Roosevelt Club Celebrated.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 28.—Theodore Roosevelt's forty-seventh birthday was celebrated in St. Paul last night by the Original Roosevelt club with a banquet at which 400 covers were laid for enthusiastic admirers of President Roosevelt.

The banquet hall was appropriately decorated in national colors and portraits of President Roosevelt and other prominent national figures in the Republican party. Justice Jaggard of the Minnesota supreme court was toastmaster, and he paid a glowing tribute to Theodore Roosevelt in introducing President A. B. Stickney of the Chicago Great Western railway, who lauded the president in a toast to "The President and the Railroads."

Hildebrand each have a new house in course of construction. J. D. Hoagland is making extensive improvements on the Sedgwick property recently purchased by him, and Mrs. Bennett has improved the appearance of her place by the addition of a coat of paint and a new roof.

ARCHITECT WILL SUBMIT PLANS

For Remodeling the Tioga House Into an Odd Fellows Temple

Waverly—There will be a meeting of the directors of Manoca temple this evening at Chas. C. Hoagland's. Architect Pierce of Elmira will submit plans for remodeling the Tioga hotel into an Odd Fellows' temple, and these plans will be acted upon at the meeting.

The bonds of Seward A. Baldwin, treasurer, and Judge Frank Bell, secretary, will also receive attention. The lodge is in a prosperous condition and the membership is increasing continually. There are at present seven candidates for the second degree and ten for the initiatory degree.

PLANS HAVE ARRIVED

Waverly—A sketch of the plans has been received from Arthur M. Gibbs, architect, of Elmira giving his ideas for remodeling the old Y. M. C. A. building into a Masonic temple, have arrived and there will be a meeting Monday night for the consideration of the plans submitted, when some action will probably be taken.

"HUMAN HEARTS"

The enormous success of "Human Hearts" during the past ten years is a direct refutation of the idea entertained by so many theatrical managers that sensational and criminalism and criminal adjuncts are necessary to a play to assure its success with the public. Such plays die out as soon as the public interest wanes. Not so with a drama possessing the merit of "Human Hearts." The lease of life accorded such a play is not dependent on a momentary interest, excited by some crime, but on the firm, solid basis of humanity and human feelings. It touches our heart strings, rouses our latent better instincts and makes us feel kinder towards our fellow man, for having witnessed it.

"Human Hearts" will be presented this season with an especially strong company of players, and the same fidelity to scenic and mechanical detail that made its former visits notable. The engagement is for Monday, October 30, at the Loomis.
