

THE MINERS' JOURNAL.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY BENJAMIN MANNAN, OPPOSITE THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH, IN THE BOROUGH OF POTTSVILLE, SCHUYLKILL COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, AT TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

VOLUME 9.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 12, 1836.

NO. 17.

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION.
Two Dollars per annum, payable semi-annually in advance.
Advertisements not exceeding twelve lines, will be inserted three times for one dollar—twenty-five cents for every subsequent insertion; larger ones in proportion.
All letters, &c. addressed to the Editor on business connected with the establishment, must be post paid, or they will not be attended to.

AGENTS FOR THE MINERS' JOURNAL.
Philadelphia, Jonathan Coffee, Merchants Coffee House.
Reading, Samuel Ritter, P. M.

Notice.
The subscriber, grateful for past favors, respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has purchased a lot of ground of Mr. John Hughes, from which he has laid pipes into his Brewery for the purpose of obtaining a supply of fresh water, which will enable him to supply his former friends and all those who may favor him, with their custom.

Beer, Ale and Porter
by the barrel or half-barrel of the best quality at the shortest notice.

DAVID G. YUENGIANG.
Jan 9 7-8m

New Cheap Store.
JACOB BULL & SAMUEL LEWIS
Having purchased the entire interest of Henry and Robert Neigh, in the Store at the South West corner of Centre and Market streets in the borough of Pottsville, formerly known as and conducted under the firm of Neigh, Lewis & Co. respectfully inform their friends and the public generally that they intend continuing the business at the old stand under the firm of

JACOB BULL & CO.
where they will be happy to supply their friends and former customers with merchandise at the lowest rates.
They are now opening, in addition to their former stock, a large and extensive assortment of merchandise, consisting in part of Dry Goods, Groceries, Liquors, Wines, Teas, China, Glass, Queensware, &c. consisting of Clothes, cassimeres, sattinets, flannels, muslins, Jinos.
Canton flannels, gloves, stockings, yarns, prints, gingham.
Checks, tickings, silks, satins, shawls, handkerchiefs, velvets.
Merrins, circassians, vestings, laces, fringes, threads, cottons.
Lawn, wadding, blankets, coatings, Plaids, &c. &c.

GROCERIES.
Rio, Lapraris, St. Domingo Coffees.
St. Croix, New Orleans, Havana sugars.
Leaf and lump
New Orleans and Sugar House molasses.
Gun Powder, Young Hyson Soucheong
Pouchong and Bohea Teas.
Chocolates and spices, &c.
Brown and yellow soap.
Cloves, Mace, nutmegs and cassia.
Cayenne pepper, mustard
Box and keg raisins
Currants and rice
Cheese, codfish, mackerel and herring
Moulded dicit candles
Sack and bbl salt
Pipes and smoking tobacco
Spanish, half Spanish and common segars
LIQUORS & WINES.
Cogniac and common brandy
Holland and common gin
Old Irish whiskey and Jamaica spirits
New England rum and whiskey by the bbl
Ribbon, madeira, port and malaga wines
Assortment of Books and Shooe
Crochery, China and glass ware.
Glasses by the box.
Dupont Eagle gun powder, FFF, do.
Blasting OP, FF, FFF, do.

All of which will be disposed of cheap for cash, or in exchange for country produce at the market price.
Dec 19 5-1f

Gum Elastic Goods.
GENTLEMEN'S Gum Elastic Frock Coats,
do do do Pantaloon,
do do do Trowsers,
do do do Figured & Plain Shoes,
do do do Slippers,
do do do Over Shoes,
Ladies, Misses and Childrens Aprons,
do Furred and Fur Lined Shooes,
do and Childrens plain do
Water Bottles, &c. &c.
N. B. Gum Elastic Goods for Carriages, Gigs, Wagons, Curtains, Boots, &c. will be furnished to order.
Feb 6 12-

Rio Coffee, Molasses, Sugars, &c. &c.
60 BAGS new Crop Rio Coffee,
Sugarhouse, New Orleans (in Hhds) and Trinidad Molasses
New Orleans, Muscovado (in Hhds) and St. Croix Sugars (in Hhds).
20 Casks Premium Cheese,
Young Hyson and black Teas (in 1/2 & 3 chests).
16 half barrels Coffee.
30 boxes (Philadelphia) Soap, brown & yellow.
200 lb. dip candles, 8's 10's, and 16's.
50 half boxes Glass, 8 by 10 and 12.
Cognac Brandy and Gin in pipes and 3-pipes.
25 Eighteen gallon casks Lisbon wine.
New England Rum, Common Gin, Common Brandy.
Peppermint and Anisseed Cordials, in Bbla.
Salt, Fish and Plaster, &c. &c.
For sale by MILLER & HAGGERTY,
Centre St. next door to Mortimer's Hotel.
Pottsville, Jan. 9

GEOGRAPHICAL and Statistical Chart of Europe, describing the boundaries, extent, population, sovereigns, government, debt, revenue, army, &c. of its several countries at the present day.—Price 25 cents. Just received and for sale Dec 12 4-
by B. BANNAN.

WINDSOR CHAIRS.—A large and general assortment of Fancy Windsor Chairs.—For sale by JOSEPH WHITE & SON, June 7 29tf Mount Carbon.

Cheese.
SUPERIOR Dairy Cheese
Pine Apple do For sale by
Dec 19 4- N. NATHANS & Co.

A CARD.
John Silver
TAKES great pleasure in informing the public, that he has opened a REFECTORY, under the Pennsylvania Hall, in Pottsville. He hopes from his past reputation for keeping a respectable establishment, acquired during the experience of three years in the same line of business, and by desire to please and application to business, to merit a continuance of your favor and patronage.
Families, by sending to the Pennsylvania Hall Refectory, shall have oysters of a superior quality served up in the best style, and every other delicacy that the Pottsville market can afford in season.
BILL OF FARE.
Stewed Oysters per dozen 12c
Fried do do 15c
Roasted do do 18c
Venison Steaks 37c
Pepper Pot per bowl 15c
Pigs Feet 12c
Nov 28 4c 2-6m

PROCLAMATION.—Notice is hereby given that a Court of Common Pleas, for the trial of causes at issue, in and for the county of Schuylkill, will be held at Orwigsburg, in the county aforesaid, on Monday the 21st day of March next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.
Therefore all persons having claims and all persons who are liable to appear at said Court, will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.
Witness my hand and the Seal of said Court, this 27th day of February, 1836.
Sheriff's Office, Orwigsburg, Feb. 27, 1836. 15-4
Punctual attendance is demanded of the Jurors and Witnesses summoned to attend this Court.

TO CAPITALISTS.
Valuable Coal Lands for sale.
THE subscriber, assignee of BENNETT & WALTON, offers for sale, as a part of the estate assigned him in trust, two of the finest tracts of Coal Land, in Schuylkill county, having the incorporated town of Minersville thereon and containing the following celebrated veins of Coal, viz:—The Diamond, Kautner, Primrose, Phoenix, North and South Veins, with one or two more, all yielding the best quality of coal. Attached to these tracts is a landing at Schuylkill Haven, and they are traversed by the Wolf creek railroad, joining the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haven railroad on their margin. The coal already mined and carried from these lands, has been found of the best quality hitherto brought to Philadelphia, and they are believed to be equal in every facility of access to any tract in the County. For particulars, and a view of plans, apply to
JOHN J. WHITE,
Philad'a, Jan. 9

PORT CARBON
Saving Fund Society.
THE Port Carbon Saving Fund Society, is now open every day from 9 to 3 o'clock at the Office of Discount and Deposit, for the purpose of receiving deposits of any amount not exceeding $500, from any one person, upon which an interest of 4 per cent will be paid on every $5 and upwards, but no interest will be allowed on any fractional parts of $5. The whole or any part may be drawn out on giving notice, two to four weeks, at the office on Mondays. The business of the Society will be conducted by the following officers and managers, until the first Monday in May next.
President—AQUILA BOLTON,
Managers,
Abraham Heberer Edward B. Hubble
Edward Hughes E. S. Waryn
Jacob Bull Jesse Turner
L. Whitney, Secretary and Treasurer.
Article 3d of the Charter. "No emolument whatsoever shall be received by the President or Managers for their services, nor shall any Manager become a borrower from the institution."
oct 3 46tf

Furs! Furs!!
FASHIONABLE BOYS!
Muffs
Medicated Breast Furs
Fur Gloves
Fur Caps
Fur Collars for cloaks & coats
Just received and for sale by
Dec 12 4-1f N. NATHANS & Co.

TO WESTERN ADVENTURERS.
MITCHELL'S Travellers Guide throughout the United States.
Do. Pocket Maps of Ohio
Do. Do. Indiana
Do. Do. Illinois
Do. Do. Michigan
Also—Pocket Maps of Pennsylvania and other States
Just received and for sale at this office. sept 28

PERFUMERY.
B. BANNAN has just received on consignment, a large assortment of Perfumery, Cosmetic and Fancy Soaps, of the very best quality, which will be sold wholesale or retail, at a very small advance. The following Composes a portion of the articles:
Otto of Rose Soap
Oxygen do
Palm do
Cream do
Camphr do
Lavender do
Tonqua Bean do
French Fancy do
Otto Rose Shav. do
Sears Oil
Indian Oil & Dye
Milk of Roses
Freckle Wash
Fine Pearl Powder
June 18 30-

SUPERIOR GREEN & BLACK TEAS.
Gunpowder
Imperial
Young Hyson
Caper Soucheong
Pouchong and
Imperial Pecco
Extra quality and latest importations.
Just received and for sale by
April 18 22 T. J. BEATTY

Life of Gen. Harrison.
A Memoir of the public services of Gen. Wm. Henry Harrison, of Ohio, by James Hall, with a portrait of the gallant Commander, just received and for sale by
B. BANNAN.
Jan 30 11-

Private Sale.
The subscriber will sell at private sale, a valuable tract of land, containing 458 acres, situated on the Mahanoy Creek, in the Mahanoy Valley, Schuylkill county, about ten miles from Pottsville. Said land is well timbered with White Oak, Pine and Spruce. On said property is erected a two story Frame Dwelling House, occupied as a Tavern, and other out buildings, and a Saw-mill in complete running order. Said property will be sold in parcels of one or two hundred acres, if necessary.
Also a three story frame house in Pottsville, together with several Lots.
Terms easy. For further particulars, apply to
SAMUEL M. LYNN,
75 Vine St. Philadelphia.
JACOB K. BOYER,
Reading, or
BENJ. SPAYD, Esq.,
Pottsville.
U. S. Gazette, Philadelphia insert three times weekly, and charge E. Myer.

PROCLAMATION.
COMMON SCHOOLS.
WHEREAS, by an Act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, entitled an "Act to establish a General System of Education by Common Schools," passed April 1st A. D. 1834, it is provided that the City and County of Philadelphia, and every other city in this Commonwealth, shall each form a School Division, and that every township, ward and borough, within the several School Divisions, shall each form a School District. Provided, that any borough which is or may be connected with a township in the Assessment and collection of county rates and levies, shall with the said township, so long as it remains so connected, form a district, and each of said districts shall contain a competent number of Common Schools for the education of every child within the limits thereof, who shall apply either in person or by his or her parents, guardian, or next friend, for admission and instruction; and further, that the Sheriff of each county give notice by proclamation, that the citizens of each School District hold elections in their respective townships, wards and boroughs, at the places where they held their elections for Supervisors, Town Councils, and Constables, to choose two citizens of each School District, to serve as School Directors for said School Districts.
NOTICE is therefore hereby given, that the citizens of each School District in the county of Schuylkill, meet at their respective places of holding borough and township elections on the third Friday of March next, and then and there choose two citizens of each School District to serve as School Directors for said districts respectively, which said elections shall be conducted and held in the same manner as elections for supervisors and constables, are by law held and conducted.
Given under my hand at Orwigsburg, the 27th day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty six.
HENRY RAUSH, Sheriff.

Public Notice.
REUBEN CREITZ, of Tamaqua having made a general assignment of all his property, real, personal and mixed, to the subscribers, in trust for the benefit of his creditors, they hereby give notice to all persons indebted to the said Reuben Creitz in any way, to pay the same immediately, and those having demands against him to present the same to either of the subscribers. Assignees of the said Reuben Creitz, as aforesaid.
MICHAEL EVERET,
SAMUEL DE PUL,
Tamaqua, Jan 27, 1836. 13-2

New Flour and Feed Store.
T. & J. BEATTY & JOHN RUCH
HAVE succeeded Mr. Samuel Bellin in the Flour and Feed Store in Centre street, inform their friends and the public in general, that they intend conducting it under the firm of Beatty & Ruch, where they solicit a share of patronage. The highest price given in cash for Flour and Feed of all kinds.
Pottsville Feb 20 14-1f

In the Court of Common Pleas of Schuylkill County.
Susannah Wilken by her next friend Valentine Mellon, {Subpoena sur Di. v. Alexander Wilkes, }
vs. }
Alexander Wilkes, }
TO ALEXANDER WILKES.
TAKE Notice that your wife Susannah Wilken, has filed her Libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Schuylkill County, in which she prays to be divorced from the Bonds of Matrimony, into which she has entered into with you. The Court of said County have ordered that you be and appear at a Court of Common Pleas to be held in and for said county, at Orwigsburg, on Monday the 21st day of March, 1836, to answer the libel of your said wife.
HENRY RAUSH, Sheriff.
Feb. 13 13-6

In the Court of Common Pleas of Schuylkill County.
Julian Josephine Evely by her next friend Peter Glassmire, {Subpoena sur Di. v. Samuel Evely. }
vs. }
Samuel Evely. }
TO SAMUEL EVELY.
TAKE Notice that your wife Julian Josephine Evely, has filed her Libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Schuylkill County, in which she prays to be divorced from the Bonds of Matrimony, into which she has entered into with you. The Court of said County have ordered that you be and appear at a Court of Common Pleas, to be held in and for said county, at Orwigsburg, on Monday the 21st day of March, 1836, to answer the libel of your said wife.
HENRY RAUSH, Sheriff.
Feb. 13 13-6

GLENN'S COMPOUND KREOSOTE Tooth Wash.
THIS compound will be found serviceable in arresting and preventing decay in the teeth; keeping the teeth and gums in a clean and healthy condition, sweetening the breath, removing tartar, and relieving pain caused by carious teeth. It is confidently recommended to the Public as a valuable compound, which may be used daily with great advantage to the teeth and gums, at the same time, leaving an agreeable sensation in the mouth. There is no acid in this wash, nor any ingredient entering into its composition but such as is highly beneficial to the teeth.
Price 50 cents per Bottle.
For sale by
B. BANNAN.

ADVICE TO A YOUNG LADY.
A young lady at eighteen, often needs a warning voice to point out the quicksands over which she is speeding her thoughtless career. I hear you are beautiful and have many admirers. Be sorry for it. A young woman whose conduct is marked with strict border and principle, cannot have many admirers. There is nothing that more certainly marks a bad heart, and depraved moral principles, or worse, a thorough destitution of it than the cruel and guilty encouragement of honorable love.
A young man is never long attached to a young lady without her being aware of it; commonly, indeed, before he is himself aware of the nature and extent of his feelings. The knowledge is almost intuitive. From this moment, if she be persuaded that she cannot reciprocate his sentiments, her course in plain before her—it is cool, disinterested, unhesitating repulse, on every occasion, placing and filling—Love will die without hope. To crush love in the bud is easy; but to trifle and tamper with it till it has taken root in the heart, and its destruction is attended with the extinction of the heart's best and noblest feelings.
Never forget this prime maxim in these matters—'Do not discourage it always to encourage it.' Your choice, I will not, I would not wish. But I had rather hear that you are engaged to a man of good character and industrious habits, than to the wealthiest man without them; for in this country, these are always a sure pledge of final success.
A mean and culpable species of coquetry, is the practice of not giving decided encouragement, or repulse, with a view of keeping your love still you have learned (to use the calligrapher) you cannot do better. I know not an expression that betrays more despicable meanness. The woman who uses it shows a willingness to sell her hands to traffic her person for value received; that is revolting in the highest degree.
No one, not even a parent, can tell what character will render a lady happy, but herself—on herself she must exercise the most absolute dominion; and she must take the responsibility of her choice.
Ladies too often attempt to gain husbands, as a league of catch fish—by drawing the bait as she approaches it, till he is impelled to grasp at every hazard; but she who angles for a husband, may find her bait, that she has gained the man at the expense of the husband's confidence in her principles and heart.—Christian Register.

EMIGRATION.
The curling smoke ascends from chimneys rude,
Buil by the hardy settler in deep solitude,
Where howling wolves and ravenous bears of prey,
The wretched famer scarce can keep at bay.
A fine as all of land lying in the western skies,
With a rude breast work to prevent surprises—
These hardy sons of industry had reared,
A few log cabins, and some acres cleared;
Surrounded by the forest, with the above exception,
Spiced with savage visits, careless of protection.
Scarcely numbers seen to repeat their trade,
And if a foe appears, arising to their trusty aid.
THE ALARM.
The hour of midnight gives to each alarm
A groaning dread, however slight the harm;
For the sentry barks a coming stranger;
They quickly about, all to your post of danger!
His message is soon told. A day was dawning,
As he drew breath, he uttered the following warning:
That he had brethren, slaughter bent,
Had sworn destruction to each settlement.
'Fugite and conquer,' he with tears implored,
'Fleeing their track, lest they repeat their murderous foe.'
Sighing brave freedom to the rescue go,
Leaving but one to guard their friends;
Their smiling children, and their bosom's pride.

NATURE.
'Twas an autumn evening, and a gentle breeze
An undulating motion gave the stately trees;
Bright Sun was setting, and the illumined sky
Was brightly beaming with a golden light.
The yellow leaf glitters with shining gold,
And in the air new beauties do unfold;
The sighing forest with rich foliage drest,
Increased in splendor, as he sunk to rest.
The meadow that had witnessed the bright scene,
Met with their children on the verdant green,
Proud of their souls in prayer: No tribute greater,
Or more acceptable, to our Creator!

FOREBODING.
Retiring to their dwelling, as the forest shade
Darkens the early evening, enquiries are made
By children of their mothers. When will father come?
He will not, my dear, and leave us thus alone.
Perhaps ere this our names in death he gasps—
My feeble nature to my torments yield,
Oh heaven be thou his succor! thou our shield!
RESIGNATION.
Now resignation reigns, and daim her look,
As from a shell she brings a true worn boot,
The Holy Bible, blessed gift divine,
May she her heart ever in it receive shine.
Her fears are banished, though evil of'er her,
Her faith firm and centre'd in her maker,
The Bible, her shield, her refuge, her delight,
Which ever she reads, she feels her heart's delight.
Their seraph voices for their parents rose,
And filled with filial love, they seek repose.

DANGER.
The night is waning, and the sentry's tread
Affords relief to those whose souls are dead,
Too soon a verdict. Each bosom heaves
With stifled tremor, for the rushing leaves
In every tree, and rustles in the air,
In Indian files, to attack their peaceful haire.
The cracking rifle calls the brave to stand,
Champions of virtue, liberty and land.
With whom and yell the wide spread forest rings,
The brave and death's deadly hail brings;
But well they do their duty, sorely surrounded;
And pressed at every point, they stand surrounded;
Their faithful rifles deal promiscuous death
And faithful must crown their latest breath.
From every hamlet rises and seeks them,
Your all is now best with dangers;
The brand is kindling, and the savage,
The fruit of all your toil will ravage.
Your wives, imploring mercy, now are seen—
In the beams of the beating sun,
Destructive flames consume their precious lives;
And shouting fierce brandish their murderous knives;
Heart rending shrieks are answered with each yell—
Such scenes as these our border states can tell—
While glowing cinders fading from the hearth,
Add heartful anguish and increasing heat;
These helpless victims to a dreadful end,
Yet look for succor to their heavenly friend.

THE RESCUE.
The savages, still bent upon their prey,
Had engaged beyond the break of day,
And drunk with emulation eager blood,
Unmindful still of every thing but food.
In every tent, and round each fire, the buzz,
(Heart soothing sound, in trails such as these),
The hunter's rifle crack, the Indians yell,
For with that volley many a warrior fell.
The messengers of death, winged with unerring aim,
In death and destruction, raised their shout.
But few escaped—the whites to desperation driven,
No quarters 'er received, none now are given;
The smoking ruins their bosoms behold with pleasure,
As the sole relief of their heart's best treasure;
Their hair and hearts are lifted to their peak,
While yet they sorely feel his chastening rod.

THE APPEAL.
Up! Freedom up! no lot for the low,
For old and young, and old and young,
Protect the helpless, raise the captive,
In council firm, in battle active—
Show to the Creeks and Winnebagoes,
Your lives are pledged against all foes.
A cheer! a cheer! rise and seek them,
To Florida, march on to meet them;
Roll back the tide of Indian slaughter;
Speed well the work and never falter.
Until the crimson dawn of morning,
Be stout and heavenly voices beaming,
Then to the world, enroll in fame!
Your country will your deeds proclaim!
The smiling infant fairly leaping,
To sound your praises to the assisting,
In every land, in every mouth,
Your fame shall spread from North to South;
And gratefully that heavenly feature,
Shall beam in every living creature.
These are my patriots in the cause of peace,
Their hearts and hands are lifted to their peak,
Let vengeance in your arms be felt,
Until the Redmen yield the wampum belt!
Readers I give you time to breathe,
I'll wish you well, and take my leave.
J. M. CROSLAND.
Pottsville, March 2d, 1836.

ADVICE TO A YOUNG LADY.
A young lady at eighteen, often needs a warning voice to point out the quicksands over which she is speeding her thoughtless career. I hear you are beautiful and have many admirers. Be sorry for it. A young woman whose conduct is marked with strict border and principle, cannot have many admirers. There is nothing that more certainly marks a bad heart, and depraved moral principles, or worse, a thorough destitution of it than the cruel and guilty encouragement of honorable love.
A young man is never long attached to a young lady without her being aware of it; commonly, indeed, before he is himself aware of the nature and extent of his feelings. The knowledge is almost intuitive. From this moment, if she be persuaded that she cannot reciprocate his sentiments, her course in plain before her—it is cool, disinterested, unhesitating repulse, on every occasion, placing and filling—Love will die without hope. To crush love in the bud is easy; but to trifle and tamper with it till it has taken root in the heart, and its destruction is attended with the extinction of the heart's best and noblest feelings.
Never forget this prime maxim in these matters—'Do not discourage it always to encourage it.' Your choice, I will not, I would not wish. But I had rather hear that you are engaged to a man of good character and industrious habits, than to the wealthiest man without them; for in this country, these are always a sure pledge of final success.
A mean and culpable species of coquetry, is the practice of not giving decided encouragement, or repulse, with a view of keeping your love still you have learned (to use the calligrapher) you cannot do better. I know not an expression that betrays more despicable meanness. The woman who uses it shows a willingness to sell her hands to traffic her person for value received; that is revolting in the highest degree.
No one, not even a parent, can tell what character will render a lady happy, but herself—on herself she must exercise the most absolute dominion; and she must take the responsibility of her choice.
Ladies too often attempt to gain husbands, as a league of catch fish—by drawing the bait as she approaches it, till he is impelled to grasp at every hazard; but she who angles for a husband, may find her bait, that she has gained the man at the expense of the husband's confidence in her principles and heart.—Christian Register.

A CALAMITOUS.
"The course of true love never yet ran smooth," says Shakespeare, "and we have an instance of the truth of the line. A young foreigner, living in one of our most fashionable streets, lately conceived a violent passion for a pretty miss who attends a shop. In that beautiful thoroughfare he might have begun to offer his delicate with billows de. These were not the most classical things in the world, and failed to possess the damsel in favor of their author. Finally one of his amatory documents fell by chance into the hands of some of the subordinates of the establishment, who determined to extract some ludicrous circumstances out of the young man's condition. Accordingly one of his epistles was requested to favor his inamorata with an interview, at a certain hour in the evening. It was a bitter cold night, and as the despatcher swain, punctual to the moment, stood sighing like a furnace at the side of the dock with his hand on the bell, an upper window was slowly opened, and the unlooked for baptism of a brimming hail of water descended upon his head. His astonished features, as they emerged from the flood, wore the aspect of uncommon chagrin. That night, he gave up his chase, and on renewing it a few evenings after, the poor fellow was taken into a wood-shed by some of the servants, and painted in a most ridiculous manner. The extremes of his case were also abstracted; and altogether his lesson in the perplexities of the tender passion has been extremely severe. Falstaff scarcely suffered less in Windsor Forest.—Phil. Gazette.

THE OHIO CONVENTION.
Extract of a letter to the Wheeling Gazette, dated Columbia, Ohio, Feb. 23.
There were several incidents attending the convention worthy of notice, and among them is the introduction of the preamble and resolutions by J. H. Wood, an original Jackson man, on behalf of himself and 200 other Jackson men. They were received by the vast multitude with cordiality and applause that surpassed any thing of the kind I ever witnessed.
Another is the editor of a Georgian paper, of extensive circulation among the valuable portion of our citizens, a decided supporter of Van Buren, came to the convention here, struck with the character and numbers of those who had come to the convention, went to a meeting of the delegates from his county, and requested that his name might be enrolled among them, stating, at the same time, that he saw "the people were going en masse for Harrison—that it was in vain to resist their will—that from that time he should espouse the cause of Harrison."
And last, though not least, is the fact that at a party in the evening, after the adjournment of the convention, Gen. Lucas, in a speech of some length in answer to a sentiment of an elementary to him, came out decidedly for Harrison.
The number of delegates in attendance may safely be set down at 1400. When assembled in the public square—it was generally supposed that spectators and all amounted to 5,000. A wag observed there was just 4 acres of whigs, and that hereafter the whigs of Ohio would not be counted, but measured by acres.
A SCENE AT THE OHIO CONVENTION.
As Mr. Van Buren member of the Legislature, from Highland, entered his hotel on Saturday evening last, he recognized some dozen of his warmest supporters, of last fall, and fellow townsmen, seated by the fire.
'I am glad to see you, gentlemen,' said Mr. Van Buren, with his most conciliating bow. 'You have come up to see how the Whiggies make progress, eh?'
Mr. G.—(one of the company), 'Yes, we have come to attend the convention, & delegates.'
Mr. Van B.—'You are joking. You would be the last man to desert the old General.'
Mr. G.—'Most truly, sir, we have supported the old man through thick and thin, and at the expense of a little wear and tear of conscience, but the fact furnishes no ground for supposing we shall be sold to such followers as he pleases to designate.—We have accordingly been delegated here to express our wishes and those of our fellow-citizens in relation to the next presidency, and they are decidedly for Gen. Harrison.'
Mr. Van B.—'Umph! How many of you have gone over?'
Mr. G.—'None have gone over. There is only one name in Van Buren men in Highland, except the post masters. There is Dr. J.— is with us.'
Mr. Van B.—'You don't say so?'
Mr. G.—'And Major Y.'
Mr. Van B.—'Indeed!'
Mr. G.—'And Squire B.'
Mr. Van B.—'Is it possible!!!'
Mr. G.—'And Gen. A.'
Mr. Van B.—'The d—!'
Mr. G.—'And Mr. J. and Col. R.—, and I do not know how many, in fact the whole assembly. There is scarcely a Van Buren man to be found.'
Mr. Van B.—'Here landlord! landlord! when does the stage start for Billboro?'
Landlord.—'Just going.'
Mr. Van B.—'Give me my hat—I'll know what has happened in Highland before I sleep.'
The stage whirled off, and at the Van Buren delegate from Highland. He has not been at Columbus since.
Joseph Ritter.—The administration of this gentleman, who is the first western Governor, seems destined to be ranked as the most distinguished which we have ever had in the Commonwealth. It has so far manifested a true feeling and patriotic spirit towards all interests and all classes of society. The Relief Bill alone will immortalize the first year of his administration, as the Declaration of Independence did the 4th of July 1776.—Pittsburg Gazette.