Shocking Scene—Burning a Man.

St. Louis, April 29, 1836.

One of the most shocking and revolting transactions occurred in our city last evening about 9 o'clock, which has ever been witnessed in our country.

A colored man, belonging to one of the Steamboats, was taken in custody by the deputy sheriff, Mr. Hammond, and one of the constables named Mull, for some disorderly conduct.

A number of the citizens soon collected, and were so exasperated that they demanded the keys of the jail or they would demolish the house.

The Territory of Wisconsin has been organized, and Henry Dodge, appointed Governor.

Mr. Clay's Land Bill.—There is a decided majority in the House of Representatives in favor of this bill.

A New Strike.—A recently little beggar boy, passing over with his parents, rudely accosted a lady in the street, and insisted on having a slip.
