville, Tenn.

General Rosecrans has just dismissed forty-two officers from the service, for absence, insubordination, drunkenness, cowardice and other offences.

A Desperate Fight at Spring Hill.

Nashville, March 6. There was fighting all day yesterday, between Van Dorn's Rebel command and three Federal regiments of infantry...

Nashville, March 6. The following additional details have been received of the fight near Franklin yesterday.

Further Details of the Disaster.

Nashville, March 6. The following additional details have been received of the fight near Franklin yesterday.

The Rebels suddenly opened on our men with three batteries on different points...

Our artillery and cavalry were successfully withdrawn. The One-hundred-and-twenty-fourth Ohio was out but returned without loss.

General Gilbert's non-action and failure to reinforce Colonel Coburn, is severely censured by officers and men.

Washington, March 3, 1863. The following has been received at Headquarters: Murfreesboro', Feb. 27, 1863.

General-in-Chief: The Rebels of Morgan's and Wheaton's commands made a stand in Bradyville.

Major Murphy did good service. We lost one man killed and one Captain and nine men wounded.

The Capture of the "Indianola."

Memphis, March 2. [Special to the New York Times.] Arrivals from below to-day confirm the report of the sinking of the Indianola...

The fight occurred about thirty miles below Vicksburg, on Tuesday, 24th ult. The fight was obstinate, lasting several hours...

She was run ashore, and the officers and crew are now in Vicksburg.

PASSING EVENTS.

Files of the Pilot. We have several files of last year's Pilot, which we will sell cheap.

Wild Geese. A large flock of Wild Geese flew over town on last Sabbath evening.

We think our streets would be improved by being cleaned. What do think ye, Town Fathers?

Soldiers Dead in the 126th. We hear that THOMAS C. DETRICK, of company H, and a Mr. McKESON, of one of the Chambersburg companies, died in camp last week.

Let the People See. Wm. McCrossy has just opened, at his Clock and Jewelry Store, on South Carlisle street, a large and elegant assortment of Gold, Silver and Steel Spectacles.

Redeeming Shipplasters. James H. Riley is redeeming the first edition of his "Shipplasters" signed by THOMAS PAWLING, when presented in sums of one dollar. He pays five cents premium.

Extra Copies. Persons desiring a number of extra copies of THE PILOT, will please let us know through WILLIAM A. REID, or Postmaster, GEORGE EBY, on Wednesday of any week.

Notice. The undersigned proposes opening a Summer School in the North Western School House, on MONDAY, APRIL 13TH, 1863. For particulars apply to GREENCASTLE, Feb. 24, 1863.

Furniture for Sale. At a meeting of the BURN'S Association, it was resolved to sell the furniture of said association, at private sale.

The Editor of the Spirit and Times takes us to task for an item which appeared in our paper a few weeks ago.

Deaths in the 126th Reg. P. V. W. T. C. Dyer, of company H, died in camp on the 24th ult., of inflammation of the brain.

The Editors of the Spirit and Times says, "The Cavalry and Artillery got off safely."

A Curiosity. We had the pleasure of examining a curious and somewhat singularly constructed instrument, or "Register," as it is scientifically called.

Hugh Brotherton. The body of Hugh BROTHERTON, late of this place, was brought home on Monday, and was re-interred on Tuesday.

Our citizens will readily recognize, as the proprietor of the "Register" referred to by our contemporary, Rev. H. B. FETTERHOFF, telegraph operator in Greencastle.