PREACHED HIS FAREWELL SERMON

Yesterday Marked Important Epoch in History of Athens Presbyterian Church

Athens—Yesterday marked a very important epoch in the history of the Athens Presbyterian church. It has had an eventful career, reaching back to the earliest time in our town, and been a prominent factor in shaping its social and religious life. As has been previously announced, Rev. W. H. Sawtelle preached his farewell sermon in the morning, thus closing his pastoral relations according to the rules of the Lackawanna Presbytery. The sermon was largely reminiscent in which Mr. Sawtelle related his experiences in the ministry and reasons for choosing that profession. Among his earliest recollections was a cherished hope that he might some day enter the ministry, but his delicate health prevented and he was employed on the railroad for a time. His health improved and he entered college and later the Theological seminary.

At the close of his theological course a call came to the pastorate of the Nineveh, N. Y., church, at which place he labored fourteen years. At that time a call came from Athens and he accepted, rejecting two other offers to come here. When he came the condition of the church was not encouraging, and by his untiring efforts Mr. Sawtelle brought to pass a better state of affairs, and today the church owes much of its prosperity to his labors. The large congregation yesterday morning gave evidence of the high esteem in which he is held.

Rev. Dr. Simpson of the M. E. church suggested bringing his congregation to unite in the evening service, and they were present. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. After a brief talk by Rev. Sawtelle, Dr. Simpson spoke at length, stating that himself and his congregation were present to manifest their high esteem for Mr. Sawtelle. His remarks of christian fellowship and co-operation was an eloquent tribute to the unity and affection of the churches in our town.

At a meeting of the session last Thursday evening it was voted to continue Mr. Sawtelle as supply until his successor is secured.

Ladies' Library Club
 Athens—On Tuesday, October 30, at 2:45 the following program will be given: Continuation of federation report; Swedish letters to be read. A chafing dish social will follow. Please take forks.
