WIELAND CO.
THE BIG STORE WITH LITTLE PRICES
SAYRE, PA.

Store Closes Daily at 6 P. M. Except Saturday and Two Evenings After Pay Day.

Our Customers

Good Value, Courteous Treatment and satisfaction in all things, is what we want it to mean to you to be a customer of Reeser, Kessler, Wieland Co.

Ours is a business of infinite detail. To collect all this merchandise that passes through our hands, place our buying, very largely at first hands, with 10 other large stores of the Roe Syndicate and get goods here, be on time, never make a mistake is no easy task, but it's the trying that we enjoy. If we have made an error, give us a chance to correct it. That's the management's desire. One thing sure. We buy for cash, sell for cash, and that's why you recognize this store so easily as "The Big Store With Little Prices."

MINING COMPANY ELECTS OFFICERS

Harmonious Meeting Held Last

Evening and Active Operations Will Now Begin
Athens—The Athens Mining company held a very important meeting last evening at Justice Tozer's office, elected officers and are now ready for active operations in an harmonious spirit. E. W. Manning of Waverly, Frank J. Schrier and J. Clint Carner were elected directors. G. H. Stimson, president, instructed them as to the duties of their office. Prospects are very encouraging for a profitable business and they all seem to be determined to enter vigorously into the work of bringing the precious metal to light.

FORMER ATHENS RESIDENT DEAD

Expired at His Home in Syracuse, N. Y., on Saturday Morning.

Athens—Silas J. Fritcher died at his home in Syracuse, Saturday, aged 72 years. He was the son of Henry I. Fritcher, who in early times was a prominent citizen of Athens. Deceased was born here and was one of the bright young men at the time the writer came to reside in Athens. His sister, Ann Eliza, was one of the devout christian spirits that went out as a missionary with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tracy to Marsovan, Turkey, where she spent her life.

Silas J. Fritcher enlisted in the civil war with the first company, that of Capt. Daniel Bradley and served in Co. F, 6th Pa. Res. until wounded in the battle of South Mountain, when he was discharged. He re-enlisted a cavalry regiment and served until the victory of Appomattox.
The family moved to Syracuse where they have resided ever since, and where their parents died several years ago. Mr. Fritcher was one of the first members of Protection hose company 50 years ago.

Mr. Fritcher was buried in Syracuse Monday, October 23.

Brief Local Mention

Rev. Mr. Allen will begin his pastorate at the Baptist church next Sunday.

Jeremiah Vansice has been granted an increase of pension of $12 per month.
