

REESER, KESSLER, WIELAND CO.
THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES
SAYRE, PA.
Store Closes Daily at 6 P. M. Except Saturday and Two Evenings After Pay Day.

As a matter of fact there is at least twice as much and more likely three times as much merchandise in this store as any other one store for a radius of 20 or more miles. Our purchases on many lines are pooled with 40 other just such stores as this, dealing in high-class, reputable merchandise. Goods well bought by experienced buyers makes shopping at this store a delight. Any price you pay, whether much or little, is right. Goods bought for cash, sold for cash and in great quantities makes lowest prices possible.

Garment Department

Second Floor
Our investment in this department would nearly stock some of the small stores hereabouts. But we are never satisfied, that's why we are having new stuff arrive, in fact almost every express train brings us something new to show to our customers.
We say, if you who live in Sayre will watch our large window display you will see several new numbers every day. These goods are bought right, weight and priced to your benefit.

Furs

Second Floor.

About one-half of our purchases are here to show, but at the proper time we will have, as already arranged with the leading manufacturers in the north west, a fine demonstration, when we will show you fur coats, wraps and take special orders, as well as show you a line only equalled in the very large cities. Day and date will be announced later. Enough to say this opening will be on the same scale as has been our opening of this store, our millinery openings, etc. Nothing done in a small way at the Big Store.

OH, WHAT A DOUBLE JUMP!

Alpha and Omega, whose leaping fifty feet through high and empty space on ordinary bicycles is the latest startling sensation, are announced to make their appearance here with the Frank A. Robbins Co. All New Great Feature Shows on Tuesday, Sept. 12.
None of our readers having seen this achievement, the following summary taken from a description in the New York Evening Journal, will be found of interest:
The bicycles used are of the ordinary safety pattern. Alpha and Omega start from a platform 45 feet from the ground. Before them lies, at an incline of 45 degrees, a board path, less than 4 feet wide and a hundred feet in length, which at the bottom ends in a sharp upward curve, directly in line with and separated by a break of some 50 feet from another platform 10 feet above the ground. A gentle shove from an attendant and they are off on a brief but fearsome journey. So speedily do they gather speed in their feet descent that they flash like a misty streak across the sight, and in the twinkling of an eye have reached the summit of the curve referred to, and they and their wheels soar upward and headlong high in air. The momentum decreases until they seem to hover in space, then the bicycles dive downward and land on the receiving platform, which their two wheels must strike at practically the same moment, as otherwise there would be a dreadful finish, then and there.

Splinter Caused Child's Death.

SUNOL, Sept. 11.—A splinter in his big toe caused the death of Claud Chamberlain, the two-year-old son of W. W. Chamberlain. The child was playing in his bare feet a few days ago, when, on stubbing his toe, he ran a splinter under the nail. Dr. J. Wells was called and the piece of redwood removed. The incident was thought no more of by the child's mother until the following day, when the boy complained of pains in his limbs. Again the physician was sent for, but blood poisoning had set in, and he was unable to save the child's life.

Four Persons Drowned.

DOVER, N. H., Sept. 11.—Four persons were drowned in the Cocheco river here as the result of two accidents. In each case one of the victims met death in trying to save another.
