WRECKED AT PAOLI

Pennsylvania Express Telescopes Private Car.

FIVE DEAD AND MANY INJURED.

Force of Impact So Great That Engine of Limited Plowed Ten Feet into Coach on Local Train With Fatal Results.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—A rear end collision between the eastbound New York limited express from St. Louis and a local passenger train which was standing at the Paoli station of the Pennsylvania railroad, nineteen miles west of this city, resulted in the death of five men and the injuring of more than twenty others.

The dead are: Frank A. Brastow, Haverford, general agent at Philadelphia of the Safety Car Heating and Lighting company and a distant relative by marriage of W. W. Atterbury, general manager of the Pennsylvania railroad; George M. Pennypacker, Philadelphia, foreman of car inspectors in the West Philadelphia yards; S. S. Walton, Altoona, Pa., steam heat inspector at the Altoona shops of the Pennsylvania railroad; Richard Y. Garland, Narberth, a suburb of this city, general foreman of West Philadelphia shop of the Pennsylvania railroad; and Carl Dunbar, a railroad employee.

Among the injured are the following: Mrs. J. H. Voorhees, Haverford, Pa.; Mrs. A. C. Riegler, New York; Miss E. K. Spangler, Merchantville, N. J.; Mrs. Clinton B. Fisk, New York; O. Miltz, St. Louis; John Ford, Jersey City; J. Travis, Montclair, N. J.; Mrs. Lamotte, St. Louis; C. O. Demost, eight-year-old boy, St. Louis; D. E. Bolt, Dayton, O.; J. A. Fialine, M. C. Radfield, Jersey City; D. M. Ryan, Philadelphia, master mechanic in railroad shops; and M. F. Elliott, Philadelphia.

All those who met death were in the private car of General Manager Atterbury, which was attached to the rear of the local train. Mr. Atterbury is on his vacation in Maine. He expected to return about Oct. 1 and his car had been overhauled preparatory to sending it to Maine to bring him home. It was sent out in the forenoon for a test run and was attached to a local train from Paoli for this city. In the car at the time of the collision were about a dozen who had been engaged in overhauling the car. Those who were not killed were injured.

Paoli is the terminus of the Pennsylvania railroad's suburban traffic on the main line and a large yard is located there for the storage of cars and engines. The local train was made up in the yard on the north side of the railroad and switched across to the eastbound track No. 1 on the south side and came to a stop at the station. Before the switches could be set the New York limited came along at moderate speed on the No. 2 eastbound track, took the cross over switch and crashed into the local train.

The force of the collision was so great that the engine of the limited plowed ten feet into the private car, and the latter was forced halfway through the day coach ahead. At the time of the accident there were less than a half dozen passengers in the local train and they were in the forward cars which were not damaged. The engineer and fireman of the limited were not hurt, but a dozen persons on this train were injured by being thrown against seats and the sides of the cars.

Four of those who lost their lives were killed almost instantly. The fifth man, Richard Garland, died in the University hospital in this city.

Clinton B. Fisk Missing. NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Clinton B. Fisk, a well known newspaper man of this city, is missing. He left his home, 16 Central Park West, at 9:30 a. m. Saturday to go to a store near by and has not been seen since. A general alarm for him was sent out from police headquarters. Mrs. Fisk, the wife of the missing man, arrived from Europe by the St. Paul on Saturday afternoon and was expecting to be met by her husband on the pier. Some of his friends believe that he may have lost his memory.

Editor's Sudden Death. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Rev. Dr. W. W. McKinney, for sixteen years editor of the Presbyterian and also pastor of the Chambers Memorial Presbyterian church at Rutledge, Pa., near this city, died suddenly here from heart disease. Dr. McKinney was sixty-eight years old. He had attended the sessions of the general Presbyterian assemblies for a number of years.

Man Wanted Man Arrested. KINGSTON, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Michael Liano, alias Frank Sansone, said to be wanted by the police of many cities, was arrested here last night charged with assaulting and robbing John Rico of $500 at Hartford, Conn. His home is at Clintondale, Ulster county.

A Congress on Oceanography. WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The department of state has received a note from the French charge d'affaires inviting this government to a congress on oceanography which is to be held at Marseilles, France, in connection with the colonial exposition in that city in 1906.

Population of Utah is 63,648. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The actual population of Utah on June 1, 1905, as announced by the Secretary of State O'Brien, according to the state enumeration, was 63,648.

IS HE GIRARD?

Schoharie Police Capture Man Answering to His Description.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 26.—A man supposed to be Joseph Girard, the New York teamster suspected of murdering pretty Augusta Pfeiffer in a lovely part of the Bronx borough, New York city, ten days ago, was arrested at Central Bridge, Schoharie county, and is now in jail at Schoharie awaiting positive identification.

This man, who answers to the descriptions of Girard sent broadcast throughout the state, has been in this vicinity since Friday, and the police of Albany and Schoharie counties have been hunting for him.

He had been seen at East Berne and at Altamont. About 11 o'clock, in the morning he appeared near the railway station at Central Bridge. Baggage Master John Holbrook seized and held him until Village Constable Jay Cooper arrived, when the suspect was put under arrest.

He made no resistance and seemed worn out. When captured the man, it is said, immediately inquired if he was wanted for murder and when asked why he put such a question is reported to have replied, "Oh, that's what they generally arrest hoodlums for."

His finger was bandaged, and he accounted for this by saying that he had been bitten by a horse. Girard's landlady had told the New York police that he told her a similar story about a wounded finger to which she called attention. Another significant fact connected with the suspect is that on him was found a harness buckle such as a teamster might be likely to carry. The man would give no name and said only that he had been working for a neighboring farmer. This farmer, it is said, denies ever having seen the man.

FIREWORKS FACTORY IN RUINS.

Explosion at Greenpoint Killed Antonio Spelzo and Injured Four.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—By the explosion of a large quantity of powder the fireworks factory of Antonio Spelzo at Greenpoint has been totally destroyed. Spelzo's sixteen-year-old son, Antonio, was instantly killed and his wife and two younger boys and a workman were seriously injured. The explosion shook buildings within a radius of a mile, and for a time it was believed that many persons had been killed. All the members of the Spelzo family worked in the factory, a small frame structure in an open lot, in which they turned out saluting bombs for use in Italian festivals. This involved the use of much black powder, quantities of which were scattered over the work benches.

Joseph Spelzo, the proprietor, was absent, the police being in charge of his eldest son, Manuel, who escaped unhurt when an alarm was raised by one of the younger boys that an explosion was imminent. What caused the explosion could not be learned. The loss on the building and stock was about $3,000.

Alaskan Trade Increasing.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Brigadier General Greeley, chief signal officer of the army, has just completed a thorough inspection of the Alaskan telegraph system. The tremendous increase in commercial business handled by the lines gives an indication of the growing importance of Alaskan trade. In the past two months telegraph tolls on commercial business have amounted to more than $32,000, while the cost of government business on the lines during this time exceeded $20,000. Many thousand code words were transmitted during the fifteen months the wireless system in Alaska has been in operation without a single error.

Chelsea Methodist Church Burned.

CHELSEA, Mass., Sept. 26.—The Mount Bellingham Methodist Episcopal church of this city, the fiftieth anniversary of which was to have been observed next Wednesday, was destroyed by fire last night. The tall steeple fell, crushing in the roof and injuring a number of firemen. The most seriously hurt were Chief Engineer Harvey A. Spencer and Ladderman John Crocker. The fire, which was caused by spontaneous combustion, started in a closet room and spread rapidly throughout the wooden structure. The church cost $30,000.

Clew in Suit Case Murder.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—The police here are confident that within a few hours they will be on the right trail of the murderers of the young woman whose mutilated torso was found in a dress suit case floating near the Winthrop Yacht clubhouse in the harbor. It is believed by the police that they have found the owner of the green suit case, but they refuse to make known the man's name until he has positively identified it.

Wreck on Southern Road.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 26.—An Alabama and Great Southern northbound train collided with the Blocton accommodation of the Louisville and Nashville last night at Woodstock Crossing. H. H. Marbury, conductor, was killed and sixteen white men and eleven negroes were injured.

Mrs. Roosevelt at Harvard.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—Mrs. Roosevelt visited Harvard for the purpose of inspecting the rooms engaged for Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., at Claverly hall. Theodore will enter Harvard this week with the incoming freshman class.

Admiral Kehler Ill. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Admiral Kehler is too ill to attend the special communication of the supreme council, Scottish Rite Masons, now being held here.

EQUITABLE'S CAFE.

Morton Does Not Favor Insurance Restaurant.

SCHIFF TO GO ON STAND TOMORROW

Committee's Counsel Getting Evidence to Combat McCall's Testimony in Regard to Attorney Andrew Hamilton.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, has given out a statement with respect to the criticisms of the relations existing between the Equitable and the Cafe Savarin, as follows: "There is nothing new or sensational about the Cafe Savarin and Lawyers' club affair. There has been no change in its relation to the Equitable society, which now owns and operates it. I do not like the idea of the society being in the restaurant business, but it is a condition I found, and we will have to continue in the business until I can make other arrangements."

Since George W. Perkins took the stand and told the story, step by step, of his rise from office boy to first vice president in the New York Life Insurance company those who listened to his interesting description of events which had taken place in the last twenty-six years have been reading everything they can about his career.

Mr. Perkins did not mention that he started life as a clerk in a grocery store in Cleveland, O., but such is the case. It was while there that he received the famous letter from his father which, he told the committee, had guided him through life and in which he was offered a position as clerk to his father in the New York Life at a salary of $25 a month. Twenty-three years later he was first vice president of the company and his salary was $75,000 a year.

The legislative investigating committee will undoubtedly call Jacob H. Schiff to the stand tomorrow on the continuation of its inquiry into the Hyde and associates and the Equitable.

He will testify as to James H. Hyde and associate deals. Counsel for the committee are devoting most of their attention to gathering evidence which, it is expected, may prove that John A. McCall, president of the New York Life, could not have been ignorant of the work of Attorney Andrew Hamilton in looking after insurance legislation not only in New York and Albany, but in several of the New England states.

It is said that Charles E. Hughes, chief counsel for the committee, will have within the jurisdiction of the legislative body a man who will testify to having knowledge of Hamilton's movements among the general agents of Connecticut, Massachusetts and Vermont, where money was collected for the purpose of influencing legislation in those states.

After Western Life Company. CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Preliminary investigation into the Western Life Insurance company by the attorney general of Illinois with a view to bringing quo warranto proceedings has been made. Assistant Attorney General W. H. Boyce came to Chicago and was in consultation with Attorney Walter D. Hawk, who complained to the department last week. Mr. Hawk is attorney for the Moorey estate of Laketon, Ind., which, it is claimed, holds a $4,000 policy against the Western Life. When presented for payment one of the officers, it is alleged, tendered a check for more than $900 for payment of the claim.

Fire Held Up Traffic.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Sept. 26.—The 400 foot railroad trestle over Barnett's creek, one mile east of Pine Park, was destroyed by fire, seriously delaying traffic on the Atlantic coast line. The dry cypress posts of which the bridge was built ignited from the sparks of a passing engine. The fire burned five hours. Passengers and mail on the east and west bound trains were transferred by a footbridge over the creek. A temporary bridge will be finished tomorrow.

Wrote "Black Hand" Letters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—A charged with writing "Black Hand" letters to her own father, Nettie Nussbaum, fifteen years old, was arrested here on the complaint of R. E. Sannwaldt. She was taken to police headquarters, where, after much questioning she broke down, wept and confessed that she had written a "Black Hand" letter to Mr. Sannwaldt, one to Mrs. Sannwaldt and also to her own father.

Asiatic Cholera in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 26.—It is officially reported that since Sept. 14 there have only been twenty-seven cases of Asiatic cholera in the entire empire, seventeen of which proved fatal. All these cases were in Russian Poland—twenty-one in the government of Lomza, three in Lodz and three in Wloclawek.

A National Park For Utah.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 26.—President Roosevelt has signed an executive order creating the Dixie forest reserve in Utah. The new reserve embraces 465,000 acres in Washington and Iron counties, in the southwestern part of Utah.

New Orleans Printing House Burned.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—Fire has gutted the four story printing house of Waile & Co., limited, at 525 Gravier street. The fire started in the fourth story, where about fifty girls were employed. They escaped. The loss is $85,000.

KUROKI.

James H. Keene's Colt Wins First Half of Produce Stakes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—James H. Keene's Kuroki, the 1 to 2 favorite, easily won the first half of the $25,000 Produce stakes, the feature of the opening at Brighton Beach, defeating Bell-snickie by two lengths, with Inquisitor third. The Produce stakes has a gross value of $25,000 and is run in two parts, the first for colts and geldings and the second for fillies.

The class of colts opposed to Kuroki were only four, and the Keene colt, who is now rounding into his best form, was made a 1 to 2 favorite, with Bell-snickie, an added starter, and Accontant second choices at 6 to 1, while 13 and 25 to 1 was laid against the other starters.

At the start Lync sent Benevalent to the front followed by Bell-snickie and Kuroki. The Keene colt moved up into second place at the far turn and at the turn into the stretch he took the lead and won easily.

C. E. Durnell's Israelite, backed from 7 to 5 to 9 to 10, and carrying 110 pounds, easily won the third race, equalling the record for one mile and a sixteenth by covering the distance in 1:14 3/5. Summaries:

First Race—Dremer, first; Klameisa, second; Zeala, third. Second Race—Bouffre, first; Gansvoort, second; Ruth's Rattler, third. Third Race—Israelite, first; Rubic, second; Canteen, third. Fourth Race—Kuroki, first; Bell-snickie, second; Inquisitor, third. Fifth Race—Don Royal, first; Eugenia Birch, second; Monsieur Beaucaire, third. Sixth Race—Birbery, first; Content, second; Mahogany, third.

Mountain Climbs Was Fatal. SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Charles Fenton, eighty years old, died on White Face mountain while attempting to ascend to the summit. Fenton was a pioneer hotel man of the Adirondacks. With his young wife, who is about thirty years of age, Fenton started up the mountain, but after ascending two miles from its base he stumbled and fell exhausted. He and his wife were alone at the time. Mrs. Fenton hurried down the mountain side again to its base, where she sent out a summons for help. Without waiting for this assistance to come she climbed back to where her husband had fallen and found him dead. Mr. Fenton was president of the Fenton Game Preserve association, controlling a park of 45,000 acres.

RUSSIAN FREEDOM?

Zemstvos Meet Under Strict Official Supervision.

ALL PRESS REPORTS TO BE CENSORED

Majority of Delegates Declared That It Was Necessary to Participate in the Douma to Obtain Liberty and Equality.

MOSCOW, Sept. 26.—The congress of representatives of the zemstvos and municipalities in the interior of Russia and of the Polish Lithuanian provinces has opened here at the residence of Prince Tcherbatoff under the presidency of Count Heyden, one of the marshals of the nobility who represented the petition drawn up by the last all Russian zemstvo congress to the emperor.

A representative of General Durnovo, governor general of Moscow, was present with instructions to stop the meeting if the conditions under which the delegates were permitted to assemble should be violated.

These conditions provided that the sittings should not be public, that the president should not allow any departure from the subjects mentioned in the programme and that the speaker should not be permitted to say anything that might cause racial excitement. Representatives of the press, however, were allowed to attend, but the accounts in the Russian papers will be censored.

The congress discussed a resolution calling for the organization of a general zemstvo bureau and declaring that the representatives of the zemstvos in the cities should participate actively in the gosudarstvennaya douma (the lower house of the national assembly), organizing there in a united majority for the protection of their own interests and for the furtherance of their work in the cause of liberty.

Only two speakers were in favor of boycotting the douma, a majority of the delegates declaring that it was necessary to participate in its struggle with the bureaucracy and to exact in the name of the people liberty and equality.

Carlton's Crimes.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Frederick E. Carlton, upon whom Inspector Cross and his detectives sought to fasten the crime of murdering one of his wives, had an experience of Brooklyn justice in the county court that will probably take a prominent place in the history of criminal procedure. In the course of a few hours Carlton was put through the ordeal of three trials on charges of bigamy and grand larceny, each proceeding being conducted with an expedition that would stagger a lightning Jersey justice. He was convicted on the first charge of bigamy. Later he stopped the second trial and pleaded guilty. Immediately after his plea was taken he was put on trial for grand larceny. A third bigamy indictment was allowed to lay over.
