What Would You Do?

If you were in our place, would you not feel that the best way to get the best price going, on any article, to put through your store, would be to pay Spot Cash? If you wanted to buy an article of ware, a piano, a suit of clothes, a farm wagon, or no matter what article, have you not always found it unmistakably to your advantage to pay Spot Cash? Many credit store's losses are in excess of what their earnings honorably ought to be. An honest merchant will tell you so. They cannot sell at prices and give you values that we or any cash buying and cash selling house can.

Petitions Against Franchise Athens—Petitions are being circulated asking the borough council not to pass the Athens, Sayre and South Waverly Railway franchise over the veto of Burgess Macafee. There seems to be a wide spread feeling among our citizens that the burgess has given good reasons for vetoing the bill and that no farther action should be taken until the sentiments of the business community shall be learned.

An Honorable Record

Athens—While in Denver recently a reception was given to the Pennsylvania comrades one evening by the resident citizens of that city from the Keystone state, and we had the pleasure of a quiet conversation with Judge Torrence of Minneapolis, who was acquainted with Hon. O. D. Kinney and Col. C. H. Graves, recently appointed minister to Sweden and who took with him a bride from Athens Judge Torrence was enthusiastic over the high personal qualities and accomplishments of Colonel Graves and of his splendid soldier record. The United States now occupies such a high place in the family of the world's great powers that its representatives are accorded the most exalted positions in diplomatic circles, and when the ambassador to foreign courts can carry with him the record of heroic service in the army for freedom, such a record enhances the dignity and splendor of other gifts. Such qualifications Col. Graves possesses, and we are informed that when things were mentioned to President Roosevelt by the member of congress who interested himself in the colonel's appointment the president began at once to cast over in his mind what honor he could bestow upon him. Col. Graves, although surrounded by the splendors of the royal court, has not forgotten his old comrades and has sent a letter to his G. A. R. post in Duluth in which he describes a friend he has met in that far off land who was an American soldier and fought in the 5th N. Y. Vols. and has since distinguished himself in his own land. This interesting letter was read in the U. V. L. meeting yesterday afternoon.

Society Honors Society Athens—The Ladies' Missionary society of the M. E. church gave a reception to the Ladies' Missionary society of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at the M. E. church which was well attended. There was a most delightful fraternal greeting in which the beneloxent objects of the societies were discussed, and the program throughout was well intended to foster a more systematic method of the work. Addresses were made by Mrs. Leon Lane, Mrs. Carey and others. After the business was transacted refreshments were served, and at the close all felt that they had been very highly entertained and benefited.

Enjoyable Legion Meeting

Athens—The meeting of Encampment No. 28, U. V. L., yesterday afternoon was a very enjoyable one. Comrade D. W. Tripp made a report of the proceedings of the national encampment at Wilmington, which he attended as a delegate, and a letter was read from Col. Graves, our U. S. Consul at Stockholm, Sweden. One new member, Wilson Murphy of Rome, was mustered into the camp.

Tickets Going Fast

How Is Your Wheat?

Two men were disputing over their respective churches. Finally one called a neighbor who was passing and asked his opinion as to which was the only church in which to be saved. "Well," said he, "my son and I have hauled wheat to the same mill high on to 40 years. Now, there are two roads that lead from our place to the mill—one's the valley road, 't'other takes over the hill. And never yet, friends, has the miller asked me which road I took, but he always asks: 'Is your wheat good?'" —Kansas City Journal.

Facts in the Case.

"I suppose," said the new parson, "your husband is kind to you and the children." "Oh, yes," answered the drummer's wife, "but his kindness is too often of the unremitting kind." "Excuse me," said the god man, "but I'm afraid I am a trifle dense." "You see," explained the lady, "he sometimes fails to remit when away from home." —Chicago Daily News.
