A miniature city may yet spring up in the district around the Tioga silk mill, as a conference between Hoyt and Beaman, referees for the Athens and Sayre Real Estate Co., and Maynard & Son, representing Johnston and Allen, contractors.

It is said that the difficulties in the way of continuing the building, caused by the course of action of Mr. Biddle and the consequent complications with Johnston and Allen, sub-lessors, have been removed amicably, and things are expected to boom ahead now without further trouble.

OWNS A STREET CAR LINE.

Mrs. George H. Bogue of Denver Operates the Only Gravity System in the World.

Denver.—Only one woman in the world is sole owner of a street car line, and that woman is Mrs. George H. Bogue, of Denver. She is owner of the Cherrilyn line, a mile and a half in length, running south from the terminus of the South Broadway tramway line.

Mrs. Bogue's line to Cherrilyn is also a street car novelty, being the only gravity system in the world. To a certain extent it is a relic of the old horse car days in Denver, before the tramway invaded every nook and corner of the city. And yet it is an extension of street car service which the tramway does not cover, and a step in advance of any other horse car line in the world.

MRS. GEORGE H. BOGUE

The line runs from Englewood to South Broadway heights. On the uphill trip the motive power is a horse, which slowly ambles up the hill in about 15 minutes, patiently drawing the antiquated old car and its passengers, but seeming never to complain, for the pace is not necessarily fast. Jimmy O'Brien, of Scotch-Irish-Canadian extraction, is the driver—to all intents and purposes, so far as fidelity to the best interests of the line is concerned—he might as well carry the title of superintendent or general manager, for if he owned the line he could be no more faithful than he has shown himself for three years while working for Mrs. Bogue. Summer and winter, he is always on duty, and never misses a trip, passengers or no passengers.

There are three horses which take turns in doing the work of pulling the car up hill, and then have the fun of riding down, standing on the back platform and surveying the scene or viewing the mountains as the car swiftly glides down hill with as much complacency and dignity as could a major general.

Violent Motions.
"One of those deaf mutes is trying to strike the other," said a bystander, excitedly.

"No, he isn't," explained the policeman; "he talks with his hands, and is only using a little strong language."—Detroit Free Press.

Why Paint Turns White.
An explanation of the reason why paint and varnish look white after a heavy rainstorm has just been furnished. The moisture has inserted itself into the minute divisions of the paint, and thus gives it the whitish appearance.

Dickens' Invention.
The fire alarm box with the glass front, which may be quickly put into operation, but which may not be tampered with until the glass front is broken, was suggested by Charles Dickens, though few have ever heard of him in this connection.

Revival in Wales.
The proprietor of a traveling merry-go-round, whose route had been in Wales and who had gone into bankruptcy, informed the court that lack of patronage, due to religious revival, had caused his failure.

Faithful Dog.
A colie that had pursued its master's automobile 80 miles, unbeknownst to the driver, was found, exhausted, the other day, near Rainbow, a Cheshire (England) village.
