

THE MINERS JOURNAL

Desire very dry weather, in the fall of the year... The Canal Commission have sent an Address to the House in reply to Gov. Rinnor's Message...

The Annual Report of the Schuylkill Navigation Company will be found in this paper... Public Schools.—We consider it high time that something was done in this district for the education of poor children...

The Canal Commission have sent an Address to the House in reply to Gov. Rinnor's Message... On the 7th inst Mr. Reed, of Philadelphia, presented a petition for an alteration in the Charter of the North American Coal Company...

It is true that beyond a certain point there will be no additional work in the Company... The quantity of coal obtained in 1853 was 157,741,330 quintals...

The editor of the United States Gazette in a favorable notice of our Water Company, remarks—Should additional aid be needed, there are doubtless many in this city who would eagerly subscribe...

It is now being satisfactorily and fully ascertained, that better locomotive engines are made in this country than in England... The Reading Chronicle, which heretofore was so loud in denunciation of the "Monster," and all "little Monsters," is out in favor of incorporating a new Bank in the Borough of Reading...

Several petitions have been presented to the Legislature, praying for a new county out of parts of Schuylkill, Dauphin and Northumberland... The Delaware-Gold Company have declared a dividend of five per cent. for the last six months...

Mr. Madison's View of War.—It is his man living whose opinions on questions of public policy are more entitled to the consideration of the American people than another... The following is an extract from a pamphlet of his published in 1795...

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Coal, Flour, Lard, and various other goods with their respective prices.

THE MINERS JOURNAL... Published weekly by the Proprietors, No. 10 North Second Street, Philadelphia.