

Rochester's Finest Clothing

We invite a careful inspection of our new line outside fabric, lining, and most important of all, the new concave shoulders and perfect fitting neck. The new cut shows the only front ever made that will not break. It fits right, stays right and we guarantee it to be right.

We can show you a lot more about our clothing that you will find in no other make; besides, it don't cost you any more than the ordinary kind. If you have never bought a Rochester Hand-Tailored Suit you've missed something. "Come in and see."

MRS. WILLIAM LAMONTE

The death of Mrs. William Lamonte of North Hopkins street occurred at the hospital this noon from peritonitis and complications following an attack of intestinal stragulation, for which an operation was performed Thursday evening. Mrs. Lamonte had been ill since Sunday night. Previous to that time she had been in exceptionally good health, apparently, and her death comes as an unexpected shock to her family and many friends. She was an earnest Christian woman, well beloved by all who knew her, and she exhibited a sublime faith and trust in Christ to the end. Mrs. Lamonte was born in Tunkhannock, and was the daughter of George M. and Julia A. Lull, the latter of whom survives. She had resided in Sayre about 26 years. Twenty years ago she was married to William Lamonte. She is survived by her husband, three sons, Charles, Edwin and Everett, one daughter, May, two sisters, Mrs. R. D. Williams and Miss May Lull, and two brothers, George E. and Howard M. Lull. She was a member of the M. E. Church. The funeral arrangements have not been made, but will be in charge of J. W. Grumme.

SECURE SUSPECT

Landlord John Touhey came sprinting across the tracks to the station yesterday afternoon and informed Officer Degroff that a man of the description of the barber wanted on suspicion of robbing Comrade Decker at Waverly had had his telltale mustache taken off in an east side barber shop and had gone down the tracks looking for a hobo's pullman. The officer started after, and overhauled several suspects, none of whom proved to be the man. Finally the man of the barber shop was found but he was not the one wanted in Waverly. It is said that Chief Walsh also engaged actively in the hunt.

SUSPICION LEADS TO THOROUGH SEARCH

Rumors that a masked and mighty burglar was concealed in M. H. Sawtelle's barn reached the ears of the police during the night. A thorough search was instituted, but the mysterious man was not found.
