From this shock she had partially recovered and friends of the young lady were hopeful of her recovery. Yesterday she was in good spirits during the morning hours and until toward 4 o'clock in the afternoon when she suffered a second shock, from which she did not rally, and death came at 10:30 o'clock last night.

Her father, Edward L. Green, died several years ago and since that time Leah has been a source of great comfort to her mother and immediate family.
