GREATER OUTPUT OF CAR WHEEL WORKS

Cayuta Branch, National Car Wheel Co., to Increase Output and Become a Prominent Factor in the Company.

The Cayuta Branch of the National Car Wheel Co., the transfer of which was announced exclusively in yesterday's Record, will continue under the efficient management of W. T. Goodnow as heretofore. George F. Weising will continue as Superintendent of the Works and C. C. West in charge of the Sayre office of the Cayuta Branch.

Mr. Goodnow accorded a personal interview to a Record representative, in which he stated that the equipment of the wheel foundry department at Sayre will be materially increased. As a result, the output of this foundry will be greater by from 20 to 40 cast iron wheels a day, making the total daily output 160 wheels instead of 120 as at present.

The business of the steel-tired wheel department at Sayre is increasing rapidly. It is expected that this department will be running at its greatest capacity in a short time.

President James D. Rhodes of Pittsburgh and Vice President Wm. F. Bonnell of Cleveland of National Car Wheel Co., were in town and visited the Sayre plant yesterday. They expressed great pleasure at the highly efficient way in which the Cayuta Works are being run, and pronounced it one of the best equipped of the several plants owned by the company. Furthermore, they expressed their determination to make it one of the largest and most important of their plants in the way of output. This is most interesting news to Sayre readers, because it means the employment of more men and the bringing of more business into the valley.

SCHRIMP-FIELD

A very pretty September home wedding was that of Miss Rachel May Schrimp to Lewis Emory Field which occurred at the home of the bride's parents, No. 229 Spring street, at high noon today. The house was tastefully decorated with palms and asters. At exactly twelve o'clock Miss Anna Reeves started to play the wedding march, and the bridal procession came into the parlor, one corner of which was banked with palms, where the Rev. F. T. Cady of the Church of the Redeemer pronounced the ceremony.

The bride, blushing beautiful, was given away by her father, George W. Schrimp. She was attired in a gown of white lansdowne silk, with a train. The bridesmaid, Miss Clara Schoop, wore a dress of the same material. Max Lundrigan acted as best man. The ceremony was followed by a dainty wedding breakfast, after which the happy young couple, amid a shower of rice and old shoes, departed on their wedding tour. They will reside on Stevenson street, Sayre, and The Record voices the best wishes of a host of their friends.

ROCK RAISED RACKET

A resident of the east side saw his wife and another man making love in a neighbor's house and heaved a rock through the window, thereby badly scaring his daughter, who was entertaining a friend in another room last night. The girl went for Officer Vogel, who quickly quieted the racket without making any arrest. The irate husband ordered his daughter home and said he would sue for divorce.

BLUECOAT QUIETS DRUNK

A man who had too much celebration aboard caused a disturbance on a trolley car at ten o'clock last night. Officer Vogel boarded the car and the man and his noise subsided.

LATE VISITORS AT WRONG HOUSE

Entered Justice Gay's Domicile Early This Morning and Were Later Held For Appearance at Court.

Some late visitors at the home of Justice C. S. Gay, Desmond street, got into just the right house for trouble this morning at one o'clock. The members of the family were awakened by the noise of someone entering the front door. One of the girls asked him who he was and what he wanted, but all he would say was "Come down." The justice told him to get out, but he stayed in and said "Come down." Finally Mr. Gay threatened to get a gun and the intruder, who could be seen plainly in the lower hall, went out and joined two pals who were waiting on the walk. The justice dressed and went for an officer and found Officers Vogel and Lewis, who by some clever detective work soon found three men in the alley between Maple and Desmond streets. The three men were taken to Justice Gay's house and one of them was identified as the man who had been in the hall. They were then taken to the entomological institute.

This morning, the men secured the services of Attorney Winlack and were given a hearing. They entered a plea of "not guilty," waived further hearing and were held for court. Their names were given as Lawrence R. Bennett, Charles Allen and Henry Nixon.

SOLD OUT

Transactions Not For Money or Property, But For Souls—Separate Meetings Successful and Will Continue During the Week.

When it was first suggested to hold separate services for men and women for a whole week of the evangelistic campaign there was a question whether interest could be sustained, but yesterday's meetings proved the entire wisdom of the plan. There seems to be a freedom in such services which could hardly be secured in any other way. "Sold Out" was the evangelist's subject last night, and his text was "Thou hast sold thyself," and the sermon was one of the plainest, most practical talks of the series. There are transactions when no money changes hands and no bills of sale are given, and these determine the eternal welfare. Both services were well attended and there is a deepening interest.

A telephone has been installed in the building for the convenience of men who expect to be called during the evening. Tomorrow night Mr. Rees will speak upon "The Man Who Wins."

WENDEL-SMITH

Miss Mayme Wendel and Schuyler B. Smith were quietly married today. They left for Buffalo on No. 1, amid a shower of rice, old shoes and dolls.

Now get busy and see if there is not something you have around the house that somebody else might want. You'll never know whether anyone else wants that article unless you advertise the fact. Maybe you want to hire some help, or perhaps you want a situation. It may be a house you want to let or sell, or to lease or buy. There is such a thing that some other person might buy that goart now that your youngster has outgrown it—or you might be looking for a baby wagon yourself. And so it goes ad infinitum. The love of trade is strong in the hearts of most of us, and if you happen to be constituted like the great majority—get busy and improve the opportunity that is now offered.
