GRONGE H. ASHTON, No. 832 Market st., Phila

Son Agent for Philadelphia. Read the following from the New York Courier : Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.-We are happy to inform our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothe-cary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as, pure as imported, and of the best quality We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizens to visit UDOLFHO WOLFE'S extensive ware-house, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver st., and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield st. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases-Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine. Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bot-ling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with the Brandies and Wines. His business mer the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness. Sept. 11, 1860-6m.
