SWAIM'S PANACEA.

COPY of a letter from William L. Hirst, Esq. Attorney at Law, No. 63 South Seventh st. Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, February, 1833.

Dear Sir,—Your "Panacea" has accomplished a cure so remarkable, that I feel bound to certify it. My brother Lucas about three years since, was afflicted with a severe attack of scrofula.—His head was completely covered with ulcers so thick and close that they grew one over the other; and his face and body were covered also with numerous sores, he was under the most judicial medical treatment for nine months, without the least amendment, growing worse daily, and every variety of remedy was used, according to the regular practice of medicine. It was upon a time when he was looked upon as incurable that I resolved to procure your "Panacea" for him. The effect was quite wonderful. Without any change of his customary diet, three bottles, and about one half of the fourth, restored him to perfect health. It is now two years since he was cured; he remains well and is as hearty and robust as any boy of his age in this city.

Yours respectfully,
W. L. HIRST.

Mr. Wm. Swaim.

The following letter from an eminent military character, will serve to show the estimate in which Swaim's Panacea is held in Europe.

Extract of a letter from Major General Pearson, of the British Army, to William Swaim.

BOULOGNE SUR MER, June, 1833.

My Dear Sir—You must attribute solely to the effects of indisposition, occasioned by an attack of Erysipelas, my not having sooner complied with your wishes of sending you an account of my general health, which I am assured, you will be gratified to learn is improving in every respect, even faster than my most sanguine friends could have anticipated.—My constitution received such a shock from severe wounds and exposure to different climates, most probably rendered me more susceptible to suffering, as in the case of my accident from my horse falling with me and crushing my leg, which had previously been injured by two severe gun-shot wounds, and I have no hesitation in saying that to the effects of your Panacea, in which I have every confidence, I may attribute my speedy restoration to health.—There are several people at Cheltenham anxiously inquiring after you, &c.

I cannot close this short letter without assuring you that few more fully appreciate the invaluable qualities of your inestimable Panacea than myself.

I remain, my dear sir, truly yours,
T. PEARSON.

To Mr. William Swaim, Proprietor of Swaim's Panacea, Morcley's Hotel, Trafalgar Square, London.

Swaim's Panacea.—In gratitude to my benefactors, as well as for the benefit of many suffering afflicted fellow beings in similar circumstances, I deem it a duty to certify, that I have been afflicted for about thirteen years with scrofulous ulcers, or what was called King's Evil. I had many tumours on different parts of my body, particularly on my neck, shoulders, side and knees, which broke out into ulcers and large holes; those in my neck and throat were so bad that it was with much difficulty I could swallow my food and drink, as it would frequently run out of the holes in my neck. I likewise had large holes or ulcers on my shoulders, knees and sides, with exfoliations of the bones, insomuch as I was unable to walk or do any thing whatever, and was confined to my bed the greater part of the time. I was obliged to be propped up in bed, as I could not lie, for fear of suffocation. I had a bad cough, and the sores or ulcers were very offensive. I was attended by several respectable physicians of Philadelphia, by one particularly for two years, and had at different times above forty blisters applied by their orders, and the tumours lanced; besides all of which I had tried many remedies made in imitation of Mr. Swaim's Panacea. I suffered much pain, with loss of sleep and rest, and was wore down to a mere skeleton. At length being recommended to put myself under the care of Mr. William Swaim, I was conveyed to him in a wagon, on a bed, in August, 1825, who at first refused to prescribe for me, as I suppose he considered mine a hopeless case, and asked if they had brought me there to die. I was conveyed home again—but through the interference of Doctor Mease, he was induced to make the experiment, by administering his Panacea, and after taking a tablespoonful three times a day, in a few days I perceived a very sensible alteration. My appetite began to mend; I could swallow with ease, the sores began to heal, and after using five bottles of his Panacea, with the blessing of Divine Providence, all the sores healed up, and I am now perfectly well, having grown more fleshy, can sleep and rest well, and can walk almost any distance, and attend to my work, as well as ever.
