COAL BARONS GETTING READY FOR A STRIKE

A number of the coal dealers throughout the state and all who ship from various points have received word from the offices of the large coal companies that they must send in their orders for winter supplies at once and that they must take turn of the mine coal or the coal that comes out from day to day in the sizes and qualities desired. No coal will be sold from the hugh stores which the companies have been accumulating at various points in the anthracite region and near Philadelphia and New York. As similar orders were issued in 1900 and 1902 it is the opinion of dealers that the companies are husbanding their stored coal in anticipation of trouble in the mine regions next year.

PLEASANT PARTY

A very pleasant card party was given by J. Perry Schaffner, in honor of a visiting brother, last night. About 30 young people attended. The prizes were won by Miss May Lull and Clarence Parker, the consolations going to Miss Mabel Corbin and S. Louis Diggs. After the play, delicious refreshments were served.

PURELY PERSONAL

C. P. Collins of Rochester is visiting friends in town.

Charles Foyle of Washington is greeting old friends about town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Field have returned after their wedding tour.

Mrs. Michael Conway and daughter, of Wilkesbarre, are in town.

John Hammond is entertaining his son, Arthur, and wife of Jersey Shore.

Edward Johnson of Hornbrook is visiting his sister, Mrs. G. F. Beloud.

Stephen E. Fisher returned this morning after visiting his brother at Long Branch.

Miss Jessie Hakes, who has been at C. A. Childs for some time, has returned to her home in Evergreen.

The Misses Mary and Leona Gulligan of Binghamton attended the Galligan-McCloskey wedding this noon.

Lou D. MacWethy, representative of the Inland Type Foundry's Buffalo branch, was calling on the trade in this valley today.

Mrs. Nellie Gebel and Miss Kate Keuna of Wilkesbarre are among the out of town guests at the Galligan-McCloskey wedding today.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Conway, Mr. and Mrs. William Conway, and the Misses Susie and Margaret Conway of Wilkesbarre are visiting Sayre friends.

A. P. Blossier of Buffalo, traveling passenger agent for the Michigan Central railroad, was in Sayre this morning making contracts with the newspapers for advertising his well known road. A good sized order was left with The Record.

"CAPTAIN DEBONNAIRE"

Paul Gilmore, in character of a 17th century daredevil who sweeps down all odds, some of them mountain high, to win the woman he loves, is what will be offered patrons of the Loomis on Saturday, September 30, when this talented young star is presented here for the first time by Jules Murry in the new spectacular comedy romance, "Captain Debonnaire." As this play is described as possessing all the force and vitality of Mr. Gilmore's great early successes, "Under the Red Robe" and "The Three Musketeers," and as being far more potent in charm, its enactment here is sure to prove of such interest none will care to miss it.

ADDITIONAL ATHENS NEWS

Ed Davidson of Elmira was visiting Athens friends today.

Philip Verbeck died at his home in Vawter this morning at about 5 o'clock, aged 66 years. He was one of the oldest settlers in that vicinity. He served in the war of the Rebellion in Co. D, 17th P. C. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

A sub station of the Athens postoffice will be established at D. E. McMahan's store, corner North Maine and Pine street, October 16, 1905, where stamps and money orders can be purchased and letters can be registered the same as at the postoffice.

Warrants are in the hands of Constable McGovern for the arrest of the boys Woodward and Quinn, whose names were mentioned in this connection in Monday's Record. The warrant charges them with fishing on Sunday. The boys have not as yet been arrested.

Charles W. Ross of Philadelphia is spending a few days at the home of his grandfather, James H. Wilson, Center street. Mr. Ross is on his way home from Chicago where he has been attending the twentieth annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew at the University of Chicago.

GALLIGAN--M'CLOSKEY

A beautiful church wedding was that of Miss Sadie V. McCloskey, daughter of Cornelius T. McCloskey of North River street, to John Galligan of Oneonta, N. Y., son of John Galligan of Sayre.

The event was celebrated at high noon today, at the Church of the Epiphany. The Rev. J. L. Shanley officiated. Miss Margaret Collins of Rochester was bridesmaid and Charles Foyle of Washington was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, after which they left for Buffalo on their honeymoon. They will reside in Sayre. Mr. and Mrs. Galligan are well known in Sayre, as is evidenced by the many beautiful presents which were showered upon them.

Among those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Conway, Mr. and Mrs. William Conway, the Misses Margaret and Susie Conway, Miss Kate McKenna, Mrs. Nellie Gebel and Mrs. Michael Conway and daughter, all of Wilkesbarre; C. P. Collins of Rochester; the Misses Mary and Leona Gulligan of Binghamton, Miss Margaret Collins of Rochester and Charles Foyle of Washington.

WHY SAYRE WOMEN ARE NOT CHRISTIANS

The service for women yesterday afternoon at the tabernacle was largely attended, fully eight hundred being present. The subject of the address was: "The Reasons I Have Found Why Sayre Women Are Not Christians." The address was a strong presentation of the things that are keeping women from serving Christ.

The evening address was from the theme: "The Call of Jesus," the text being from John 11:28, "the Master is come and calleth for thee." It was one of the best sermons that has yet been delivered by the evangelist. Some responded to the call by deciding to become christians.

There was no service held this afternoon as the day was devoted to personal work by the christian workers. The service will be held as usual tonight.

HAGENBECK'S PARADE TOOK THE TOWN

The Hagenbeck parade this forenoon called out every man, woman and child who was not tied or nailed down, and it was well worth while. The animals were all there, from the polar bear to the zebra and the chimpanzee. The two bands knew how to play, and the steam calliope was the real steam whistle affair, with its own engine.

TOWANDA FAIR GETS GOOD CROWD

A number of Sayre people have been attending the fair at Towanda this week and they all report a record-breaking exhibit and big crowds. The public wedding was the attraction today. The big day, however, will be tomorrow and many will go from here.

FALLING BOARD INJURES HOSTLER

William VanVliet, head hostler at the engine house, was struck on the head by a coal board which fell from an engine this morning. The board inflicted a cut three inches long on VanVliet's head. Medical attention was necessary to close the wound.

COTTAGE PRAYER MEETINGS

Cottage prayer meetings were held at two o'clock this afternoon at the homes of Mrs. F. F. Haverly, 214 Chestnut street, Mrs. Gray, 109 Vanderbilt street and Mrs. Earl Nichols, 114 Keystone avenue. A good attendance is reported.
