LOANS AT LOW RATES

President McCall Again Before Armstrong Committee.

REBATE NETTED HAMILTON $90,000

Insurance Chiefs Got Money For Private Use at 11-2 and 2 Per Cent. Many Bills Blackmail-Legis-Intors Given Graft.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.- That John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, borrowed $50,000 from the New York Life Insurance company at 11/2 per cent interest, a rate below the market rate, was brought out in the insurance investigation last week.

President John A. McCall of the New York Life Insurance company, has now testified that he in turn borrowed $75,000 from the Metropolitan at the same rate. This was in January. 1903. The loan was renewed in January, 1904, and ran until March, 1905, when the rate of interest was advanced to 2 per cent, at which rate it is translated into English. still running.

Mr. McCall testified that he was a director of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, but not a stockholder. The fact of his being a director, Mr McCall continued, did not deter him from procuring a loan at as low a rate of interest as possible when it was to his interest to do so.

Mr. McCall admitted when interro gated by Mr. Hughes that former Judge Andrew Hamilton and other lawyers were hired by the life insurance company for the especial purpose of using their influence to defeat bills which, in the opinion of the different companies, might injure their interests. The most pertinent question put to Mr. McCall by Mr. Hughes

"Isn't it a fact that Judge Hamilton was expected to deal with men in the legislature who produce the best re sults?

Mr. McCall leaned back in the witness chair, smiled and then laughed. "That is perfectly true."

Somewhat of a sensation was caused at the session of the legislative com mittee which is investigating the methods of life insurance companies when Neil F. Towner of Albany was called to the stand and disclaimed any knowl edge of the whereabouts of canceled checks of Judge Andrew Hamilton of Albany. Mr. Towner testified that he was associated with Judge Hamilton in the practice of law in Albany. The Hamilton account was again under investigation, and Mr. McCall had been excused for a few minutes while Mr. Towner took the stand.

Mr. Towner testified that he bad had had no occasion to look at them whole matter has happened." again until last week, when he received the subpoens to appear before the committee. He was asked to bring these checks with him, but when he looked for them they were gone. He had no knowledge, he declared, of where they could have gone or who could have taken them. Pressed by Mr. Hughes, he said almost anybody had access to the drawer in which the checks were placed.

Mr. McCall, resuming, was asked about a deposit to the credit of Judge Hamilton of $162,041.67 on Sept. 1, 1905. Mr. McCall said the New York Life Insurance company had paid Mr. Hamilton no money, but suggested that part of it might have come from the state comptroller's office by reason of an assignment of tax moneys which would come to the judge by reason of his securing the repeal of the tax law which relieved the New York Life from payment of taxes. Judge Hamilton was to have one-third of the amount that would rebate to the company a sum of $272,703, netting Mr. Hamilton about $90,000

It developed that the New York Life had acquired by foreclosure an apartment house in one of the most desirable residential sections of this city, and the cost, with the improvements deemed necessary, was $203,056. The net income from this property was found to be .023 per cent on the investment. Among the improvements was the throwing of two apartments into one of nine rooms with two baths. These were rented for $1,500 and $1,800 a family of President McCall, three sons and a son-in-law. Mr. Devlin was asked who fixed the rental of these properties, and he said he discussed the matter with Mr. McCail.

Mr. McCall enlivened the proceedings further when he said that there was no record on the books of the New York Life Insurance company of the $150, 000 paid the Republican national committee for contributions to presidential campaigns. While he had no personal knowledge that the money was paid, he assumed it was, because he had told the treasurer to make these payments. Mr. McCall in detailing the general legislation work of Judge Hamilton and the counsel he employed denied any knowledge of the legislative pool which was disclosed in the examination of Alfred W. Maine, auditor of the ers. Equitable Life Assurance society, last week. Mr. McCall on this question made the startling assertion that three quarters of the bills affecting life in surance companies were in the nature of blackmail. The officers of the comnles were worried at the beginning of each year, he said, by the proposal

BUNKO, SAYS FARMER

Frank L. Rogers and D. K. Tripp Jailed at Bridgeport.

Wealthy Stratford Man Claims He Was Given Worthless Mining Securities and Bogus Notes. Trapped by Sheriff.

BRIDGEPORT, Coan., Oct. 5.-Charged with swindling Henry G. Wheeler, a wealthy farmer of Stratford, out of $17,000, Attorney Frank L. Rodgers of this city and D. K. Tripp, a New York business man, are locked up at police beadquarters in default of bail of $10,000 in each case. A warrant was issued last night for the arrest of William B. Sutphen of New York, said to be Tripp's business partner. Sutphen is alleged to have had a hand in the operations which Mr. Wheeler says cost him over $17,000.

Mr. Wheeler says that Rodgers and Tripp have given him a bundle of worthless mining securities in return for his indorsement of checks and that, together with several large sums of borrowed money for which he received bogus notes, he has parted with the sum named. A complaint was made to the prosecuting attorney, and Deputy Sheriff Stagg of Stratford devised scheme to catch the men.

Stagg made an offer to Rodgers to the effect that he would agree to cash some of the checks indorsed by Mr. Wheeler if he should be paid generous fees, asking $100 to cash one check and $300 for another. They agreed, and the deputy notified Rodgers that he would meet him in the sheriff's office, where he would cash the checks.

Rodgers and Tripp appeared at the courthouse at the appointed time, and awaiting them in the sheriff's office was Mr. Wheeler. Both men seemed surprised when told that they had been accused by Mr. Wheeler of swindling him and denied the charge. The warrants, which had been drawn previous ly, were served, however, and Rodgers and Tripp were put in jail.

Bail at first was fixed at $5,000, but State Attorney Fessenden on hearing the details of the case ordered th amount of ball to be raised to $10,000 which had not been secured up to late hour last night.

Attorney Rodgers lives in Fairfield but conducts a law office in this city The case has created considerable ex citement here on account of the promi nence of the prisoners.

Rate Supervision.

TOWNSEND TALKS WITH ROOSEVELT

Author of Esch-Townsend Bill Said That Senate Committee Would Prepare and Report a Railway Tariff Measure

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 .- 'President' Roosevelt is dead in earnest on the subject of railroad rate legislation and is just as determined as ever that legis Zuna, backed from 10 to 1 to 5 to 1, lative regulations shall be enacted looking to federal supervision of the freight rate situation."

This statement was made by Representative Townsend of Michigan, or of the authors of the so called Esch Townsend railroad rate bill, which passed the house of representatives after a conference with President Roosevelt. The conference was the most interesting and important lately held at the White House. The president has taken up the subject of railroad freight rates with an earnest desire to reach such a conclusion as will be satisfactory generally, but he adheres to the principle embodied in the legislation proposed at the last session of congress Representative Townsend called to talk over the general subject with the president and of the necessity of making changes in the measure which he president and of the necessity of makand Mr. Esch propose.

Mr. Esch notified the president that he could not be here at this time, but that Mr. Townsend did not have opwith the president.

"I have no authority to represent the president's views as to railroad rates," that he entertains now the same views in principle as he expressed in his message last December. He believes that to either the interstate commerce commission or to some other body ought to be given the authority to adjust to be given the authority to adjust rates found to be unreasonable. The Curtain Corners crux of the whole matter is not that the commission should fix rates, but that it should have the power to substitute a reasonable rate for one found on investigation to be unjust. Without such authority the evils complained of could not be reached."

Mr. Townsend said it was expected that the senate committee on interstate commerce would prepare and report a measure to regulate freight
