SHUT OUT BY GIANTS

New York Pennant Holders Down Philadelphia.

ATHLETICS MADE A PLUCKY FIGHT

Inability to Hit McGraw's Mutt Explains Defeat of Quakers' Pride Whose Batters Hit the Air.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—The Giants won the first game of the world's series with the Athletics here amid a scene of enthusiasm never before equaled in this city. More than 25,000 persons gazed baseball mad cheered wildly, smashed each other's hats and, storming the field, carried the victorious players to the clubhouse on their shoulders.

The vanquished Athletics put up a plucky fight and were not deserted by their friends. Fully 5,000 persons gathered about the bench of the "broad brims" and, refusing to let them move, cheered and shouted to their words of good cheer for almost half an hour.

The Athletics got enough men on bases and had plenty of opportunities to drive in runs, but they could not do it. Plank was effective also, but he was not the master of the situation that Matty was.

In the fifth inning Plank became nettled at Sheridan's decision on balls and strikes and lost his temper. That was fatal to him, for he was hit for singles by Matty and Donlin, gave McGraw a base on balls and was hammered for a double by Marten. After that he settled down and pitched good ball.

The Giants got their run in the ninth by terrific stick work. Gilbert, who is not supposed to be a stickler, smashed out his single and was sacrificed to second by Matty. Then Brasnahan hit safely, and the run was in.

In the matter of fielding there was little to choose, each team doing sharp work. The Athletics played perfectly, and Donlin's muff of Schreck's fly in the third cost nothing.

To sum it up, it was the American national game at its best. Score—New York, 3; Philadelphia, 0.

Women's Golf Championship. CONVENT STATION, N. J., Oct. 10.—The tenth annual women's championship tournament of the United States Golf association has opened here. Two players of note, Miss Georgiana Bishop of Bridgeport, Conn., who won the national title last year, and Mrs. C. T. Stout of Apawamis, N. Y., who had won the title twice in succession, were among the competitors.

ATHLETES AT WHITE HOUSE.

The President Calls Representatives From Big Universities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—What may prove one of the most important college athletic conferences on record was held in the White House on the initiative of President Roosevelt, who was the host.

On his invitation representatives of Yale, Harvard and Princeton, the leading universities of the east, came together. Yale sent her representative Walter Camp, her general adviser in all branches of athletics, and Jack Crowley, her head baseball coach.

The Harvard representative was Bill Reid, head football coach for the crimson, and the Princeton guest was Doc Hillebrand, the Tigers' football and baseball coach.

They received an invitation from the president to dine with him at the White House and were not tardy in sending their acceptances.

The president desired to consider with the athletes particularly the morale of the game of football with a view to eliminating much of its brutality if possible. The idea of the president is simply to start the ball rolling in the direction of a modification of the rules of the game.

Mr. Camp and President Roosevelt are old friends. The president belonged to the class of '80 at Harvard, and Mr. Camp was a member of the same class at Yale. Mr. Camp was the leading Yale athlete of his day, and Mr. Roosevelt, although not a varsity man, was a prominent member of the Harvard undergraduate athletic committee.

They met at athletic conferences and formed an acquaintance that has been maintained throughout later years.

Mr. Roosevelt was the prime factor in bringing Yale and Harvard together in 1890 after they had parted in the row following the 1884 football game. The good feeling then engendered has never been broken.

MANAGER DEAD IN TRUNK. Ramon Carmona Murdered and Hidden Away at Havana.

HAVANA, Oct. 10.—The body of Ramon Carmona, manager of a trunk store here, was found inside a locked trunk which had been concealed in a remote corner of the store underneath a stairway. Suspicion points to a youth called Jose, who has been employed in the store for a month past and slept there. Carmona had opened his safe, presumably under compulsion, and $2,000 had been taken from it.

Carmona entered the store at the usual hour in the morning, but later the police were notified that the store had not been opened for business. The police, however, did not enter the store until the afternoon, and the body was then found.

Beyond the wounded fingers there were no marks on the body except where the throat had been clutched. It is believed that Carmona died of suffocation. Jose has disappeared.

Trusted Man Held For Fraud. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—After working two years as a trusted clerk in the bureau of assessments and arrears, appearing on the records of the civil service board in the name of a dead man, Joseph Ford, who has served sentences in prison aggregating more than twenty-three years for manslaughter, assault and larceny, was arrested here and locked up at police headquarters.

Ford is charged with having impersonated a cousin, Frank A. Silney, who died a year ago after having successfully passed a civil service examination for a junior clerkship. On the day when the warrant was obtained for his arrest Ford had his salary raised from $600 to $1,200.

Princeton Sophomore Missing. PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 10.—The university authorities are seeking to obtain tidings of Percy Kuttroff of New York city, a sophomore, who came to Princeton on Sept. 18 and was last seen here about a week later. His brother, who learned of his disappearance last week, came here, but could find no trace of him and employed a private detective, who is working on the case in conjunction with the university proctor. Kuttroff sent his trunk here by express, but never claimed it and also failed to register at the office of the university.

Boston Traders For Tariff Revision. BOSTON, Oct. 10.—At the annual meeting held here of the Boston associated board of trade, composed of twenty-three constituent trade bodies, a stand was taken in favor of tariff revision. A resolution was adopted unanimously asking that congress at its coming session consider the question of reducing rates of duty on certain articles. The board recommended that a number of raw materials, such as coal, iron, lumber and hides, be placed on the free list.

TEN MILLION LIMIT

Commander Rodney Would Abolish Multimillionaires.

"IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN!"

To "Preclude Private Property Right Being Carried to Absurd Extremes"—"The More Dollars the More Damnation."

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A most remarkable circular calling upon the United States government to limit the fortunes of individuals to $10,000,000, all holdings over that amount to be confiscated and forfeited into the United States treasury, has been sent out by Commander Robert Rodney, U. S. N., retired.

In the opening of his unusual circular Commander Rodney says: "Begin the national and state constitutions with the invocation 'In the name of God, Amen!'"

"Preclude private property right being carried to absurd extremes." Continuing, the commander declares: "No citizen or resident or investor in any or all states, territories or districts shall be permitted to possess in any or all kind of property an aggregate value of more than $10,000,000, which sum shall be the limit of private property in or for any individual, agent or other form or device of private estate ownership or reserved for each inheritor or legatee. And whenever or wherever such aforesaid private ownership shall be found to exceed the limit above named the excess shall be condemned whether or not as a public nuisance, a public felony or a public sine and be accordingly forfeited into the United States treasury."

"You have either to limit fortunes or see certain ones redoubled with endless thousands of millions of dollars each. They were started by watering and gambling in stocks or cornering city real estate and natural products. Compound interest has done and will do the rest, tariff or no tariff, tax or no tax, trusts or no trusts."

Commander Rodney then points out the danger of increasing fortunes and the possibility of revolution started in the crowded cities. For national safety, he says, cities should be reduced rather than increased in size. He predicts purgatory for the rich who have extorted money from the masses.

"To mortify, warn and restrain Mammon worship," says the commander, "engrave on coin, currency and bonds Cassin's saying, 'The more dollars, the more damnation.'"

President Sees "Mlle. Modiste." WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt with a party of friends, consisting of Secretary of State Robert C. Taft, Justice Holmes of the supreme court of the United States and Mrs. Holmes, last night witnessed the performance of the new opera, entitled "Mlle. Modiste," at the Columbia theater, with Miss Fritz Scheff in the title role. Miss Scheff was given a splendid reception and was well supported by a large company. During an intermission the composer, Victor Herbert, who wrote the music for the opera, stepped to the director's chair and led the orchestra in singing the "Star Spangled Banner."

The president joined the audience in the hearty applause which followed.

Can't Hang This Man. CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Because of a peculiar freak of nature Robert Gardiner, a prisoner in the county jail here charged with the murder of James Morrison, may escape the death penalty. When he was arraigned in court his attorney, William Buckner, startled the court by saying: "This is a case where it won't do any good to ask for the death penalty. They can't break this man's neck if they do try to hang him, and you may lose him altogether by hanging him and failing to execute the sentence in full. It appears that the prisoner is suffering from ossification of the vertebrae and tissues of the neck."

King May Not Receive Him. BUDAPEST, Oct. 10.—When parliament reassembled here today it faced a situation of the greatest confusion. The compromise programme which the coalition leaders requested Herr von Szogyeny-Marloh, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Berlin (at present on his estate at Coor, Hungary), to submit to the king-emperor has seemingly proved a failure, as his majesty has not yet indicated any intention to receive the ambassador for this purpose.

Won't Let the Cedar Logs Go. VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 10.—The provincial government has seized six large loads of cedar logs that have been sold to United States mills and were being exported. The legislature has announced that not a stick of provincial timber shall go into the United States and that Americans must manufacture here if they use British Columbia lumber.

Dr. M. E. Hornbeck Dead. ALLENTOWN, Pa., Oct. 10.—Dr. M. E. Hornbeck of Catawissa is dead here from apoplexy, aged sixty-three years. He was a member of the American Medical association. Dr. Hornbeck was the hospital steward of the One Hundred and Twenty eighth Pennsylvania regiment at the battles of Fredericksburg and Chancellorsville.

Speaker Nixon's Condition. WESTFIELD, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Speaker S. Fred Nixon's condition remains about the same with a slight improvement in pulse, respiration and temperature. There is no improvement, however, in the condition of the wound, which discharges freely with a stimulating effect.

THE MOSCOW RIOTS.

Strikers Numbering 200 Arrested and Beaten by Cossacks.

MOSCOW, Oct. 10.—A large force of artillery had been posted in front of the palace of Governor General Durnovo for the purpose of defending it against anticipated attacks. A meeting of workmen sent a deputation to the chief of police to ask permission for the holding of a mass meeting to discuss questions relating to the strike. Notwithstanding that this request was refused a crowd of 2,000 persons assembled at 8 o'clock last night in the presence of strong detachments of Cossacks and other troops and resolved to continue the strike until all the employers had granted the strikers' demands.

The number of persons wounded in the previous disorders has not been definitely established, but it is believed to be about a hundred, of which number twenty-five are police or soldiers. One policeman has died of his wounds, and several others, including an officer, are suffering from serious injuries.

Two hundred strikers were arrested at the Philippoff bakery and taken to the courtyard of police headquarters, where they were severely beaten by Cossack troops before being released. None of the Philippoff bakery strikers were killed.

HUGHES DECLINED TO RUN.

Insurance Investigator Held That Duty Lay in Another Direction.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Charles E. Hughes has declined the Republican nomination for mayor on the ground that a paramount public duty forbade him to accept it. He said he could not permit the nonpolitical character of the insurance investigation to become a matter of debate by his acceptance of the nomination. He feared that his running for mayor would inevitably discredit the inquiry.

Moreover, the work of the investigation, Mr. Hughes said, required every moment of his time, and he would not be willing to run with his mouth shut and his hands tied.

Commander Rodney likewise declined the nomination for comptroller when the committee waited upon him at his office in Spruce street. He said: "I appreciate very highly the honor conferred upon me by the Republican party of this great city in nominating me for the office of comptroller. I also appreciate the expressions of esteem and the confidence of my friends and fellow citizens in me, as indicated by the numerous letters and messages which I have received, and regret very much that I cannot see any way clear to accept the nomination."

Bloodhounds to Seek Olney's Slayer. MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 10.—To all appearances the authorities are still completely baffled in their efforts to solve the mystery of the triple tragedy at the Olney farm last Friday. It is now proposed to take bloodhounds to the scene in the hope that it is not yet too late for them to pick up the trail of the assassin. The experiment will be made as soon as the hounds can be obtained from the Napanoch reformatory, but as thousands of persons have visited the farm and scoured all the surrounding country it is felt that the chances of success are remote. The condition of Mrs. Ingerich has improved considerably, and District Attorney Rogers had a long conversation with her.

Foraker Cancels Engagement. CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 10.—Because of troubles at Philadelphia and the impropriety of his participating therein, United States Senator Foraker has canceled his engagement to speak in Philadelphia on Oct. 18. Senator Foraker said: "The report from New York to the effect that the administration is offended because I accepted an invitation to speak in Philadelphia is ridiculous throughout. Where I shall speak and what I shall say are questions that I answer for myself, and no one concedes my right to do so more thoroughly or cheerfully and cordially than President Roosevelt."

Will Be Known as "Socialist" Party. ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 10.—The political party known in this state during the last campaign as "Social Democratic" filed with Secretary of State O'Brien a copy of a resolution adopted at a meeting of its state committee in New York city on Oct. 4 at which it was decided that the name of the party hereafter should be "Socialist." This action was taken as the result of a decision of the court of appeals that the name "Social Democratic" infringed upon the rights of the Democratic party and therefore could not be used in this state.

Miss Wood's Suit Against Platt. OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 10.—T. J. Mahoney, counsel for United States Senator Thomas C. Platt of New York and for the United States Express company, defendants in a civil suit recently brought by Mae C. Wood for $25,000, which she alleged to be due her for services rendered, has filed answer to the petition. The answer is made as a motion that Miss Wood be required to give more detailed information as to the services she rendered to the company.

Half Interest Cost $600,000. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—John R. McLean, owner of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has purchased from the Washington Post company the amount of the purchase money is not stated, but it is understood to be in the neighborhood of $600,000. Mr. McLean will be made president of the Post company and will take an active part in connection with John F. Wills, in the management of the paper.

FOUGHT A GOOD FIGHT

Dr. Shanley a Martyr to the Plague at New Orleans.

RETURNED TO DUTY WHILE ILL.

Death Claimed a Hero of War on Yellow Fever in the South—Volunteer in Medical Army on Bayou Barataria.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 10.—A martyr to the fight against yellow fever, Dr. C. M. Shanley, formerly of North Dakota, lies dead at his plantation home on Bayou Barataria as the result of a relapse from yellow fever.

Dr. Shanley came to Louisiana with his family three years ago. When yellow fever appeared on Bayou Barataria he volunteered his services to stamp out the disease. He placed his steam launch at the disposal of the authorities and for days and nights visited and ministered to the sick.

Several weeks ago he was himself stricken and was brought to New Orleans Emergency hospital. He remained there until he believed himself cured and immediately returned to the bayou and resumed his work.

Exposure and the fact that he had ventured out too soon resulted in a fresh attack of the illness, and death has claimed him. Dr. Shanley was a Mason and will be buried from the Masonic temple with high Masonic honors.

After raining steadily for about thirty-six hours the weather has cleared. Adverse winds and the heavy rains backed the water from the lake into the basins and also submerged a considerable portion of New Orleans. A stop has thus been again put to the sanitary work.

The fever report shows: New cases, 17; total, 3,212; deaths, 1; total, 411; new foci, 6; cases under treatment, 187; cases discharged, 2,614.

MONK GIBSON IN THE TOILS.

Edna Mob Claims For Death of Condemned Murderer.

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 10.—The negro Monk Gibson, charged with the murder of the Condit family near Edna, Tex., has been caught by a posse and placed in jail at Edna.

A mob has surrounded the jail and is clamoring for the prisoner. It is expected he will be burned at the stake, as practically the entire community is against him and that has been decided as his fate.

The sheriff and his men have the aid of troops, but the mob numbers 3,000 and is in a determined mood. Gibson murdered Mrs. Condit and her three children in their home. The husband and father of the victims led the posse in the hunt for the negro and demands that he be lynched.

Storey Cotton Fraud Trial. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—Stanley Francis, alias Arthur S. Foster, alias Arthur S. Foster-Francis, etc., was placed on trial here, charged with having used the mails to defraud in connection with "get rich quick" enterprises. The specific charges against Foster are that he was the principal in the Storey Cotton company, which is alleged to have defrauded a large number of persons throughout the country. Shortly after the jury had been selected to try Francis United States postal inspectors placed William C. Byrum, a lawyer of Bradley Beach, N. J., with offices at Belmar, under arrest on the charge of attempting to unlawfully influence witnesses summoned to appear at the trial.

Greene and Gaynor Reach Savannah. SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 10.—F. F. Gaynor and B. D. Greene, the men who fought extradition to the United States from Canada for so many years, arrived here. Their wives, who had preceded them to Savannah, met them at the depot. The prisoners were at once taken to jail by United States Marshal White, who had gone to Montreal for them, accompanied by Deputy Marshal. The prisoners seemed in good spirits. Gaynor said: "I am glad we are back in Georgia. I know now what a mistake we made in leaving. But we cannot always tell what is for the best, and if we had known then what we know now we never would have gone."

Victory For Norwegian Government. CHRISTIANIA, Norway, Oct. 10.—After two days spent in excited discussion the storting at 130 o'clock this morning proceeded to a division on the proposal of the Republican minority to submit the Carlsberg agreement concerning the dissolution of the union between Norway and Sweden to referendum. The proposal was rejected by a vote of 109 to 8. The agreement was then accepted by a vote of 101 to 14. This is a great victory for the government.

Couple Found Dead. HASKELL, I. T., Oct. 10.—The bodies of Miss Margaret Lindsay, a school teacher, and Joseph B. Young, a barber, have been found in the road three miles north of Haskell. There were marks of violence on the bodies, and a revolver was found near the scene. The couple were last seen alive on Sunday evening, when they drove out of Haskell in a buggy.

A Second Rip Van Winkle. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Thomas Jefferson, the second of the name, after five years of touring with Dion Boucicault's stage version of "Rip Van Winkle" is given a New York players' test of his quality in the play with which his distinguished father's name was so intimately associated.

IN THE HALL OF FAME.

Whittier, Lowell and Sherman Named as American Immortals.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The votes in the second election for the Hall of Fame were canvassed by Chancellor MacCracken and Professors Stevenson and Stoddard of New York university. Only three names were chosen to receive tablets in the five classes in which the canvassing was completed, those of John Greenleaf Whittier and James Russell Lowell in the class of authors and that of General William T. Sherman in the class of soldiers.

The results of the election furnished many surprises. Oliver Wendell Holmes missed election by only three votes, receiving forty-eight of the fifty-one necessary. The greatest surprise was the defeat of Edgar Allan Poe, who received only forty-three votes, the same number received by James Fenimore Cooper.

Among the other literary men who failed of election were William Cullen Bryant, Francis Parkman and John L. Motley, each of whom received forty-six votes, and Horace Greeley and George Bancroft, who were tied with thirty-nine votes.

In the class of teachers no nominee received fifty-one votes, and this corner of the Hall of Fame will receive no addition this year. Phillips Brooks, who received forty-nine votes, was the leader in this class, Mark Hopkins, with thirty-eight, being second.

No jurist or scientist was chosen. Rufus Choate, who led in the former class, received only thirty-one votes, while Joseph Henry, who led the scientists, received thirty-one. Chief among the soldiers who failed of election were Nathaniel Greene, with thirty-eight votes, Stonewall Jackson, with twenty-one, and George Rogers Clark, with twenty.

The Hall of Fame was opened at University Heights five years ago, at which time twenty-nine tablets were unveiled dedicated to the following great Americans: Emerson, Longfellow, Irving, Hawthorne, Edwards, Horace Mann, Beecher, Channing, Fulton, Morse, Whitney, Audubon, Gray, Grant, Farragut, Lee, Washington, Lincoln, Webster, Franklin, Jefferson, Clay, John Adams, Marshall, Kent, Storey, Peabody, Stuart and Peter Cooper.

Willing to Overlook It. "My uncle," she said, "was once a member of the United States senate." "Never mind, darling," he replied, "I love you too much to let that stand in the way."—Chicago Record-Herald.
