Cheap Prison Fare
Athens—Capt. F. N. Moore was in town last night looking up evidence to be used in the argument before Judge Fanning today for the purpose of having the expense of feeding prisoners in the county jail and officers' salaries reduced. He figures out the problem that it only costs 46 1/2 cents per week to feed each prisoner. Tom Dangerfield was a cook at the sheriff's hotel recently and he accompanies Mr. Moore as a witness.

Towanda Won
The football game between Athens high school and Towanda at the latter place yesterday was a very exciting one and resulted in a victory for Towanda in a score of 11 to 6. Howard Lucky acted as umpire in place of Dr. Joachim. Marion Sawtelle, Earl Weiss, Lee Groat, J. Donovan, Charles Hardin, Than Van Loan, Clair Lawler and Will Hosmer accompanied the team to Towanda.

Battles Fought By Campfire
Athens—The comrades from Athens who attended the campfire of the Tenth N. Y. Cav. last evening were very much pleased with the entertainment. We found that the boys had not forgotten their former propensities for taking care of themselves and their good friends. They have taken the town and will make things lively while they stay. You would hardly recognize comrade Bunnell, the modest, sedate individual whom you have seen in civil life, as he presides over the deliberations and enjoys the zest and frivolity of the fraternal greetings. He was a good soldier and is a first class entertainer.

Space will not allow an extended report of the meeting last night, but those present will not forget it. After prayer by the chaplain, comrade Druckmiller gave a good speech on the causes of the great conflict, followed by captain Atherton, who, in addition to his civil prominence, has an army record that cannot be surpassed. He gave some interesting accounts from Pollard's Secret History of the Confederacy. Next followed Rev. J. E. Fish, who related some good fish stories and closed with wholesome counsel as to what constitutes patriotic citizenship. This was followed by remarks by comrade Barnum, a member of Kearney's old buttermilk regiment, who later served as captain in a colored regiment. Interesting speeches followed by Hon. E. M. Tuton, Judge Davison, Geo. D. Genung and Will T. Harris. The S. of V. glee club next rendered some patriotic songs, and after the benediction we shook hands and went home.

A banquet will be given tonight and we know the boys will have a feast fit for the gods—and we'll be there.
