Took Carbolic Acid?

Athens—There was a case of domestic infelicity yesterday on North Elmira street that excited the inhabitants for a time, and rumors of poisoning and suicide floated in the air. The lord of the domicile was displeased about the removal sale of their property and threatened to make way with himself. Soon after the spouse heard an ominous noise that sounded like uncorking a bottle and when she went into the room she found the carbolic acid bottle empty and the man writhing in contortions. He said he had taken the contents of the bottle. A physician was summoned who applied a stomach pump and extracted his dinner and some liquid, and the man still lives. If he swallowed that carbolic acid he must be fireproof, as the stomach, as well as the mouth and throat were but little affected.

Death of Mrs. Watkins

Athens—Mrs. Louise Watkins died at her home, 211 North street, about 7 o'clock last evening of heart disease, aged 53 years. She is survived by her father, Thomas Wood of Sheshequin, one brother, Myron Wood of Orwell, and two sisters, Mrs. Geo. Myers of Waverly, and Mrs. Brown of Austin. The remains were taken to the home of her sister in Waverly where the funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment at Waverly.

Wins $5,000 Damage Suit.

Hon. L. T. Hoyt received a telephone message from Towanda at noon today stating that a verdict had been rendered in favor of Mrs. Carrie Chandler of $5,000 against the L. V. R. R. company for damages in the death of her husband George Chandler, who was killed at the Milltown crossing in Aug. 1903. This is a great victory for Mr. Hoyt for he has conducted the matter in such a manner as to shut out the defense from any appeal in the case.

Decanting Wines.

A deposit will often form in the bottles, making it necessary to decant them into other bottles. The utmost care should be taken not to disturb the sediment. In large wine cellars in Europe and in the cellars of hotels and clubs employing a cellarman, a decanting apparatus is used. Decanting old wine is a delicate operation which requires much care. The bottle should be carried in a horizontal position and gently lifting it to a slanting position, insert a "power corker" and remove the cork without shaking. Then raise the bottle so that you can see through the wine by candlelight and, in drawing it off, stop as soon as the cloud or deposit in the bottle gets to the neck. In this way you avoid having any deposit, cloud or crust flowing into the decanter.—American Wine Press.

Barber Wanted Talk.

"Now say something," said the barber to the customer if his chair whose beard he had just finished trimming. "What's that?" said the astonished customer. "That'll do," said the polite barber. Naturally, the customer had been sitting with his mouth closed, and what the barber wanted was to see him with his mouth open, so that he could detect any stray projecting hair ends of the moustache that he might have overlooked in trimming it.—N. Y. Sun.

Fish in China Canals.

The canals which form a network throughout a great part of China abound in fish. The rice fields, which are irrigated with the water from these canals, make ideal hatching places for them.

TRADE CONDITIONS. R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Business Report. NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Current trade shows a distinct gain in comparison with the same time last year, crop reports are reassuring, and evidences of continued activity are noted in almost every department of industry. A wholesome growth, without the threatening danger of reckless inflation of prices, is a commercial condition greatly to be desired, and these elements are recorded in the majority of dispatches. Fall trade is now well under way, especially encouraging results being achieved in dry goods, millinery, footwear and all lines of wearing apparel, while mercantile payments are unusually prompt for the season. There is a steady consumption of groceries and other staple articles of food, and in furniture, crockery and numerous household utensils the distribution is vigorous. Manufacturing plants in the leading industries receive large orders, a heavy tonnage of iron and steel business being placed and machinery houses making very cheerful reports; footwear shops have ample business in sight; textile mills are busy, although new contracts come forward more slowly; flour mills and sawmills have enlarged production, and the fuel markets reflect the stimulus of active factories. A little damage was done by floods in the southwest, but weather conditions are favorable on the whole. As grain comes to market more freely, there is difficulty in starting freight blockades, and railway earnings thus far available for September exceed last year's by 2.5 per cent. Commercial failures for the week in the United States are 298, against 194 last week, 180 the preceding week and 226 the corresponding week last year. Failures in Canada number 34, against 29 last week, 23 the preceding week and 30 last year. Of failures this week in the United States 70 were in the east, 40 south, 76 west and 20 in the Pacific states, and 71 report liabilities of $5,000 or more. MISS ROOSEVELT AT SEOUL. Prince Yi Gave Garden Party in Her Honor. SEOUL, Sept. 23.—Prince Yi, the emperor's cousin, was host at an open air garden party given at the old East palace in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt. All officials of note of Korea were present. The wooded paths and colored pavilions were decorated with American and Korean flags. Prince Yi toasted President Roosevelt, while Minister Morgan toasted the emperor of Korea. Later Miss Roosevelt was present at a gathering under the auspices of Korean Christian women missionaries. A Korean Bible and a prayer book were given to Miss Roosevelt. From the chapel the assemblage proceeded to a garden party given in honor of Miss Roosevelt and her party by American missionaries in Korean districts. All denominations were present, being in attendance at the annual conferences at Seoul. In the courtyard of the American legation performances were given by Korean military musicians and dancing girls. Father's Trials. The parlor haritone and the dining-room jaker are two of the tribulations that a man with a marriageable daughter has to stand for. Wide Margin of Doubt. "They paid him a big salary, didn't they?"
