Home From the West

Athens—A. E. Bressler just returned from a visit to his brother Will, in Avoca, Ark. He visited the battlefield of Pea Ridge and picked up a sutler's check, which bears the inscription: "Good for 25 cents in goods. 22nd Reg't Ind. Vols." He also has several bullets that he found. He brought home a fine live fox squirrel. Mr. Bressler says his brother is getting along nicely, and that he has an orchard of ten thousand fruit trees.

Beneficial to Veterans

Athens—The changes recommended by the National Encampment in the pension laws will provide for a pension of $12 per month for every soldier who served 90 days or more, without proving that his disabilities were of service origin, when they arrive at the age of 62 years, and a like amount to the widows who married the soldiers prior to June 27, 1890.

Transportation to Andersonville

Athens—We inform the comrades who desire to attend the dedication services of the Pennsylvania monuments at Andersonville and Vicksburg, that the time has been fixed for November 16, 1905. There are several from this section who will be entitled to free transportation and they will soon receive the necessary papers for that purpose.

Protection's Semi-Centennial

Athens—Protection hose company No. 1 will hold their fiftieth anniversary October 23, 1905, at which time they expect to have all the original surviving members present. Emmett Harder of Owego the first fireman of the company, will attend.

REMEMBER

One Week Only in Waverly.

Eight Carloads of Iron

Athens—Eight carloads of iron arrived in Athens Saturday night for the Athens plant of the American Bridge Works. They are getting things ready for business and soon we will see the old time activity when the wheels begin to hum.

The daily march to school is sure to be pretty hard on the shoes the girls and boys wear—so, too, the play-time before and after.

The shoes we have ready for trying on are durable. They'll wear just as you think shoes should wear—or better. Besides they won't pinch and hurt. They're right all the way through—leather, style and shape. With all that, the prices are right, too.

Boys, $1.15 to $2.25. Girls $1.15 to $1.75.
