WILBURS' FAIR OPENS TUESDAY

Popular Firefighters are Getting Ready for Fair—Big Attractions, Handsome Booths and a General Good Time Arranged for

In order that their preparation may be most perfect, the Wilbur Hooks have decided to delay the opening of their fair until Tuesday evening, instead of Monday as originally planned. They found that they could give a more enjoyable fair if they had Monday evening to make the last arrangements in the booths and finish decorating the casino.

The ladies who are assisting the fire laddies had a meeting last night and did a good deal of work. Everybody seems interested in the fair, and the handsome booths, elegant prizes and excellent music and entertainment features will make this fair memorable.

BENJAMIN F. EMBLETON

The community suffered a loss in the death of Benjamin F. Embleton of Lockhart street, which was announced yesterday afternoon. Henry Price, one brother and three sisters, besides a large circle of friends.

Mr. Embleton was one of the fast narrowing circle of civil war veterans. He fought at Gettysburg and was a member of Mal-lory Post, G. A. R. He was a member of the Methodist church and a director of the Sayre Building and Loan association.

MADE THE SPLINTERS FLY

The bridge over the Lehigh tracks on bridge street in this borough, was practically demolished early yesterday morning by one of the company's big cranes. All the stringers under the west half of the bridge were torn out, and the bridge was closed to teams. Some years ago an exactly similar accident happened and at that time the switch on the east side was lowered sufficiently to allow a crane or a high topped caboose to go under the bridge. Yesterday morning the train crew forgot to take this switch and "bumped the bumps."—Towanda Review.

NO RAT PRINTS IN THIS REGION

Parties from Wilkes-barre are in the valley trying to lure printers to take the places of men who went on strike because of the failure of employers to sign an eight-hour agreement effective January 1, '06. So far as the Record representative could learn, not a man was secured hereabouts. There are no idle printers in this valley. Nearly all are members of the Union, and the few who do not belong are neither "rats" nor strike-breakers. Satisfies the smoker—Lodge Star.
