Child Swallows Tin Whistle

Athens—Yesterday afternoon Sibyl, the 7-year-old daughter of Arthur Macafee, of Ulster, while playing with a little round tin whistle, swallowed it and it lodged in her throat below the strangling point from whence it could not be removed. She struggled considerably, but the obstruction finally settled down in her throat where it remains. The parents came to Athens with the child this morning, but as nothing could be done they went to Elmira where Mrs. Macafee's brother, Dr. Case resides and will give the child treatment.
