A DELAWARE RIVER TRAGEDY.

Seven Men Drowned When Launch Was Run Down.

BEVERLY, N. J., Oct. 23.—A launch containing ten men, all of Philadelphia, collided with a barge in the Delaware river off this place, resulting in the drowning of seven of the occupants of the little boat. The other three were rescued by the crew of the tugboat Bristol, which was towing the barge when the accident happened.

Those rescued are Captain John Winch, the owner of the launch; W. F. Russell and J. Rutherford. The names of only three of the victims were ascertained. They are William Winch, son of the owner of the launch, John Ellis and a man named Russell. The launch was hired by eight of the men, most of whom lived in the north-eastern part of Philadelphia. The elder Winch took his son along to assist him in running the boat. The day was spent near Croysden, on the Pennsylvania side of the river. The start home was made late in the afternoon. Opposite this place the launch met the tug Bristol, in command of Captain Mott, which was towing a barge to Bordentown. Whether Captain Winch saw the barge is not known. Nevertheless he attempted to cross the tug's stern. Captain Mott halted him and tried to prevent him from doing so. Captain Winch was standing at the stern of the launch as he went around the tug struck him and knocked him overboard. Before the captain's son or any other member of the party could take the wheel to steer the launch clear of the barge the latter struck the frail boat amidship, capsizing it. The launch rolled under the barge and its occupants went with it. Captain Mott put the tug about and went to the rescue. He and his crew threw ropes and life preservers to the struggling men in the water, but they were only able to save three of them.

Miners' Sympathy Strike Over. HAZLETON, Pa., Oct. 23.—The miners of G. B. Markle & Co., who struck last week, have decided to return to work this morning. The driver boy who was the cause of the trouble must remain idle until the question of his wages is decided by the conciliation board, which the men and the company have agreed shall settle the issue. The driver boy quit because he claimed he was not being paid the standard rate. When refused reinstatement the other drivers struck, and the miners followed suit.

Students Must Attend Chapel. PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 23.—The Princeton students have been notified that they will be compelled to attend week day chapel regularly. There has been no chapel so far this fall because the authorities have been too busy with the preceptorial system to attend to the matter. Beginning today each student who attends chapel will have to sign a slip with his name and give this to the doorkeeper on passing out.

PROMINENT RESIDENT SUSTAINS SHOCK

Former Member of Legislature Stricken With Paralysis at His Home in Smithfield
Athens—Hon. A. Scott Newman of Smithfield sustained a shock last Friday that left him paralyzed on the left side and rendered him speechless for a time. He had gone out to the stable to feed his horses when all at once he felt a prickly sensation in his hand and gradually creeping into his arm and neck. He became alarmed and started for the house, but was overcome as he reached the porch. Medical aid was summoned. Yesterday his condition was improved. Mr. Newman is a very prominent business man, well known and respected. He served in the Pennsylvania legislature with credit two terms and is a man of high intelligence and honor.

JOHN BANKS ALIVE DESPITE RUMORS

The Report That He Had Been Killed Without Foundation
Athens—If yesterday had not been Sunday John Banks would have read his obituary in the evening papers after returning from his run on the Lehigh Valley train. Yesterday morning a telephone message was received here that John was killed in the Coxton yards. The proprietor of the Campbell House, where Banks boards, kept the wires hot trying to run down the report but without avail. There seemed just enough plausibility in the rumor to give it credence around the streets and for a time Sherm Dubois and Chas. Ostrander were in mourning, for Banks is a member of the gun club and they were not ready to bid him farewell. Last night Banks came in and took his room at the hotel as usual. He says he is not yet ready to be listed among the immortal heroes, and the man who put that story in circulation had better keep shady.

Attended Funeral

Athens—Street Commissioner Mulligan is having a dry well dug at the corner of Maple and Ferry streets. The well is to aid in carrying off the water during and after storms.

Barn Burned Saturday Night

Athens—The Ira Smith barn in Sheshequin burned Saturday evening. It was on the Sam Osborn farm. It is not known whether the building was insured or not.

STEAMER PROGRESS SAFE.

Body of Wheelman Fox caught in a Fish Net Near Lorain.
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 23.—The steamer Progress, which had been missing four days and was feared to have been sent to the bottom by the storm during the past three days, has arrived at the Soo. The Progress carried a crew of fifteen besides the captain, Thomas J. Brady of Detroit, and John Maxwell of Buffalo, chief engineer. The Progress left Ashland last Sunday with one for Cleveland. The body of Fox, one of the wheelmen of the steamer Sheshequin, which was lost off Lorain, has been picked up by a fish tug ten miles west of Lorain. It had been caught in the fish net. There was a life preserver on the body. Fox and another wheelman jumped overboard when the storm was at its height.
