VISITORS SAY SAYRE IS A HUSTLING PLACE

But Wilkesbarre Delegation Hesitates to Come Here Because of Lack of Amusements

According to the statement made by one of the men who came here from Wilkesbarre Saturday last to look over the new Lehigh Valley shops there are grave doubts whether the mechanics who have been employed in the shops at the former place can be induced to come to Sayre. The delegation which came here Saturday was composed largely of young men, many of whom are single, and who have either been brought up in a city or else have lived in large towns long enough to acquire the notion that a place as small as Sayre has absolutely no attractions at all. The men expressed themselves as well pleased with the shops, and although they admitted that Sayre is a hustling place for its size they contend that it is radically different from that to which they have been accustomed and there is not enough in the amusement line to make it an inducement to come here. They also said that rents and the cost of living in Wilkesbarre were much cheaper, and they cited other conditions as objections. One of the men said that he did not think that more than half a dozen of the men could be induced to leave Wilkesbarre.

The attitude of the men is discouraging to the officials of the company as they believed that when the former had once looked over the situation at the new shops they could readily be urged to come here. Although the men are young many of them have been with the Lehigh a considerable length of time, and the company desires to give them employment rather than depend upon the services of new men. One thing is certain, however, and that is that the company is up against the proposition of getting men with which to operate the shops, and if they fail to get them from among their old employes they will eventually seek elsewhere.

RENTED RICHARDS BLOCK

John R. Kasper, Sayre's well known restaurateur, has leased the lower floor of No. 226 Desmond street, known as the Richards block, and will fit it up for restaurant purposes. The floor was formerly occupied by James Wiltse's cafe, and recently there has been some talk of converting the building into a hotel. Mr. Kasper has rented the place in order to take care of his constantly increasing business. Recently he has been obliged to turn people away from his restaurant near the corner of Lockhart and Desmond streets and the new place will be run as an annex. There will be no quick lunch counter but the place will be remodeled into an up-to-date dining hall where meals will be served in every respect identical with the ones now furnished at Mr. Kasper's old stand. He expects to have everything in readiness at the new place on November 15th. The renting of the place to Mr. Kasper does away with the probability of the building being converted into a hotel for the present, at least.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to the friends who so kindly assisted, and to the teachers and scholars of the Elmer avenue school, and to the members of the Baptist Sunday school and others for their kindly expression of sympathy in our late bereavement. MR. AND MRS. JAY SMILEY.

DELIVERED TWO FINE SERMONS

Rev. W. S. H. Heermans Occupied Pulpit at Church of Christ in Morning and Addressed Evening Services in Evening.

Rev. W. S. H. Heermans of Towanda occupied the pulpit at the Church of Christ in West Sayre yesterday morning and in the evening addressed the union meeting in the Methodist church. In the morning Mr. Heermans spoke on the "Folly of Killing the Prophets" and urged his hearers to stand together for righteousness. At the meeting in the evening he took his text from the Lord's prayer, "Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." He contended that as there is no evil in heaven there should be none on earth.

Both meetings were well attended and the remarks made by the speaker were full of interesting thought and produced a good impression.

SCARCITY OF CARS HANDICAPS LEHIGH

Present Famine is One of the Worst in the History of Railroading

The Lehigh officials are greatly agitated over their inability to get freight cars to handle the constantly increasing patronage of the road. Transportation is being seriously handicapped and the question is not how to get traffic but how to handle it. Every car building concern has orders on hand that it will take months to fill and they are being hurried daily in their work. The Lehigh has large orders placed but the cars are arriving slowly. The present car famine is the worst in the history of railroading and it will be a year before the congestion is relieved.

PERSONAL MENTION

Henry Walbrige of Towanda is transacting business here today. Harry Talmadge was at Hammondsport yesterday, the guest of relatives. R. A. Holcomb spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Woodin of Towanda. Miss Marion McKenna of Towanda is the guest of her brother, Thomas McKenna, of this place. Sterling Gangwer of Sharon, O., was the guest of Dr. G. F. Carling yesterday. Mr. Gangwer is a traveling salesman and on his way south.

Herman Jenkins of Kasper's restaurant, who has been spending several days at his home in Pittston, returned to his duties this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, who have been spending the past month among friends in Sayre, will leave tomorrow morning for their old home in Tucson, Arizona.

Chief Walsh accompanied the Lehigh Valley excursion to Niagara Falls yesterday. It was the last of the popular Sunday excursions of the season and a large crowd went along.

Mrs. Estelle Hyer of Rochester who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Charles Shores of South Desmond street, left this morning for San Francisco, Cal., where she will in the future reside.

WILL ENTERTAIN DENTISTS

The dentists of the three valley towns, and there are a number of them, too, will be entertained by Dr. Joachim of Athens, Thursday evening next. Supper will be served at 6:30 and a smoker will follow.

SLIGHT BLAZE ON SATURDAY NIGHT

The Firemen Were Called Out to Extinguish An Incipient Blaze at No. 117 Hospital Place.

An alarm of fire at 6:50 o'clock Saturday evening called the local fire department to 117 Hospital Place to extinguish an incipient blaze which had originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace which is used to heat the building. The house is a double one and one side is occupied by Samuel T. Harleman, assistant superintendent of the Lehigh Valley shops, while the family of E. A. Wilber, the Lockhart street liquor dealer, live in the other side. The firemen responded promptly and when they arrived found the cellar and the rooms of the house completely enveloped in smoke. A stream was turned into the cellar and the blaze was easily extinguished.

It is not known in just what manner the fire originated but it is thought that a spark flew from the furnace and ignited a quantity of excelsior which was lying on the cellar bottom. The furniture owned by Messrs. Harleman and Wilber was considerably damaged by smoke.

LOCAL MENTION

C. W. Vansycle of Church street recently purchased a new milch cow. Joseph Farrell's home on East Lockhart was fumigated today by Health officer Brougham. Hosmer's Marine band will give a promenade concert in the West Sayre pharmacy hall tomorrow evening. Miss Mabel Gay and Miss Lena Grant will entertain at what is the evening at the latter's home, No. 104 Hayden street.

Last night was the coldest thus far this season. There was a heavy white frost and the ground was considerably frozen.

All members of the Wheelock Hose company are requested to return their uniforms to D. J. Sisson, the property clerk.

I. U. Ingham, the well known grocer, has rented the south side of the house owned by Drs. Yielding on South Wilbur avenue.

Coleman Hassler, the well known dealer in coal, is confined to his home at No. 117 Hopkins street, suffering from typhoid fever.

Hattie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Jones, of No. 130 Chestnut street, is suffering from scarlet fever. The case was reported to the board of health by Dr. M. A. Hunter today.

Burton J. Carpenter, who has a lucrative position as pipe fitter in the Lehigh Valley roundhouse at Buffalo, is visiting at the home of C. G. Mathews, 514 North Elmer avenue. Mr. Carpenter is a former Athens boy.

HOSPITAL NOTES

James P. Shields suffered a severe contusion of the left forearm today while working about an engine in the shops. Mrs. Emma G. Hudson of 119 Hoover street, Sayre, Mrs. Charles Brewster of Waverly, Mrs. George Lull of Owego, and Mrs. Anna Maher of Laquin, and Miss Laura Curkendall of Athens were operated upon at the hospital this forenoon, the latter for appendicitis.

FLYING BOLT HIT CARLTON IN HEAD

Was Taken to Hospital in Unconscious Condition But Will Recover.

Just before noon today John Carlton of Athens, an employe of the Lehigh shops, was taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition, the result of having been hit on the left side of the head by a flying bolt. Carlton was engaged in driving counter bolts out of an engine tank when one of them shot to the opposite side of the tank and rebounded, striking him on the left side of the head inflicting a severe contusion. He fell to the floor unconscious and it was at first thought that he had been seriously if not fatally injured. The ambulance was summoned and he was taken to the hospital. The physicians say that while he is suffering from concussion he will recover.

OAKDALES DEFEATED

The Oakdale foot ball team of this place met defeat at Towanda Saturday afternoon in the contest with a team representing the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute. The Towanda bunch greatly outclassed the visitors in weight and the latter could do but little in stopping the plunges of the former. The score stood 22 to 0.

HEARING IN JOHNSON CASE

Lilley & Wilson are at Pittsburg today arguing the appeal which was taken in the case of Charles Johnson, who was recently convicted of complicity in the murder of Annie Benjamin and Maggie Johnson, for which crime Bigler Johnson, a brother of Charles, has already paid the penalty for the part that he took.
