THE PILOT.
GREENCASTLE:
Tuesday Morning, Nov. 10, 1863.

APOLGY.

It is now three weeks since the last issue of THE PILOT. We may state briefly, by way of apology, that the Publisher had been quite ill with fever for a couple of weeks; and he is just now recovering sufficiently to be about the office again. JOE, the only other compositor in the office, was taken ill about the same time.
Neither feel strong enough to do much work, so that our subscribers will have to be content with a "half sheet" this week. We trust they will pardon the past, and we will try to do better in the future.

THE NEWS.

The news of the Federal possession of Fort Sumter, flashed over northern wires, on last Saturday night. It seems that on Sunday night, Nov. 1st, a night attack was made in boats, which terminated successfully, leaving the 144th Pennsylvania Regiment, in possession of the works. The news was obtained from a captain of one of our vessels. We have now hoisted the flag of our country upon the very spot where it was first degraded by the southern Rebels.

General Sherman has formally assumed command of the Department of Tennessee, and has issued a series of important orders for its government and better instructions of his subalterns. General Grant recently that he considered General Sherman one of the very best officers in the United States Army. Gen.
S. A. Hurlbut, who commands the Sixteenth Army Corps, under General Sherman, has issued an order which puts an end to the "cotton fever" which has recently raged so fiercely among our Generals.

General Meade has sent his sick and wounded men to Washington, and will soon make another forward movement. The Rebels hold the line of the Rappahannock River from Sulphur Springs to Falmouth. Our cavalry forces have been thrown forward, and we may expect to hear of stirring events in a few days.

The army is in good condition, and anxious for activity.

The Memphis papers of the 2d report briefly the repulse of the Rebel Marmaduke, who attacked the Union garrison of seven hundred men at Pine Bluff, Arkansas. The Rebel force consisted of three thousand men, who were defeated with considerable loss.

A Rebel force, said to consist of part of three companies of Castele's men, made a raid to within two and a half miles of Helena week before last, stopping a wagon train and capturing a small number of mules. At last accounts our forces were in pursuit of the enemy.

Knoxville dates to the 4th inst., announce East Tennessee as being cleared of Rebel troops, excepting guerrillas, who infest the country and harass our wagon trains. The recent fight at Roan Springs resulted in the defeat of the Rebels, who lost sixty nine killed and wounded.

On last Tuesday morning Major Fritzgibbon, with one hundred and twenty men of the Thirteenth Michigan, encountered the guerrilla forces of Kirk, Cooper, Scott and Williams, at Lawrenceburg, capital of Lawrence county, and after a severe fight put them to rout, killing and wounding a number, and capturing twenty-four prisoners. A forage train, sent out by Bragg, was captured in the Lookout valley and sent into our camp, the train guard being also taken prisoners.

In the recent fight with the Rebels near the Tennessee River, General Hooker's troops encountered their old enemy, Longstreet's Virginia Corps, and defeated him at every point.
The fight was waged during the dark hour of midnight, and our loss will reach near three hundred killed and wounded. Gen. Meigs compliments highly the gallantry of the Eleventh Corps. Major General Howard, who advanced without firing a shot, charged up and over a steep and densely wooded hill, and drove the Rebels at the bayonet point from their position. Their timely arrival to the assistance of General Geary decided the contest, which Longstreet designed should be brief, as he expected to speedily overthrow Geary by attacking him with his whole corps. A second time has the "Rover of Lee's army and Virginia chivalry" been defeated in Northern Georgia, and it looks much as if their prestige had departed.

these troops for the full period of three years, and they shall be mustered honorably out of Provost Marshal General.

Call for Volunteers.

GOV. CURTIN'S PROCLAMATION.

PENNSYLVANIA SS:

In the name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ANDREW G.
CURTIN, Governor of said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, by Proclamation, bearing date on the Seventeenth day of Oct., inst., has called for THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND VOL-UNTEERS, to recruit the regiments now in the field from the respective States:

And whereas, by information received this day, the quota of the State of Pennsylvania under said call is declared to be THIRTY-EIGHT THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND SIXTY-EIGHT MEN (38,268); And whereas, The President, in his said Proclamation, requests the Governors of the respective States to assist in raising the force thus required:

Now, Therefore, I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do earnestly call on good and loyal freemen of this Commonwealth, to enlist in the service of the United States, under the Proclamation aforesaid, so that the required quota may be made up before the fifth day of January next, on which day the President announces that a draft will commence for any deficiency that may then exist in the same.

The freemen of Pennsylvania enlisting under this call will be attached to regiments from this State. All who are willing to enlist are requested to present themselves at once, for that purpose, to the United States Provost Marshals' recruiting and mustering offices, in their respective cities, towns and counties.
They will receive the following sums as allowance, pay, premium and bounty, viz:

To every recruit who is a veteran volunteer, as defined in General Orders of the War Department of June 25, 1863, No. 191, for recruiting veteran volunteers, one month's pay in advance, and a bounty and premium amounting to $402. To all other recruits, not veterans, accepted and enlisted as required in existing Orders one month's pay in advance, and in addition a bounty and premium amounting to $302.

Any further information desired can be obtained from the Provost Marshals of the respective districts.

In making this appeal to the good and loyal freemen of Pennsylvania, I feel entire confidence that it will be effectually responded to.

The approaching expiration of the term of enlistment of the men now in the field renders it necessary to replenish our regiments. Let us maintain the glory which their valor and conduct have reflected on the Commonwealth, and let our people show, by the promptness and alacrity on this occasion that they have not abated in courage or love of country, or in the determination that the unholy rebellion, already stunning and staggering, shall be utterly crushed and extinguished.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-eighth.
By the Governor. A. G. CURTIN.

ELI SLIFER, Sec'y of the Commonwealth.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

PENNSYLVANIA, SS.

In the name and by authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION.

States, by his Proclamation, bearing date on the third day of this month, has invited the citizens of the United States to set apart THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-SIXTH DAY OF NOVEMBER next, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer.

Now, I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby recommend, that the people of Pennsylvania do set apart and observe the said day accordingly, and they do especially return thanks to Almighty God, for the gathered harvests

For the prosperity with which He has blest sed the industry of our people,—

For the general health and welfare which He has graciously bestowed upon them.—

As for the crowning of mercy by which the blood-thirsty and devastating enemy was driven from our soil by the valor of our brethren, freemen of this and other States,—

And that they do especially pray for the continuance of the blessings which have been heaped upon us by the Divine Hand,—

And for the safety and welfare and success of our brethren in the field, that they may be strengthened to the overthrow and confusion of the Rebels now in arms against our beloved country,—

So that peace may be restored in all our borders, and the Constitution and laws of the land be everywhere within them re established and sustained.

Given under my hand and the great seal of
day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty three, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-eighth.
By the Governor: A. G. CURTIN.
ELI SLIFER, Sec'y of the Commonwealth.

the mountains this Fall. We have seen a few sell ported for duty, are now in camp at Carlisle. They are in good spirits, and are well equipped.

Mercersburg and Greencastle Circuits (M. E. Church) was drafted, and the members of his congregation, declines, however, to receive the money as a gift, and prefers to consider it in part payment of next year's salary.

Aged Citizen.—MR. EMORY ELLIOTT, of Hamilton township, died at his residence on the 1st inst.
He was eighty-one years of age. He was, until Horses Stolen.—MR. JACOB SHANK, living in the vicinity of Canebrake, had a fine horse stolen out of his stable about two weeks since. We believe the horse has not yet been recovered.

A fine bay horse was stolen out of the stable of Mr. JER. GORPAX, one mile east of Shady Grove, on last Tuesday night.

It seems that this nefarious work still goes on.—
There must be more than one "JOE HOOKER" in the field.

Wedding.—The congregation assembled in the German Reformed Church, on Sabbath evening, the 25th ult., were somewhat surprised (agreeably however,) at the close of the services to witness a wedding in the church. MR. SAMUEL LEPT was thus publicly joined in marriage to Miss SARAH HAYD, daughter of Mr. JOSEPH HAYD. Rev. APPLE performed the ceremony. We wish the party a great amount of happiness, and hope their example may be speedily followed by many other young "lads and lasses" of this township. Let Hymen reign.

MAJ. C. G. GILBERT, (formerly acting Major-General and Corps commander in the Army of the Cumberland,) was in town one day last week. He is now Chief Provost Marshal of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Head-quarters at Philadelphia. He has seen much service—having belonged to the Regular army for a number of years. He graduated at West Point, and was afterwards an instructor there. He served with distinction in the Mexican War; and has taken a prominent part in the present war. He was wounded at Springfield, Mo., in 1861, at the time the lamented Lyon was killed.

Changed Hands.—The new Boot and Shoe Store carried on until lately by Mr. JOHN BART, has been sold to C. H. KESSEL & BRO. Mr. W.
F. KESSEL, who graduated at THE PILOT office has "turned up" one of the proprietors. This establishment has for some time done an extensive business. Under the new proprietors, every department will be kept complete. The latest styles of Boots and Shoes are always on hand. In making custom work, this firm are prepared to fill all orders upon the shortest notice. They have a half dozen or more of the best hands in their employ. The most fashionable and most durable will be found here.— Mr. G. A. BART, who is well known to this community, is Foreman of the shop. Mr. JOHN BART, the late proprietor, is also employed.

Call for Volunteers.—The President of the United States has issued a call for Three Hundred Thousand Volunteers. Time is given until the 5th of January, 1864, to fill up the number. If they are not raised by that time, a draft to fill up the deficit will then take place. A large bounty is offered by the Government to these volunteers; and we have no doubt it will be further increased by State and County bounties. Each county and each township even, should ascertain its quota, and try by liberal inducements and strenuous efforts, to obtain the required number. There are so many who object to drafting, who now will have an opportunity to enter the service by their free will and choice, or encourage others to do so. The ranks of our armies will then be filled, and we may look forward to a speedy termination of the war and consequent crushing of the rebellion.

Newspaper Law.—As there is certain definite laws in relation to the rights of publishers of newspapers, which do not seem to be understood, we will endeavor to make a plain synopsis of them and solicit attention thereto.

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter, (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for it: being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the post office—whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount whether it is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the post office. The law proceeds on the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
