

Rochester's
Finest Clothing

We invite a careful inspection of our new line outside fabric, lining, and most important of all, the new concave shoulders and perfect fitting neck. The new cut shows the only front ever made that will not break. It fits right, stays right and we guarantee it to be right. We can show you a lot more about our clothing that you will find in no other make; besides, it don't cost you any more than the ordinary kind. If you have never bought a Rochester Hand-Tailored Suit you've missed something. "Come in and see."

TALENTED ARTISTS AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The musical entertainment that is to be given in the Baptist church on Friday evening, October 27, is under the auspices of the Baptist choir. Four talented artists from Binghamton have been secured; the personnel is as follows: Miss A. Mabel Mallery, reader; Miss Laura A. Dean, soprano soloist; Miss Grace Beecher, violinist, and Miss Louise Beecher, pianist. These young ladies are among the most talented artists in southern New York and should attract a large audience. Of Miss Beecher's playing the Binghamton Press remarks: "The violin solos of Miss Beecher were executed with masterly skill." This is the first in a series of musical entertainments to be given in the church this season. The proceeds will be added to the new hymnal fund.

HARVEST SUPPER

The harvest supper given by the ladies of the Baptist church was a complete success. The sum of $61 was cleared. The church parlors presented a very pleasing appearance, being prettily decorated with autumn leaves, fruit and vegetables. Jesse Stedje is having a hot water heating system placed in his residence.

M. P. A. LODGE ORGANIZED

The Modern Protective association organized a lodge at West Sayre last evening. The charter members number 89. Much interest is being taken in the prospect of having this number largely increased in the near future. The members met in Pharmacy hall, which will be the permanent lodge room of the organization. The following officers were elected: Past President—Norman Plumstead; President—Paul Maynard; Vice President—Mrs. Geo. Rounds; Secretary—Augustus P. Kremer; Treasurer—Louis Stevens; Conductor—Clara Herrington; Prelate—Mrs. Susan Williams; Inside Guard—Mary Guiles; Outside

Guard—James N. Herbert; Trustees—Jas. Sheldon, Jessie Stedje, Charles Child.

HOUSE FUMIGATED

The house of Edward Cox, No. 118 N. River street, was thoroughly fumigated by Sanitary officer Spencer Brougham this morning. Some of the inmates have just recovered from an attack of scarlet fever.

MOVANHO CLUB DANCE

The Movanho Club has arranged to give another of its popular dances on Friday evening of this week. The music will be furnished by the Packer Band.

GOING TO ALBION

J. B. Holcomb, who has conducted a barber shop in West Sayre for the past few years, has closed his place of business and gone to Albion, N. Y. Mr. Holcomb intends to follow the same business, having secured a very desirable position at Albion. His many friends regret his departure and all unite in wishing him the highest success in his new situation.

GOOD CROWD AT THE FAIR

The Wilbur Hooks Well Patronized in Spite of the Other Attractions.

The Wilbur Hook's fair opened last evening with a good crowd, considering the number of attractions elsewhere last evening. Through a misunderstanding the Packer band did not attend, but music was furnished by a phonograph.

The booths were very pretty and were attended as follows: Candy, Mrs. J. N. Wilkins, Mrs. Charles Low; Ladies' Home Journal, Mrs. F. E. Wass, Miss L. E. Wass, Miss Peckens; fancy work, Mrs. W. J. Crans, Mrs. G. W. Prince; orange tree, Mrs. Arch. Wilkins, Mrs. Geo. Wilkins; ice cream and lunch, Mrs. John Babcock, Mrs. Peckens, Mrs. Lester Bostwick; flower, Miss Marion Lowe, Miss Mabel Gay, Miss Lizzie Pealer, Miss Jo Cramer, Miss Heckman; dodging dolls, John Low; shooting gallery, Carl Low; Pfeiffer; corner grocery, Nelson Peckens, W. J. Marble, Karl Driggs. Barton's orchestra will play this evening. Watch the bulletin board for interesting information.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. S. T. Harleman is in Towanda.
H. H. Mercereau went to Towanda this noon.
John J. Cummings returned to Towanda today.

EARLY APPEARANCE OF MISS EMERSON

Among the attractions announced for the near future is the appearance of Mary Emerson in "Will o' the Wisp." Miss Emerson's appearances here are always awaited with much interest, and coming as she does in a new play, the interest is greatly enhanced. Her fine work in "His Majesty and the Maid" will be remembered by our theatre goers. Her role in "Will o' the Wisp" makes greater demands on the ability of the artist than her part in the first play. The character is a strong emotional one, but calling also for some delightful light comedy. She will be seen at the Loomis on Wednesday, October 25.
