BAD BOYS BOTHER PASSING PEDESTRIANS

There is a crowd of bad boys just old enough to be smart, who congregate nightly at the corner of Lockhart street and Elmer avenue. Not only do they obstruct the sidewalk, but they offend pedestrians by making impertinent and insulting remarks as they pass. If Sayre were a country crossroads where there was no law and no officers, or a metropolitan city where bigger business occupied the attention of the police, this nuisance might be endured. But as it is, there does not seem to be much reason for allowing the obnoxious practice to continue.

TABARD INN AT GILLESPIE'S

The patrons of the Tabard Inn library will be pleased to hear that the Sayre station has been transferred to H. L. Gillespie's drug store on Lockhart street. The quaint old sign hangs out over the walk and the weathered oak case of all the latest books stands just inside the door. Owners of one book in the red-banded black case are owners of an unlimited library without needing an addition on their houses to hold the books. It is easy to exchange at the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Burrows of Athens were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Morgan, 308 East Lockhart street.

POSTOFFICE BURGLARS STRIKE CINCINNATUS

The police department received notice early this morning that the postoffice at Cincinnatus had been blown open by burglars during the night. The names of two of the thieves, who were said to have gone east on the Lehigh, were given as William Sells and John Black. No description of any kind has been furnished the Sayre police, so it is not likely that the men will be captured here.

GOOD MUSIC AT WILBUR FAIR

Barden's Orchestra Did Good Work Last Night—Hosmer's Band Engaged For This Evening

Those who attended the Wilbur Hooks' fair last night heard some great music. Barden's orchestra did the work and did it well. Everybody wished that there was a dancing platform handy.

The other attractions drew strongly and furnished considerable amusement for those who attended.

For tonight, the full Hosmer Marine band has been engaged and will doubtless furnish very pleasing music.

MAN BEATS HORSE

While at the races at Athens Tuesday, E. J. Connelly and T. J. Leahy became interested in a discussion about the speed of some of the animals entered.

"I could run around the track faster than that horse," E. J. is reported to have said.

"Rats, you couldn't run around there while my slow old nag was going it five times," retorted T. J., with what was meant to be crushing scorn.

His opponent had money that said he could beat the horse out on the terms proposed, and the race was started. Mr. Connelly sprinted fast and furious and did his half mile while the horse was going around twice.

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

William Ellsworth of Wyalusing, the regular candidate for sheriff nominated by the Prohibition party, was in Sayre in the interest of his canvas today. Mr. Ellsworth is a straightforward, convincing man, and says that he endorses the action of the Taxpayers' Association of Bradford county, in asking that the fees of the County Treasurer and price for boarding jail prisoners be reduced, and that he will do everything in his power to lower the burdensome taxes.
