

Union Expedition to Gloucester Point.

Yorktown, Va., April 8, 1863.—A very successful raid was made yesterday by the troops stationed at Gloucester Point under the command of Col. A. H. Grimshaw, Fourth Delaware infantry.

A reconnaissance was made a few days since, by Lieutenant-Colonel Tevis, and it was reported by that officer that large stores of grain, and number of sheep and horned cattle were being collected in Gloucester county for the use of the Rebels in Richmond. In consequence of this information, Colonel Grimshaw was ordered to proceed to Gloucester Court House with a force of five hundred infantry (Fourth Delaware regiment), and three hundred cavalry (of the second Massachusetts and Fifth Pennsylvania), with instructions to bring in all the stores which could be transported, and to destroy the remainder.

The expedition was very successful. Some ten thousand dollars' worth of Rebel property was burned, and over three hundred head of cattle, sheep and mules were driven into our hands. The infantry, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Carroll Tevis, was in the advance, and made one of the most remarkable marches on record, having gone over a distance of thirty miles in ten hours. The men were in very high spirits, and only complained that they did not have a fight with the enemy, whose pickets fired before our advance line of skirmishers. The results of foray will, it is to be hoped, be such that the Rebels need not have the monopoly of raids, and that there are officers in our service who are, at least, a match in dash and energy for their Stuart and Lee.
