HYDE WAS NOT THERE

Missing Guest at Winthrop-Babcock Wedding.

EX-OFFICIAL WHY OF SUBPOENA.

His Counsel Writes Mr. Hughes That Client, if Protected, Will Appear at Insurance Investigation Next Week.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—James Hazen Hyde did not act as an usher at the wedding of Henry Rogers Winthrop to Miss Alice Babcock at Roslyn, N. Y. The former vice president of the Equitable was expected to be one of the chief guests, as he has long been an intimate friend of the bridegroom and was the means of giving to him the position he now holds as financial secretary of the Equitable.

There was much surprise among the large gathering at the Stow mansion, where the marriage was celebrated, when the news got about that Mr. Hyde was not only not present, but had no idea of entering the state.

The uninitiated looked for the arrival of the young man at any moment, and a process server with a subpoena said to have been issued by the insurance investigating committee was equally solicitous.

The wedding ceremony was celebrated at noon, and at about the same hour Mr. Hyde and Harry Lehr were on their way to Boston from Newport in an automobile. They were bound for the Hotel Touraine and expect to return by night to Newport, where Mr. Hyde has been staying for a month.

When Charles E. Hughes was asked regarding the alleged intention of the committee to serve Mr. Hyde with a subpoena he replied that he knew very little about the details of subpoena serving and added that he believed Mr. Hyde would appear.

One of Mr. Hyde's friends said, "Mr. Hyde has no idea of entering this state at present."

The impression prevails in this city and at Newport that the young man is gradually disposing of much of his personal and real property preparatory to leaving the country for an indefinite period. He has expressed his desire to make his home in Paris in the future, as there is little to hold him here since he severed his official connection with the society his father founded.

It is said that Mr. Hyde has sold his country estate on Long Island and his city estate. Now it is said he is about to sell his valuable collection of paintings.

Samuel Untermyer, counsel for James H. Hyde, has given out for publication a letter addressed by him to Charles E. Hughes of the insurance investigating committee, and is in part as follows:

"Referring to your request that Mr. Hyde voluntarily appear as a witness before the joint committee appointed by the defunct legislature of 1905 to investigate the affairs of life insurance companies, I have advised Mr. Hyde that your committee is without power or jurisdiction to make the investigation in which you are engaged.

"You have no doubt observed that the resolution authorizing the investigation directs that the committee shall after the adjournment of the extraordinary session at which it was passed and after the body of which it is a part has ceased to exist proceed with the investigation for the purpose of reporting to the next session of the legislature."

"My opinion is based on the proposition that the assembly at least has no power to direct an investigation (1) to be held after its adjournment and (2) for the express purpose of reporting to a future legislature not yet selected and which can have no existence until 1906.

"In statements made before your committee Mr. Hyde has been grossly misrepresented and injured in the public esteem for his supposed connection with transactions for which he is not responsible except for having trusted too much to older and more experienced men.

"He is not willing to repeat that experience now in another form before your committee. He is prepared to waive all legal objections to appearing and to tell your committee fully and frankly everything he knows except as to matters that are embraced in pending litigation on condition that your committee will in common fairness accord him the right of being represented, advised and re-examined by counsel.

"If therefore Mr. Hyde may have the benefit of counsel at the hearing and on your assurance that his examination will not include the subject matter of the pending suits he will appear for examination at any time next week that may be fixed by you."

GOMEZ AT NEW YORK.

Said to Be on Secret Mission to the United States.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—General Jose Miguel Gomez of Cuba, who is the governor of Santa Clara province and leader of the Liberal party of Cuba, arrived here last night on the steamer Monterey. General Gomez was accompanied by O. Ferrara, a lawyer of Havana.

General Gomez, who recently resigned as the Liberal candidate for the presidency of Cuba in opposition to President Palma, when interviewed through an interpreter said that he was here for a short rest and would return to Cuba in two weeks. He had no plans, he said, and did not expect to see President Roosevelt.

General Gomez was told that it was reported that he came on a mission to ask American intervention in Cuban politics, and to this he replied with an emphatic "No."

"Will the Liberal party continue to be a factor in Cuban politics?" the general was asked, and he replied: "I do not know. Last Sunday, after I sailed from Havana, the national convention of the party was held, and at that meeting it was to be determined what the future of the party was to be."

It was the gossip on the ship even before she sailed from Havana that General Gomez was on a secret mission and that he would call upon President Roosevelt before he returned to Cuba.

The daughter-in-law of President Palma of Cuba, who was a Miss Jacobs of this city, was a passenger on the Monterey. Mrs. Palma comes to visit her family.

A PERSONAL MATTER.

President Mitchell Has an Interview With Roosevelt by Appointment.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, had an interview with President Roosevelt by appointment. He remained with the president about half an hour. At the conclusion of his interview Mr. Mitchell said he had come to Washington to see the president and at the latter's invitation, but of his own volition, to talk with him about a personal matter.

Pressed for information as to the nature of his mission, he said that he had urged the president to appoint Louis Hammerling, editor of the official organ of the United Mine Workers, as collector of internal revenue for the Scranton (Pa.) district. He declined to indicate whether the appointment would be made or not. Hammerling is opposed by some members of the Pennsylvania congressional delegation.

"I did not discuss with the president the labor situation in the anthracite fields," said Mr. Mitchell. "My business with him was purely on this personal matter."

In response to other inquiries Mr. Mitchell said that he did not know whether the coal operators had large stores of surplus coal on hand or not, as he had made no investigation along that line. He said also that he had made no inquiry as to a strike of the miners resulting from the enforcement of the child labor law in the Pennsylvania coal mines.

Pat Crowe, Kidnaped, Caught.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 4.—The identification of Pat Crowe, arrested at Butte, Mont., on a charge of kidnaping the son of the millionaire packer, Edward Cudaby, in 1900, has been made complete through photographs sent to the authorities by the Omaha office. The original information filed against Crowe charging him with highway robbery in having forced Edward A. Cudaby to pay $25,000 ransom for his son's return will be used against the prisoner, although he is being returned to Nebraska on a charge of shooting Officer Jackson.

Antwerp Couple Held at Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—Upon information furnished by the German government through the local German consul, Commissioner of Immigration George B. Billings caused the detention of Wilhelm Strauss and a Miss Marks, both of whom arrived here on the Red Star line steamer Marquette from Antwerp. Strauss is alleged to be identical with one Julius Elkans, who is charged with absconding from Germany with $100,000 of trust funds. The authorities here are inclined to the belief that the case is one of mistaken identity.

Mr. White was sixty-eight years old. Early in the morning he left home with his son to spend the day in the woods hunting. They had gone about three miles when the elder man complained of being tired and then sank to the ground and died.

Veteran Horseman Dead.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Henry Kelder, one of the oldest horsemen in New York state, died of heart failure last night, aged sixty-eight years. CHINESE BOYCOTT

Cabinet Discusses Relations With Celestial Empire.

INJUSTICE DOSE WORTHY CHINAMEN

Secretary Taft, Fresh From Orient, Took a Leading Part—Excision Laws Not Rightly Interpreted by Consular Officers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The chief subject discussed at the cabinet meeting was first the Chinese boycott against American goods, and second, the consideration of complaints made by the Chinese against the method of execution of the existing Chinese exclusion laws.

The important fact developed was that the president's effort last summer to allay the indignation of the Chinese by a circular of instructions to the American minister to China and consular officers therein had in a measure failed of its purpose and required considerable amendment to secure the object sought.

Minister Rockhill himself reported that it had not been found possible to carry out the instructions contained in the circular without doing great injustice to worthy Chinese and imposing burdens too heavy to be borne upon the American consuls.

Being freshly back from the orient, Secretary Taft took a prominent part in the discussion of this matter when it was broached by Secretary Root and presented some of the results of his observations on his recent trip. It developed that the requirement that American consuls identify the Chinese seeking certificates admitting them to American ports imposed a task upon these officers beyond their ability. The Chinese applicant frequently came from some place far distant from the American consulate, and the consul was consequently obliged to refuse to identify as proper persons to be admitted to the United States many worthy Chinese, which of course led to bitter complaint and fostered the boycott feeling.

Then a Chinese merchant who desired to send his son as a shop assistant to his branch store in the United States with a view to ultimately admitting the son to partnership found that the boy was barred on the charge that he was a coolie, Chinese living in the British and French and Portuguese Asiatic colonies, being really citizens of those nations, but not being they could not be admitted to America under proper passports instead of being required to produce the unpopular certificate. These were only a few of the complaints made against the administration of the existing exclusion law. The trend of opinion in the cabinet meeting was that these complaints after all were directed rather against the construction placed upon the law than against the act itself and especially against the definition given in California to the term "coolie," so it was practically decided that some important changes in the present regulations must be made. The session with the first regular meeting of the cabinet held for some months, and it was one of the longest held during the administration of President Roosevelt. It was attended by all of the members of the cabinet except Secretary Shaw, who is absent from the city, and Secretary Metcalf, who is ill. It was the first cabinet meeting for Secretary Bonaparte of the navy and the first as secretary of state for Mr. Root.

"All I did," said the former jocularly, "was to listen."

Secretary Root spent some time with the president at the White House last night, when they had a general discussion of matters pertaining to the state department.

It is understood that an exchange of memoranda on the subject of Venezuelan affairs has already occurred between the state department and the French embassy, covering probably the main points touched on at the conference between Secretary Root and Ambassador Jusserand.

BOWEN MAKES REPLY

Late Secretary Hay Quoted by Ex-Minister to Venezuela.

ROOSEVELT OFFERED HIM PROMOTION

"Every One Who Knew Mr. Hay Knows That He Could Not Possibly Have Been a Friend to a Man Like Mr. Loomis."

WOODSTOCK, Conn., Oct. 4.—Herbert W. Bowen, former American minister to Venezuela, has issued the following statement:

"In answer to the letters that were exchanged recently by President Roosevelt and Mr. Loomis in regard to Mr. Hay and published in the newspapers I have to say only this:

"After I had sent to Washington all of the documents which I found in the legation at Caracas relating to Mr. Loomis I received a letter from Mr. Hay stating, 'I have been greatly surprised and pained in reading the documents you sent me.' The following month he wrote me a letter containing these friendly words, 'I have always taken your part not only from personal liking, but from a conviction of your merits, your ability, your courage and your integrity.'"

"From a high official of the department of state I received a letter written this last April stating, 'Secretary Hay remains your staunch friend.' From the same high official I have in my possession a letter dated July 8, 1905, eighteen days after I was dismissed from the diplomatic service by President Roosevelt, stating, 'I had a few words with Mr. Hay the day before he left Washington for New Hampshire, and he spoke of Mr. Bowen in the same kindly and affectionate manner he always did.'"

"Every one who knew Mr. Hay knows that he could not possibly have been a friend to a man like Mr. Loomis and that no power on earth could have induced him to denounce as a traitor an American official who refused to shield corruption."

"In conclusion in order to show President Roosevelt's attitude toward Mr. Loomis I will simply quote my last remark to him and his to me in the presence of witnesses the day he dismissed me: 'Mr. President, you will remember that after I sent to you all the information I had about Mr. Loomis you offered me a promotion that was intended to lead to an ambassadorship. Well, he answered, 'I would have done a great deal to bush up the scandal.'"

More Riots at Brno.

Almost the whole garrison had to be called out to restore order, the rioters having continued the disturbances in the suburbs after being driven from the city. Many persons were injured, and some of the windows in the Jewish synagogue were smashed. Strong patrols have been placed at all the prominent German buildings for their protection during the night.

Say G. A. Kimmel is Alive.

Selter, who was employed by the Truscott Boat Manufacturing company with their exhibit, bought a revolver and called Bain to see it. Great excitement followed the shooting.
