The gutter on Lockhart street bordering the Wheelock block was filled with gravel this morning.

The morning service at the Baptist church will be at usual hour. The pastor has chosen for his theme "The Heroism of a Christian Life."

Now is the time to buy your fall and winter clothing, boots and shoes. H. Sattler is going out of business. Every article is for sale at extremely low prices.

The intermediate and senior classes of the Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Church of Christ Sunday schools will hold a union service at the Tabernacle tomorrow noon. The primary classes will meet as usual.

PRODIGAL SONS COMING HOME

The Old Story Simply and Convincingly Told by Evangelist Rees Draws Many Young Men Homeward.

The last meeting in the series for men only was held in the tabernacle last evening. The subject of the address was "The Fast Young Man." The sermon was founded on the story of the prodigal which is recorded in the fifteenth chapter of Luke. Forcefully did the speaker draw the picture of the young man in the far country, forgetful of home but never forgotten at home, step by step going down from prodigality to want, from want to conviction of his sin, from return and confession to forgiveness and restoration by a loving, long-suffering father. So tender and strong and convincing was the appeal that many men in the audience who had been living the life of the prodigal came back to the Father in repentance and confession. This last meeting was in many respects the best of the series for men. It was well attended and the response of the listeners to the message revealed the fact that a mighty force was working upon the hearts of men, convicting of sin and moving to repentance.

The next men's meeting will be held at 3 o'clock on Sunday. The subject of the address will be "Reasons I Have Found in Sayre Why Men Are Not Christians."

PERSONAL PROPERTY RETURNS NOW DUE

The constables are very busily giving out the pink blanks for returns of property subject to taxation for 1906, which must be made out and returned within ten days of receipt, sworn or affirmed to before the assessor or any other person authorized to administer oaths. In default of such return the assessor is required to make out an estimated return of your taxable property, to which the county commissioners will add a penalty of fifty per cent, as provided by law.

The Assessors are required to make these returns, and are liable to a heavy fine in case of default. It is safe to guess that their estimates of personal property will not be any too low, and when 50 per cent fine is added the property owner will wish he had made out his own papers. The oath can be taken before any justice, and no fee can be charged for the administration.

TO MEET AT ROME

The Owego District Ministerial association of the M. E. church will be held Oct. 23 and 24 at the church in Rome, of which Rev. R. E. D. Cavanaugh is pastor. Among those who will participate in the program are J. F. Warner of Sayre and W. G. Simpson of Athens. Mrs. W. G. Simpson and Mrs. J. F. Warner will discuss woman's home missionary work.

TABERNACLE SERVICES

Sunday services at the Tabernacle will be held as follows:
6:30 a. m.—Sunrise prayer meeting.

12 m.—Union Sunday school.
3:00 p. m.—Men's Mass meeting; subject, "The Reasons I have found in Sayre why men are not Christians."
7:30 p. m.—Union Evangelical service.

GIRLS INSULTED BY YOUNG MEN

According to a story told by Evangelist Rees last night, there are some young fellows in Sayre who need to take a brace before some justly indignant man administrators to them a deserved thrashing. He said that girls had told him that they could not go by a certain corner in the evening without having some fellow speak to them and try to pick them up. If this is the case, something should be done to correct the evil. Our sisters and our mothers are too good to be insulted in this fashion.

NEW YORK COUPLE WANTS TO MARRY

A couple from Rochester, N. Y., appeared before Justice Murray Wednesday and wanted to be married. They were disconsolate when told that the necessary license could not be procured that day, but they will come back to Sayre tomorrow and have the knot tied.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Traut Officer Arntz started on his rounds today.

Enrollment of all schools of the borough to date is 1205.

Have you seen the improvements in the superintendent's office.

Eula Cowel, '05, has entered the Elmira college. Laura Murray, '01, has resumed her studies at the same institution.

On account of the crowded condition of the east side building the fourth grade pupils have been transferred to the new building.

Wesley DeLancy, '00, a student at Cornell, visited the high school Wednesday and witnessed the football game between the senior-junior and sophomore freshman teams. A tie of 5 resulted. The attendance by high school students was good.

Friday morning when the high school student assembled the greater part of the freshmen found their books on the rostrum wrapped in the piano cover. They had considerable trouble finding their own. The perpetrators of the deed are not known.

The certificates of honor awarded to pupils by the county superintendent for being neither tardy nor absent last year have been received and are ready for distribution. The list comprises 129 names. The following is the honor roll for the high school: Orran Pritchard, Robt. and Harry Wilcox, Jas. Ryman, Howard S. and Lester Irvine, May Watkins, Florence and Ada Trainer, Cecil and Vivian Shumway, Lulu Shoop, Millie Richar, Rebecca Pecking, Mildred Loomis, Florence Lane, Inez Keller, Edith Jones, Edna Hutchinson, Genevieve Geiss, Anna Enolser, Rose Dugan, Grace Connor, May Bailey.

TWO CHUBBY CHILDREN

A crowd was called to the railroad station to see a fat boy and his sister, equally fat and much shorter, this noon. The mother of the children was with them, a slim little woman who does not weigh nearly as much as her 7 year old daughter. The boy weighed 215 pounds and could not climb up the car steps.

FIRST MOVANHO DANCE DRAWS LARGE CROWDS

The first of a series of hops for which the Movanho Club has engaged the Packer band to furnish music occurred last night. About 200 people were present, and all pronounced the dance most enjoyable. The next hop will be given next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Loomis of Troy, Pa., en route to Syracuse, spent a part of the day with relatives in this place and Athens. They were pleasant callers at the Valley Record office.
